BRIEF BITS OF NEWS

The Summer School girls at 335 North Fourteenth street were entertained at a picnic given by Mrs. Lane at Capital Beach, last Wednesday.

Mary Holcomb, '13, of Osceola, is visiting in the city. Miss Holcomb has been principal in the Stromsburg high school the past two years.

The girls at 1220 R street are planning a picnic next Sunday. Mrs. Poor is to be mistress of ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanhope Pier returned yesterday from Greeley, Colo., where Mr. Pier's mother was buried Wednesday.

C. Ray Gates, president of the summer graduates, has been elected superintendent of schools for next year at West Point, Nebr. Mr. Gates has been principal of the high school at Blair, Nebr.

Vincent George, '16, and Marion Gillespie, '17, were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents in Osceola, Nebr. Many out of town guests were present at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. George will reside in Seward where Mr. George is in business as an electrical contractor. Mr. George was very prominent in university activities and especially in engineering circles. Both were active in the society. Paul Babson, '17, was the best man and Vida Reckmeyer, bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. George, Mr. Babson and Miss Reckmeyer motored to Lincoln yesterday to enjoy a theatre party at the Oliver, returning today.

SONNETS OF A PESSIMIST

VII. Of Languages.

When on Olympus all the nightly gods Took solemn council of the state of man,

To raise him from the beast that weary plods

The circle of existence, how to fan
In him a nobler fire, and how to link

Him to their higher race, they chose the plan

To give him power of progress, power to think.

Of man, ennobled, all endeavors ran
To reach a higher stature and to walk

With mightier beings; so by day and night,

His wordless prayers besieged the halls of light.

The wearied gods then gave him power to talk.

Alas, the years have shown his choice the worst.

The second gift makes him forget the first.

VIII. Of Science

The realm of Science, in whose darkened ways

Man has been prone to wander all his days,

Lies yet in checkered patterns, where the light

Intensifies the blackness, and betrays Only a portioned secret as to "How"

And shrouds the "Why" in sullen, un-pierced night.

And still mankind is happy to explore,

Set up new guideposts where, long years before,

Posts were set up another way to guide;

They test, assay, and estimate, allow, Unknowing still, their ignorance to hide,

They name the thing; then it seems known; and now

They labor on from early dawn till dark.

Producing labels with a question mark.
