THE SINGLE TAX

AND THE PARENTS

The factor that many believe to be the chief obstacle in the way of the Single Tax is the attitude of the parents of university students. This is the element that its enemies are counting on for its ultimate defeat. It is contended that the parents will oppose the fee because the things it buys are a luxury; that they will countenance nothing but what is necessary, and will object to any effort on the part of the authorities to select the student's recreation and compel him to pay for it.

We cannot believe that the people of Nebraska are so shortsighted. We are willing to show them just what the fee is for, where it prevails, and what the results are, and believe that they will endorse its adoption.

In the first place, the Single Tax is not expensive. Take Kansas as an example. Kansas has an incidental fee of $10 each semester, this fee being doubled for non-residents. Nebraska at present has an incidental fee of $3, with a library fee of $1. Add to this the Single Tax and we have a total of $7 a semester. Kansas is representative of the schools in Nebraska's class. We believe that the figures will show that with the Single Tax in its list Nebraska will be below the average state institution in the matter of the amount of entrance expenses.

But granting that the fee might be a slight burden, we believe that its merits will win its endorsement at that hands of the people. The people do not want their children to read The Daily Nebraskan over the shoulders of someone who is paying for it. Nor do they want their children to pay for the paper for someone else to read. They will be convinced by the faculty that student activities are a good thing for the student, and that those who need such work the most are those who are least liable to take advantage of their opportunities along these lines unless some form of compulsion is established. And lastly, no true Nebraskan will hesitate to approve a move which will put Nebraska student life on a par with that of other universities.

No, we are not afraid of what the thinking parent will say about the Single Tax.

Live, energetic students can make $10 to $50 next week in your home town. An easy article to sell when demonstrated. Men who make good during spring vacation will handle men this summer. For interview, phone B-2615, between 9 and 1 and ask for C. R. 116-117.

NON COMPOS MENTIS

BUT WE WILL!

We want to state that some of these people walking around the campus who wear bone-rimmed glasses and eat lemons and vinegar to make themselves pale, needn't think they are going to be P. B. K.'s, because they won't live that long.

Some people sure are "crabs," aren't they?

REPARTEE

When a woman has a "chip on her shoulder" and tells you what she thinks of you at the rate of one hundred and fifty miles an hour, the best way to have some fun is to wait until she runs out of breath and then smile sweetly and tell her that you just adore that shade of blue she has on her hat.

ONE WILL DO IT

A little game of billiards,
 Or a wilful lass,
 May cost a mint of money
 Or make one skip a class.

One little hand of poker,
 Another hand quite pale,
 May make a genial joker
 Write home to dad for kale.

THIS DEFEATS US

A freshman asked, the other day, when High School "Feet" day will be! Feet are a very important article for anyone to have, but our experience has been that a high school pupil's head is by far more highly valued and significant than common ordinary feet.

WHAT IS AN OMEN?

"An 'omen' is a nut with a soft shell," according to a brilliant student in English literature. If that's the case, this university is an uncomfortable place for superstitious people, isn't it?

TIME FLIES

Why how old I've got to be,
 Feel as if I was fifty;
 Came back to the U. of N.
 Feeling fine and nifty.

Went up to the campus green,
 Soon as I arrived;
 Looked around for old-time pals,
 And, Gee! I was surprised.

Scarcely anyone I knew,
 All so kind of young;
 Everything was queer and changed,
 Almost tied my tongue.

Went up to a dance that night,
 Thought I'd hesitate;
 Then began to look around
 And saw 'twas my mistake.

Awful funny how things change,
 Mighty kind of queer;
 I'm an old back number now,
 I've been at home this year.

 The Business Women's club will be hostesses to all university girls at tea in Art hall tonight from 4 to 5 o'clock. There will also be music.

CADETS, ATTENTION!
 To the Cadets of the University of Nebraska Regiment:

The military department is planning a regimental supper, to take place on April 13, the purpose of which will be to enthrone the men of the regiment as a whole with a greater interest in their military work. This event will follow a review, and the cadets will eat in uniform, one company to a table, in the Armory. In order that the event will be a success, each man is requested to do his part, primarily by attendance, of course. No men are expected to be excused, and the companies will be marched to their places in the Armory. An orchestra and some good live speakers are planned, as well as plenty to eat. Here's to the spirit of the Nebraska Regiment.
