Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second class mail matter under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

A Womans' building with offices and a reception room would have been an ideal place for the Girls' club party Saturday afternoon. The four hundred girls who were crowded into Music hall and Faculty hall would certainly have been more comfortable in a larger place. Nevertheless the party was a great success considering the handicap under which the hostesses worked.

Everybody has one privilege in this life that no one can take from them—that is, expressing their own views on a subject. If a person approves or disapproves of something, it generally is a service to others to let them know about it. So, The Daily Nebraskan will have a "Forum" column in which letters from both students and outsiders will be gladly printed.

The freshmen showed the varsity up in the game Saturday afternoon, the freshmen making one touchdown and the varsity only two. This little paragraph isn't written to "take all the joy out of life," but merely to remind the over-confident onlooker that though the team hasn't been beaten in five years, its time is coming, and it behooves all of us to tread lightly.

One eminent physician claims that the health of more people is ruined during their four years in college than at any other time in their life, and this is because when students are made independent of all supervision for the first time, they do not use their best judgment. Nine people out of ten act like silly children, and do not know how to distinguish work from play, and play from work, but succeed only in making a combination salad of everything they have to do, much to their sorrow, later.

Nebraska alumni are showing unusual interest in The Daily Nebraskan this semester, and we have received letters from Nebraskans far away, asking that the paper "with all back numbers," be sent to them.

SCRUBS, BEATEN, OUTPLAY VARSITY IN FIRST GAME

the offensive. His one best performance was shouting, at a critical moment, "Come on, guys, let's get that old married man." That was just when Rutherford entered the game. Doyle's bucks off tackle were the surest ways the varsity had of gaining, although end runs by Cook were quite effective.

Otoupalik did some good line bucking, as did Rhoades and Proctor. The defensive work of Corey was quite noticeable, as he nailed the scrub man behind the line on various occasions. Moser, playing the position of "roving" center on the defense, also attracted quite a bit of attention.

Crowd Disappointed

Altogether the crowd was quite disappointed in the showing of the varsity. The men didn't seem to wake up until the third quarter was well under way. When they once got to going they went down the field, almost at will, for their two touchdowns.

Both touchdowns came as the result of the same kind of play, a back off tackle. One was made by Doyle and the other by Otoupalik. Both were well over to the side of the field and made a kickoff necessary before a try at goal could be made. Both kickouts were successful, but Corey missed one of his tries at goal.

Dr. Maxey probably expressed the opinion of a great many of the spectators when he said, "Either the scrub team is exceptionally strong or the varsity is not as far along as we expected." But it must be remembered that the season is yet young and that the varsity had to learn an entirely new system of play this year.

500 at the Game

The crowd was quite large, about 500 students and townspeople viewing the game. As was promised, the band made its initial appearance and although the marching was rather ragged the music was excellent.

The same two teams will go at it in another real tussle next Saturday and on the following Saturday the team will play Drake university.

The lineups were as follows:

Varsity	Scrubs
Otoupalik	Hoadley
Corey	Hubka
Wilder	W. Kositzky
Moser	Halbersleben
Dale	E. Kositzky
Shaw	Janda
Riddell	Ralston
Cook	Porter
Doyle	Selzer
Rhoades	Schellenberg
Gardiner	Kellogg

Substitutes: Varsity—Caley for Gardiner; Maloney for Otoupalik; Otoupalik for Caley; Proctor for Doyle; Caley for Proctor. Scrubs—Andrews for Hoadley; Haller for Janda; Rutherford for Selzer; McMahon for Kellogg.

Touchdowns—Doyle, Otoupalik, Kellogg. Goals from touchdown—Corey.

You young fellows must have your own particular class of clothes. They must have a lot of dash and go. They must fit you nicely and serve you perfectly.

The High Spots in Style

As long as our young friends insist upon demanding style which "hit the high spots" in pattern and poise, we are going to make a specialty of this particular type.

If you delight in styles that fit the moment and want them at a price that fits your purse take a look at some of the new wrinkles.

pent and Doris Scroggin the Black Masque representative. Gertrude Squires was Good Times, Mildred Gilleran, with her tennis racket, Athletics. A clever little dance was given by eight little girls, who impersonated eight little joys.

After the program there was dancing and refreshments upstairs. Miss Graham in a short talk appealed to the girls to dance gracefully, which she said resulted when both danced independently and did not "cling" to each other.

NEBRASKA ALUMNA FIRST WOMAN COACH OF FOOTBALL TEAM

Mrs. Earl Brannon, formerly prominent in athletics at the University of Nebraska, is the first woman to coach a football team. When the Jonesboro College of Arkansas advertised for a football coach for its second team, Mrs. Brannon applied and was accepted. Her husband is drilling the first team. Mrs. Brannon is making a success and the Jonesboro Aggies are going to make a good showing on the Arkansas gridiron this season.

Mrs. Brannon was formerly Miss McManigall of Lincoln. She was a member of the Chi Omega sorority and prominent in girls' athletics. Her husband, "Cut" Brannon, as he was more familiarly known to his friends, was a prominent athlete at the university, attended the Springfield training school and served for two years as sporting editor for the Lincoln Daily Star. He has made a success in college athletics as a coach.
