PHI PSI PICNIC

The Phi Kappa Psi fraternity gave its second annual picnic at Beatrice Saturday, when thirty couples motored down from Lincoln. Beatrice was reached in the middle of the afternoon, and a boat trip made up the river to the grove west of the city, where a picnic supper was prepared. The return to Beatrice was made early in the evening, dancing being enjoyed as the barge floated down stream. The party motored back to Lincoln late in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Cook chaperoned the picnic. Philip Southwick, '15, and Ben Cherrington, '11, were alumni members of the fraternity who attended.

ACHOTH FORMAL
