Published tri-weekly, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays during the Summer Session, by the Student Publication Board.

The Cornhusker management has taken up the task of working up a Summer School section of the Cornhusker with commendable energy and the various organizations have shown the proper school spirit in the way in which they have signified their intention to co-operate. The spirit shown among the Summer School students this year is widely commented on by those who have observed the development of this part of the University for some time. One professor who has taught in Summer School for thirteen years, declared that never has there been such a group consciousness and such a spirit of co-operation among the summer students before. Summer Schol is coming into its own.

Some Nebraska yells and the Cornhusker song are printed in this issue of the Nebraskan. Learn them. Nebraska is rather lacking in appropriate yells and songs but we should make use of those we have.

FORUM

The "inglorious" score by which Kearney defeated Peru in the picnic ball game was 10 to 8—get it straight. The Kearney team refused to play more than five innings. However, it is so seldom that Kearney's triumphs over Peru in even a small way that we suppose their enthusiasm is pardonable. Enthusiasm, nevertheless, need not take the form of exaggeration.

Berlin Opens Municipal Kitchen.
Berlin.—The first serious step toward the solution of the problem of feeding the masses in Berlin by means of municipal kitchens and eating houses was taken with the opening of an institution combining these features in the great market hall in the east side of the city where the population is composed mainly of working men. About 7,000 persons will be fed daily this week, and after that 30,000, the food consisting of meat and vegetable stew cooked in gigantic kettles.

Reports from the storm-swept gulf states, though bringing news of property loss that may total millions of dollars, established definitely but one death, that of an engineer killed at Bond, Miss., when his train ran into a washout. Reports from Beloit, Ala., that seventeen negroes were killed there Thursday was denied.

Thirty people, members of the Kearney Recreation club, on their way to a picnic, dropped from the Platte river bridge at that place with a big freight truck when the machine crashed through the timber railing at the side and went into the river. Seventeen of the thirty were injured, one so seriously that he may die.

The administration omnibus revenue bill, creating a tariff commission, imposing a protective traff on dyestuffs, repealing present stamp taxes and providing for new taxes on incomes, inheritances and war munitions profits passed the house by a vote of 240 to 140.

The Cornhusker
(By permission of the author, Robert W. Stevens.)
Come a runnin', boys,
Don't you hear that noise
Like the thunder in the sky,
How it rolls along
In the good old song,
For the sons of Nebraski.
Now it's coming near
With a rising cheer
That will sweep all foes away
So, with all our vim
We have got to win,
And we're going to win today—

(Chorus)
For Nebraska and the Scarlet,
For Nebraska and the Cream,
Tho' they go thru many a battle
Our colors still are seen
So in contest and in victory
We will wave them for the team
And 'twill always stir a Cornhusker
The old Scarlet and Cream.

When the sun is bright
And the fields are ripe
With the tassel on the corn
You can hear it grow
In the evening glow
Or the hush of early morn.
In the state so fair
'Tis the very air
That inspires us with a zest
That in any fray
We will not dismay
But will do our level best.

Cheer for Nebraska,
Nebraska must win;
Fight to the finish—
Never give in.
You do your best, boys;
We'll do the rest, boys;
Fight for the V-I-C-T-O-R-Y!

Numerous scientists, industrialists and representatives of commerce and agriculture have formed a German national committee under the chairmanship of Prince von Wedel, says the Koelnische Zeitung, with the aim of "awakening a uniform understanding of the German people for an honorable conclusion of peace which shall guarantee a secure future empire."

The French have captured all the German second positions south of the Somme on a front of about ten kilometers. They have also completed the occupation of the village of Estress, where 200 Germans surrendered.

German casualties from the beginning of the war to the end of June, as computed from official German lists, are given as 3,0126,637 in an official statement.
