

The Daily Nebraskan

VOL. XVI. NO. 3.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1916.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

MORE VARSITY "N" MEN APPEAR ON GRIDIRON

SHAW, PORTER, RIDDELL AND CAMERON WORK OUT

Doyle, Otoupolik and Gardiner Practice Punting—Fans Crowd Bleachers

The practice on Nebraska field yesterday afternoon was featured by the appearance of four former varsity stars in the persons of Shaw, Porter, Riddell and Cameron. All of these men having been in camp at Beatrice, were in first class shape to join the rest of the gang in the workouts.

The first general workout of punting and passing was followed by more special practice for the varsity men. Corey and Riddell started to educate their toes along the line of goal kicking from placement, while Gardiner, Doyle and Otoupolik practiced punting. "Ote" is swiftly rounding into his last season's form, by means of which he did much to win games, while Doyle and Gardiner are pushing him close for honors.

At the other end of the field those baby freshmen were amusing themselves by abusing a half-dozen of the pigskins. Several new faces were to be noticed here also. Among them were Shaw, a six-foot-two husky from Osceola, and Schmidt of Lincoln, all-state half-back in 1915. This young fellow is expected to make up in speed what he lacks in weight. In addition to those already mentioned were some of last year's freshmen, Engstrom, Gilligan, Smith and Barnes. Altogether about forty-five men were on the field.

NEW DAILY AT IOWA UNIVERSITY

INAUGURATE STUDENT OWNERSHIP AND CONTROL

Purchase Daily Iowan—Six Editions a Week, Including a Sunday Paper

Iowa City, Ia., Sept. 14.—Publication of the Iowa Daily News at the state University of Iowa began with the opening of school this year under the system of student ownership and student control.

The business and policy of the newspaper is backed by a board of seven, four of whom are students elected by the student body and three of whom are faculty members appointed by the president of the university. Six men and one woman make up the board, the co-ed member being Miss Mary Kinneavy, a senior in the college of liberal arts.

Election of the editor and business manager is by the board, and Homer G. Roland is the editor and Thomas F. McDonald the business manager for the first and probably most crucial year of the life of the Iowa Daily News. These chiefs of the staff receive compensation for their work, as do those holding less responsible positions, and appoint their assistants with the approval of the board.

Purchased Iowan
The Daily Iowan, privately published for a number of years as the student paper of the university, was purchased by the Iowa Daily News at the close of school early last summer. With the founding of the new student daily it is expected that the Daily Old Gold, which ran as opposition to the Daily Iowan for a time last year, will not resume publication.

Six editions a week on every morning except Monday will be published throughout the year by the Iowa Daily News, which will issue an eight-page feature number each Sunday morning

Snap and Ginger

The same snap and ginger was present yesterday as was so noticeable the day before. Each part of the practice was run off with lots of pepper.

Calisthenics again afforded the spectators, of whom there was quite a handful, a great deal of amusement. The first exercise on the program was gripping.

The next exercise was swinging the arms, which we are told is to develop the boys so that they can more easily learn the new system of semaphore signalling which is necessary for the extreme open game which will be adopted this year. These two exercises were followed by the bending of backs, necks, legs and new shoes. These exercises are useful for helping the boys to pick up fumbles and pull the famous Sanford hit stunt.

Orders for Pep

With orders to "pep it up a little" the freshmen were then sent off down the field to practice falling on the ball and trying to pick it up while the varsity did the same. After a few more bruises had been gained in this way the varsity men practiced dodging. Caley, Cook and Ralston easily excelled at this part of the work. The work of the others varied from good to poor. Some of them acted as if their legs were made of springs, while others looked as if theirs had just come from the laundry and were stiffly starched. The practice ended with a little passing and jogging as on the night before.

It has been very authentically promised that the coaches will be seen in action for the first time this afternoon.

and four pages on other days. At no time is the ratio of advertising to reading matter to be more than as three to two.

O. K. PERRIN, '14, MARRIED

O. K. Perrin, '14, law, '16, and Miss Anna Higgins, Wesleyan university, '11, of University Place, were married at Omaha, September 12. Mr. Perrin, who entered the university from the Sargent high school, was a member of the university's debating team that defeated Iowa unanimously at Iowa City in '13; he won high Phi Beta Kappa honors; was elected to Sigma Xi, the scientific honorary scholarship fraternity; and led his class in the college of law, taking Order of the Coif honors. He is member of Delta Sigma Rho, the honorary intercollegiate debate fraternity, of Phi Alpha Tau, and Phi Delta Phi.

COMMERCIAL SCHOOL IS GROWING FAST

Registration Heavy and New Classes Organized

Registration is much heavier in the school of commerce this year than ever before and the department is being considerably enlarged.

Economics I has five sections with Professor Bullock at the head of the new division at the farm. In response to a demand by the business men of the state and of various commercial clubs, a greatly enlarged course in commercial organization is being offered with special emphasis on advertising. Professor Martin is being assisted by Mr. Cole, who took his master's degree at Nebraska last spring.

Mr. Cole is well prepared in this work, having taken a course at Columbia university this summer on advertising and salesmanship. He has recently written an article on "Discrimination in Insurance Rates," a subject which required much original research work.

E. R. BUCKNER, '04, HARVARD SPEAKER

Gives Address at Denver of Harvard Class of 1916

Emory Roy Buckner, '04, who was assistant United States attorney for New York City from 1908-1910, first assistant district attorney for New York county, 1910-1912, chief counsel for the board of aldermen in its investigation of the police system, and who for three years has been law partner of Senator Elihu Root, was the speaker at the commencement dinner of the class of '16 at the Harvard law school from which he graduated with high honors in 1907.

At Nebraska Mr. Buckner represented the university in debate two years; was class orator, member of the Innocents, and received high Phi Beta Kappa honors.

SOME SORORITIES RUSHING UNDER DIFFICULTIES

The unfinished condition of many of the sorority houses has been the cause of much anxiety to their occupants. Owing to labor conditions and the amount of building going on in the city, houses that were promised for September 1, were in a rather deplorable state at the beginning of rushing.

In one sorority house the floor was finished in the morning, the furniture moved in, and a party given that afternoon. A few of the upstairs rooms are made respectable looking for guests, but it is no less than a calamity if a door to the others happens to be left open and their awful interior exposed to the impressionable gaze of a rushee.

AWGWAN MAKES 1916-17 BOW

VIRGIL HAGGART
Business Manager of The Awgwan

First Issue of Publication Under Auspices of Sigma Delta Chi

The first edition of the Awgwan for 1916-17 was published yesterday, and created a very favorable impression on the campus. The September 15 number is the first to be published under the auspices of the journalistic fraternity, Sigma Delta Chi, which

All Freshmen Must Wear Skull Caps, Innocents Say

The sale of freshmen caps, begun Wednesday in the armory, will continue until every member of the class is wearing his green toque or skull cap, according to a declaration made yesterday by a member of the Innocents. Not one of the underclassmen is to be allowed to escape this year, and the distinctive headgear will grace the skulls of every male first year student.

The first days' sales have been encouraging, the first year men quickly grasping the opportunity to make their class spirit evident, as soon as the

INNOCENTS TO ELECT TO FILL VACANCY

Will Choose Former Innocent for Axel Swenson's Place

The vacancy among the present Innocents, the senior honorary society, caused by the failure of Axel Swenson to return to school, will be filled by the election, some time next week, of a former Innocent who is still a student in the university.

This is the provision for filling vacancies, according to the constitution of the Innocents. There are at least a half a dozen former Innocents registered in the university upon whom the choice of the society may fall, to take Swenson's place.

Swenson was elected to a teacher's position in the Blair high school, and he accepted. During the summer he attended summer school, and was editor-in-chief and business manager of the first Summer Nebraskan, which was published three times a week while the summer school was in session.

NATIONAL OFFICERS OF KAPPA ALPHA THETA VISIT RHO CHAPTER

Mrs. Hope Davis Mecklin and L. Pearle Green are guests at the Kappa Alpha Theta house this week. Mrs. Mecklin, who is grand president of the fraternity and Miss Green, who is editor of the Kappa Alpha Theta Journal, have been attending a meeting of the grand council in Estes park, and will return to their homes in the east next week.

J. L. Driscoll, '14, of Boise, Ida., is spending a few days in Lincoln.

STUDENT ATHLETIC TICKETS PLACED ON SALE TODAY

FOUR DOLLARS BUYS ADMISSION TO ALL CONTESTS

Football Schedule One of the Best—Will Be 6 Basketball Games, 2 Track Meets

The athletic season tickets will be on sale at the student activities' office in the basement of the administration building this afternoon. The price is $4. This admits the student to all football games, basket ball games, track meets, and other athletic contests of the university. The time for the sale of these tickets is limited, so it would be wise to purchase them early. The student can save by buying a ticket, $8.25 on football alone. Besides this there will be at least six basketball games, two track meets and various other events.

With one of the best squads in the history of the university and a record that has made Nebraska premier in western football, the athletic association is giving the student a chance to see this team work in five big home games.

PRESBYTERIAN GUILD HAS ORGANIZED

Ira Beynon and Marguerite Kauffman Head Student Religious Society

The university students' guild of the First Presbyterian church, has organized for the present year in both men's and women's divisions, the first headed by Ira T. Beynon, '17, and the second by Marguerite Kauffman, '17.

The course of study for the present academic year, according to the announcement made by Rev. Dean R. Leland, the student university pastor, will cover the cardinal teachings of Jesus in order that the students may consider the essential ideas of the Christian religion as a vital force in life and humane society.

As a basis for the study Robert E. Speer's book, "John's Gospel, the Greatest Book in the World," will be used as a text. Reverend Leland, counselor of the guild, will teach the men's division, and Mrs. Leland will teach the women. Alfred Reese, '19, is secretary-treasurer of the men, and Mildred Weesen, '17, holds the same position with the women.

The guild has extended a cordial invitation to all Presbyterian students to enroll soon, as the course of study commences October 1. The First Presbyterian church is at Thirteenth and M streets.

OFFERS $25 FOR TRADITION THESIS

University History a Field for Student Study

Director A. E. Sheldon of the legislative reference bureau, is offering a prize of $25 for the best thesis on "The Traditions of the University of Nebraska."

The offer was made last year but on account of an insufficient number of applicants it was decided to renew the offer this year. The past history of Nebraska is rich in traditions and an effort is to be made to unearth the origin of the many institutions in the school. Class yells, the university holidays, societies and all institutions of local interest are to be included in the thesis.

Either graduates or undergraduates may compete, and if the paper submitted is exceptionally well done, probably more than $25 will be awarded.

All who are interested in this topic may get further information from Professor Caldwell or Director Sheldon.

The First Game

The season starts with Drake university, October 7, at Lincoln. The "Bulldogs" have always had a fighting squad and are sure to give Nebraska a good argument. The Kansas Aggies come next. It is reported that they have a veteran team. Although the youngest member of the Missouri Valley conference, they have won recognition in all departments of intercollegiate athletics. Wesleyan will be met in the third home game. The rivalry of the two schools will make this game well worth seeing.

The Jayhawkers from Kansas next claim attention. This will be "Homecoming" and the gala day of the season. Kansas lost only a few men and with the Yale methods of play she will be a foeman worthy of the best. The final game will be with Notre Dame, November 30. This is one of the greatest inter-sectional games of the year. Those who remember the 20 to 19 score of last year and the powerful Catholic machine, can expect to see another game which will more than equal it.

By buying a season ticket one will be able to see all these games from reserved seats for about one-third the actual cost of single admissions.

RARE RELIC FOR UNI. JOURNALISM

PROF. FOGG OBTAINS COPY OF FIRST STATE NEWSPAPER

Copy Framed and Hung in the Journalism Seminary Room

A rare relic of early Nebraska journalism was hung in the journalism seminary yesterday, where Prof. M. M. Fogg is assembling portraits, pictures, and other matter illustrative of American journalism. It is a copy framed in double glass, of the first issue of the first newspaper published in the territory of Nebraska—"The Nebraska Palladium and Platte Valley Review," issued at Bellevue, November, 1854.

"This is the first column of reading matter set up in the Territory of Nebraska. This was put in type on the 14th of November, 1854, by Thos. Morton," reads a note at the top of the column headed "Agriculture."

Governor T. B. Cuming pulled the first proof and Chief Justice F. Ferguson read it, says an editorial on the event "in the very wake of heathen darkness," with Indians peering in "at—to them—the incomprehensible art by which thought is symbolized and repeated in ever-enduring form on the printed page. As the Indian disappeared before the light of civilization, so may the darkness and error of the human mind flee before the light of the press in Nebraska."

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS TO MEET SUNDAY

The first meeting of the Student Volunteers, the organization of university men and women who intend to enter the foreign missionary field, will be held at 4 o'clock Sunday, September 17. All volunteers are asked to be present, and only student volunteers will be admitted.

ALUMNI NEWS

Matthew Herold, '14, of Plattsmouth, member of Phi Beta Kappa, will enter the Harvard law school this fall. He goes Monday with Reed B. Dawson, '14, Harvard law, '17.

Dean Driscoll, '07, law, '10, who is practicing law at Boise, Ida., is candidate for the legislature. He was member of the university's debating team that won from Illinois at Lincoln in 1907.