STAGE IS SET FOR FIRST FARMERS' FAIR

down town campus and back over O street.

It is believed by the managers that Lincoln has never beheld such a heterogeneous collection of vehicles as will be displayed in the big parade. Headed by the university band and winding up with the calliope, it is composed of floats which vary from the strictly educational to the hilariously humorous.

Students are reminded of the athletic events in the afternoon. All the stands will begin operations in the afternoon, and the "Big Show" is billed for a matinee performance. The "Big Show" is to be offered in the judging pavilion of the new barns. This theatre has a capacity of several hundred, and has a stage comparable in size with that of the larger Lincoln theatres.

Porter wishes to remind all students seeking athletic honors or $2 that the greased pig contest is open to all and the winner's name will be published far and wide.

The Better Babies Show, as originally presented at the Night program, has been revised and improved until it is unrecognizable. This is another of the attractions which will be offered at the Farmers' Fair and will provide some merriment.

To avoid any possible mistakes all purchases and admissions will be obtained by tickets. About fourteen ticket sellers have been provided for and a 5 cent ticket will buy any salable article or obtain admission to any show on the ground. This arrangement assures the ever-suspicious public that this fair will be not only unique in its method of presentation, but also in its business transactions, meaning that it will be entirely devoid of graft. Each ticket seller will be charged with rolls of tickets as they are provided him, and all tickets
