VOTE!

Don't forget to vote tomorrow. The state is asking you to give it the advantage of what you have regarding self-government.

The issues and the many candidates asking for your support demand careful thought. While state-wide prohibition is the main state issue, it must be remembered that main issues are a very small part of the business of the state or county. Select above all things men who can not only settle the prohibition question correctly, but who can also conduct the affairs of the government properly thereafter.

THE JUNIOR PLAY

After some of the junior plays in the past their future abolition has been seriously considered. But the success of Friday night's performance assures that the institution is here to stay. The play was well chosen, well acted, and financially a success. The Daily Nebraskan extends congratulations to all who had a part in the production.
