

COMMERCIAL CLUB FOR NEW PAVING

RECOMMENDS THAT REGENTS PETITION TO PAVE TENTH

Nebraskan Anti-Noise Campaign Bears Fruit in Action Taken Friday

The good roads committee of the Lincoln Commercial club Friday afternoon recommended to the board of regents that the university petition for the resurfacing of Tenth street past the campus. This action of the club is a result of the campaign waged by the Daily Nebraskan to eliminate unnecessary noises about the campus.

All that is necessary to secure the new surface is a petition signed by the regents who as representatives of the university, are owners of fifty per cent of the property affected. The Commercial club has urged that the university take advantage of the law that but thirty per cent of the property owners need petition for paving on streets within a certain distance of a government building. The close proximity of the postoffice to the university campus would make a petition signed by the regents sufficient to secure the paving.

What action the regents will take is only a matter of conjecture. The board however, assist in securing the new asphalt surface to Thirteenth street leading to the campus, and that might be a hopeful sign that Tenth street will receive a quieting coat.

CIVIL WAR PAPERS BOUGHT BY LIBRARY

The library has just purchased a file of the Chicago Daily Times beginning with 1861 and continuing during the Civil war and the Reconstruction period. This will be exceedingly valuable for the work in American history—especially as the papers are in good conditions and are printed on an excellent quality of paper. The Times was edited by W. F. Storey and was so strongly copperhead in its attitude that it was at one time ordered suppressed.

ZUMWINKLE GETS NEW JOB

Otto Zumwinkle has accepted a position as instructor of gymnasium classes in the Lincoln High school. The employment bureau of which he was part manager will be placed in the hands of John Riddel. The university student activities office regrets Zumwinkle's departure.

MENDELSSOHN PROGRAM INTERPRETED

"Midsummer Night's Dream" and "Fingal's Cave" to Be Given

At Tuesday's convocation the University quintet under Mrs. Raymond's direction, will render two attractive overtures, "Fingal's Cave," and "Midsummer Night's Dream." These are among the finest of Mendelssohn's compositions, and it will be a rare treat to hear and enjoy them.

While in England, Mendelssohn once visited the Hebrides off the west coast of Scotland, and he was much impressed with the wild grandeur of Fingal's Cave on the rugged and lonely isle of Staffa. He afterward composed this overture in commemoration of that visit.

This cavern, carved out by the action of the sea waves, is remarkable not only for its imposing dimensions and its wonderful resemblance to human handiwork, but also for its resonant quality. Fingal is Norse for musical. When the sea is smooth the waves make a gentle murmur through its hollow depths, but in time of storm, the fury of the sea as it rushes with the roar of artillery into these pillared portals sheeted with

SENIORS LOSE TO SOPHOMORES

Class Basketball Title Won by Sophomore Girls

The Sophomore team upset the dope and won the Interclass Basketball Championship from the Seniors in the annual tournament Saturday night, by a score of 13 to 10.

In the first round the Sophomore team after a hard struggle bested the Freshmen 10 to 6. The work of Camilla Koch, the Sophomore center, was the feature. She caged three baskets, one of them being of the long spectacular kind. Helen Hewitt, captain and center of the Freshman team, registered two baskets and played the floor in good style. A collision between these two stars threatened for a moment to rob the game of its luminaries.

The Senior team romped away with the Juniors, handing them the small end of a 24 to 9 score. The passing and goal tossing of the Leydas, Camille and Lucille, was easily the feature. This pair played team work in admirable style and counted for 22 of the 24 points made in the game by the Seniors. Lucille Leyda made eight baskets and Camille three, one of which was almost from the center of the floor. The Juniors fouled continually but the Seniors failed to make many of the free throws. For the vanquished Ermine Carmean played the best game, at forward. During this game the Senior star forward while carrying the ball down the boor was noticed to cast a shoe violently high above the scoreboard. Soon replaced, the game continued merrily on.

In the finals the Seniors lost to the Sophomores. It seemed to be a case of Koch vs. Leyda with the first named parties having a little the better of the argument. The Soph team was the more aggressive and by close guarding led the Seniors at the end of the first half 7 to 4.

The Seniors were not able to head off the plucky Sophomores and the game ended 13 to 10, giving the Sophomores the title. As in the first rounds, the work of the Leydas and the Kochs was the outstanding feature. Camilla Koch played the best game seen on the local floor in many a day, getting four field baskets and throwing two fouls. Two of her baskets were of the vaudeville variety from difficult angles. The Leydas were too closely watched to get started but Lucille succeeded in tallying three field goals.

SIGMA CHI'S END PROVINCE MEETING

Fraternity Problems Discussed at Convention Held Last Week

Sigma Chis from five states including Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado, concluded their annual Province convention Saturday evening, with a banquet at the Lindell. The convention throughout was one of the most successful in the history of this province.

W. C. Hennings, grand praetor of the Sixth province, presided at the meetings, and discussions were had of the fraternity ills and their remedies. Resolutions were adopted for a more uniform regulation of fraternities.

The banquet was attended by about ninety active Sigma Chis and alumni. Yale C. Holland, of Omaha, presided as toastmaster and toasts were responded to by Dr. J. M. Bannister, Omaha; George M. Spinlock, York; Fred Armstrong, St. Louis, Mo.; Fred M. Shepherd, James L. Brown, Chester H. Aldrich, Dr. J. L. Stevens, W. E. Hardy, Lincoln.

Those in attendance from out of town were, Dix Teachener, Kansas City, Mo.; B. C. Garside, Colorado Springs; R. M. Cornwall, Spencer, Colo.; E. P. Tesdell, Denver; Thos. Dacy, Kansas City, Mo.; B. H. Bratney, St. Louis, Mo.; Geo. Hetzel, Canada; Herbert M. Potter, Wm. Gahner, Claude Tipton, Harry Cummings, H. D. Landis, Seward; Yale Holland, Ed. Polleys, Art Wernner, Ed. Bannister, B. C. At this time the election of officers for the next year will be held. Tickets will be on sale on different parts of the campus the early part of the week.

THE KOSMET PLAY ON HIGH PLANE

"THE KNIGHT OF THE NYMPHS" FULLY SUCCESSFUL

Musical Comedy of Different Order Than Plays of Former Years

The Kosmet Klub's fifth annual play, "The Knight of the Nymphs," presented at the Oliver theatre last Friday evening, proved one of the most artistic productions of the organization. The play was of decidedly different type than last year's; it was more ambitious in design; and it reached a higher plane of artistry. It may be questioned whether it as completely fulfilled the purposes of a college production—that is a matter of personal opinion. On the whole, the play seemed superior to former productions.

One careless piece of stage managing was apparent in the first act, and was not remedied during the course of the play. Miss Gertrude Munger, who sang the lead with a beautiful contralto voice that she used most gracefully, was hidden from the view of half of the audience during two of her duets with Jack Elliott. Not only did it destroy much of the illusion to have Mr. Elliott singing love ballads to a post, but it placed Miss Munger at a decided disadvantage.

With this one exception the play was well-staged and the scenic effects were good.

The fairy scene in the second act was one of the finest pieces of staging put on in Lincoln, and the dancing was far better than would have been expected. The play from start to finish demonstrated that the university possesses more beautiful singers, more graceful and artistic dancers and more talent generally than the average citizen dreams of, and in getting this fact before the public the Kosmet Klub is doing a service to the school.

The play was notably scarce in "catchy" music, the kind that can be used for the newest form of the dance. On the other hand the music was more artistic, and on a higher plane than that of past years, and Mr. Meisinger, Mis Burroughs, and Mr. Raver are to be complimented for putting the lyrics on such a high plane. The same must be said of Mr. Clark, whose book offered a skillfully designed plot and clever lines.

It is difficult to give especial mention to any member of a cast when the

University Night

This season of the year brings University Week to the especial attention of the student public. The fact that this is only the second year of life for this institution demands that more than ordinary care be taken in preparing and carrying out the programs.

One of the greatest enemies the university has to contend with is the adverse sentiment in the out-state districts. This is due to the fact that few of the people of those districts know the university as it really is. They base their visualization of school life on the occasional stories of police regulation of student conduct, or of a boy sneaking into a girl's party. Their opinion of the school is that it is a place to spend money and condemn the soul. This is not true everywhere, but the idea exists to a surprising extent.

The way to cure this evil is to acquaint the people with the school as it really is. To do this, University Week has been established. It takes to the people the results of student activity outside of the classroom by means of the entertainments of the Glee club, the Band, the Dramatic club, and the Debates. The life of the classroom is given in Doctor Condra's lecture on school life.

Because all the people cannot come here and see what we are doing, we take the university to them. If they approve, it will mean that they will desire their children to become a part of this social unit. If they do not approve, the old opinion will prevail. If they approve, it will mean a Greater Nebraska. If they do not, it will mean a dwarfed institution.

You are responsible for the success of University Week. Get busy, and show the people of the state that the university is an institution worth while.

Dean Engberg's Statement

To the Students of the University:
The University of Nebraska has many things to be proud of, chief among which is the sterling character of its student body. Now, the honor of the university is so inextricably bound up with that of each individual student that no one can do a dishonorable act without striking at the honor of the university, and so reflecting dishonor on all the other students. This was felt very keenly last Friday evening when a few "gallery gods" were trying to break up the Kosmet Klub play. There is no harm in judicious letting off of steam during the intermissions—it may even provide a pleasant diversion—but no right-minded person will disturb the program with asinine brayings. The strongest and best force in the university is student opinion intelligently applied, and to this force I appeal for the protection of the honor and good name of the university. When each student fully realizes his responsibility in this matter the silly fools whom "for the good of our souls" we have always with us will be quickly and effectively silenced.

Signed,
CARL C. ENGBERG.
