What Prominent People Think of the Single Tax

I desire to compliment The Daily Nebraskan on the skill with which it has handled the Single Tax problem. The paper has been fair, has given both sides, and has brought the question to the point at which it has a fair chance to be solved correctly. I also have to confess that it has nearly, or quite, converted me, and made me ready to say, "give the plan a trial." The only important point that has not been discussed relates to the feeling of the people of the state, and the parents of the students, in regard to having a $6 bill added to the regular fees that are now paid. There are dangers in the plan; but I am almost or quite convinced that the advantages may outweigh the disadvantages. At heart, I am willing to let the students decide the issue by vote on the question.

H. W. Caldwell.

If provision can be made for remitting the fee in cases where extreme poverty can be proven—which would be very few in the whole school—I believe the movement would be of extreme benefit to the student body in general. Some of the activities are not getting the support they should have. Therefore, this artificial means of securing the attention of the student may not be out of place.

C. C. Engberg.

I am in favor of the Single Tax.
Dean Mary Graham.

Good proposition. Have been wanting to see it adopted for a long time. It is the only thing that will put activities on the proper basis.

John Westover.

The Single Tax has proven very successful in other institutions. I believe that it should be adopted by the students of the University of Nebraska.

E. F. Schramm.

BOHEMIA IN SORRY PLIGHT
Vojta Benes Declares, in an Address in Art Hall

Vojta Benes, Bohemian lecturer and educator, spoke in Art hall Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. His subject dealt with the European war and its relation to Bohemia.

Mr. Benes lectured in the United States two years and returned to Bohemia just three days before the war broke out. He had to enlist and was sent to the front, although later he was excused from military duty because of physical disability.

According to Mr. Benes, the plight of Bohemia is sad. Bent under a foreign yoke, she is forced to pour out her blood in fighting her own kinsmen. Serbians and Russians are her brothers and, but for her subjugation, Bohemia would be comrad-at-arms with them.

low Slavs that whole regiments of Bohemians joined the French, Serbians, English and Russians without firing a shot. One celebrated regiment from Prague, when led against the Serbians, refused to fire. As a result all the officers and every tenth private were executed. If the allies win this war, a new period will begin for Bohemia. Three countries will be made independent—Poland, Bohemia and Slavonia.

Mr. Benes is now on a lecture tour of the west.

BARBOUR WILL LECTURE BEFORE ENGINEERS

Prof. E. H. Barbour will give an illustrated lecture on "Park and Park Systems" with particular reference to Lincoln, Friday night at 8 o'clock in room 206 M. E. building, before the Engineers' club of Lincoln. Prof. Barbour has long been interested in the above subject and has prepared an interesting lecture. He has taken pictures of parks, roads and alleys in many cities of the United States and Europe. Especially will he emphasize the English parks, which if not exactly the most artistic, are better suited for civic purposes.

STUDENT EDITOR EXPELLED

Because he has been publishing an exposure of hazing of students, Walter Martin, of Lamar, Mo., editor of The Research, has been expelled from the University of Missouri. Martin recently was compelled to sit on a cake of ice while his face was painted with iodine. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, highest academic fraternity, and was tried by the student senate several weeks ago. He was ordered to print retractions and refused. His expulsion because of "certain charges against his fellow students" followed. Martin has twice won the Field poetry prize.

GERMAN DRAMATIC CLUB MEETING

The German Dramatic club met in Faculty hall last evening. A one-act play entitled "Die Jugendliebe" was given by Clara Schulte, '17, Lena Williams, '16, Fredrich Rabe, '18, Gerhart Naber, '17, and Robert Nesbitt, '18.

Plans were discussed for taking a German play to various towns in Nebraska during University Week.

GIRL SOLOIST NOT YET PICKED

The girl soloist for the Glee club has not yet been selected, although the second tryouts were held Tuesday evening. Six girls sang the song that had been assigned, but Mrs. Raymond put off the decision until the end of the week. The girl who makes the club will accompany it on the University Week trip.

TO GIVE IRISH LUNCHEON

An Irish luncheon will be given by the School of Agriculture girls Saturday at 12:30 o'clock. Although two days earlier, the appointments will be carried out in true St. Patrick's style. The senior's stunt will describe girls' college life and prospects after leaving school. All school of agriculture girls are invited.

The toast list will be as follows: "Girls in the School of Agriculture, as They Have Been," Lola Marshall, '15, "Girls in the School of Agriculture, as They Are to Be," Nedra Vance, '19, "A Girl's First Year in the School of Agriculture," A Faculty Member.

WHAT DOES THE FUTURE HOLD FOR YOU?

Eighteen months ago two neighbor boys had an equal chance. One enrolled in the Nebraska School of Business; the other did not. Today the former is drawing $100 per month, and the latter is working at "odd jobs"—when he can get them. A few months' schooling made the difference. Let us tell you about it.
