degree from this university in 1897, and his doctor's degree from Columbia in 1901. In 1903 he was office editor and contributor to the New International Encyclopedia, and he was contributing editor to the Webster's Dictionaries, 1903-1908. He was made professor of philosophy at the University of Nebraska in 1908.

Among Dr. Alexander's works are, "Problems of Metaphysics," "Pilgrim Alden," "Poetry and the Individual," "The Mystery of Life," and "Odes on the Generations of Man."

BRIEF BITS OF NEWS

Don't neglect to attend convocation at 9:30 daily.

All alumni visitors are invited to make their headquarters at the alumni office, basement Administration Hall.

Visitors in Lincoln should avail themselves of the opportunity of having their portraits made by Townsend Studio, 226 South Eleventh street. 3t

The "Deutscher Klub" established last summer by the summer students of the German department, was a great success. Why not revive it this summer?

Registration for the summer session takes place Friday and Saturday in Administration Hall. Students in the summer session have the pleasure of trying out their courses for a week before registering for them.

The seniors and the officers of the German Dramatic club were entertained at the home of Miss Ida Wilson,

'16, last Thursday evening. Though the occasion was one for farewells, "echt deutsche Frohlichkeit," was not lacking. The outgoing seniors were made to perform, and Miss Magdalene Craft, the new assistant coach for next year, was installed with fitting ceremony.
