Faculty Reception

Mrs. Samuel Avery, wife of the chancellor, will entertain the members of the faculty, administrative and library forces of the University, informally at her home, 2001 Washington street, tonight.

Eunice Chapin will leave Saturday for Bryn Mawr.

Maurine Wingert, '18, leaves tomorrow for Wellesley.

Janet Chase, ex-'17, Marjorie Kimball, ex-'16, and Alice Brooks, ex-'16, who are doing kindergarten work in the city schools, have registered for special work.

Julia Quinby, '19, is the only girl in the freshman law class.

Marian Brown, '19, will spend the week end at her home in Papillion.

Harold Shubert, '19, has left school to accept a position with the Union Pacific.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Marie Von Goetz, '10, to Lou S. Brock, of Ralston.

Myrtle Beeler, '18, is recovering from an operation in an Omaha hospital. She will return to school next week.

Helen Shepherd will come down from Omaha this afternoon to attend the Delta Delta Delta party and visit Marian Hall, '19.

Bernice Teggets, a well known primary teacher in the city schools, has obtained a year's leave of absence to continue her University work.

Isa Reed, who took special work in psychology here last year, was in Lincoln, Wednesday. Miss Reed is on her way to Smith college, where she will take advanced work in this line.

BRIEF BITS OF NEWS

Dr. Kingston of the state normal school, located at Spokane, Wash., spent Thursday afternoon inspecting the teachers' college high school. He was accompanied by Dr. Rouse of the state normal school at Peru.

Margaret Lynn, who received her M. A. degree at Nebraska, and who is now professor of literature at Kansas university, visited friends at Nebraska University the first part of the week. Miss Lynn has received a year's leave of absence, which she will spend studying in New York.

The reception held by the business women's club Thursday afternoon in Faculty hall at the Temple, was fairly well attended. Dr. Minnie England poured cocoa the first hour, Dean Mary Graham the second, and Melba Quigley, '19, Viola Wetherall, '17, and Clarissa Delano, '17, helped with the serving. There were just enough girls present to make the reception real informal and everyone had the opportunity of getting acquainted with everyone else.

EXTENSION SERVICE DOUBLES COURSES

twelve short courses; this year twenty-four courses have been signed up, an increase of 100 per cent. Last year the total attendance at all sessions of short courses reached the 15,000 mark. This year it is expected to exceed 30,000.

The first course for this season will be held at Cozad, October 2 to 6. Page and Tilden are scheduled for the following weeks, and then the short courses will stop until corn picking time is past. Giving of courses will be resumed December 4 and will last until March 2. Instruction is given by a crew of extension specialists consisting of two men and two women. This year two crews are being used so that two courses can be given simultaneously at two different points.

First 9 Years Ago

Short courses or extension schools were first held in Nebraska nine years ago, the work being built up as rapidly as funds have been available. It is hoped that within a few years the extension service will be able to hold short courses in every county every year.

Among propositions now being considered for next year's short course season is a plan to secure railroad cars and send exhibits, including stock, for demonstration purposes.

The list of courses scheduled this year follows: October 2 to 6, Cozad; October 9 to 13, Page; October 16 to 20, Tilden; December 4 to 8, Gresham and Springfield; December 11 to 15, Allen and Lyons; December 18 to 22, Dakota City; January 1 to 5, Papillion and Pleasant Dale; January 8 to 12, Weston and Laurel; January 15 to 19, reserved for organized agriculture; January 22 to 26, Wausa and Dixon; January 29 to February 2, Polk and Nysted; February 5 to 9, Stromsburg and Western; February 12 to 16, Morrill and Nemaha-Richardson consolidated school; February 19 to 23, Loomis and Wood River; February 26 to March 2, Waterloo and Cowles.

AG COLLEGE WILL EXHIBIT STEERS AT CHICAGO STOCK SHOW

The college of agriculture of the University of Nebraska will exhibit a show herd of fat steers at the International Live Stock show at Chicago, December 4. As this show has not been held for two years on account of the prevalence of the foot and mouth disease, it is expected to bring out the largest and stiffest competition in years.

Most of the steers to be shown by the University were bred on the University farm here. The rest were purchased as small calves, and have been developed and fitted on the University farm. There will be herds of Aberdeen Angus and Galloways, several Herefords, and one extra junior yearling Aberdeen Angus steer the college folks are hopeful will bring home a ribbon.

DAIRY CLUB HOLDS MEETING—ELECTS ROBERTS SECY-TREAS.

The dairy club held a meeting in Agricultural hall, Wednesday evening, September 27. A short business meeting preceded the talks of the evening. W. F. Roberts was elected secretary and treasurer to take the place of O. H. Fishback, who is not in school this semester. W. Ruderdorf and J. A. Shepherd were appointed by the president as a program committee.

The business meeting was followed by talks by Prof. E. G. Woodward and B. H. Thompson on the national dairy contest, which is held each year at the National Dairy show. A team will be sent from Nebraska to take part in the contest at Waterloo, Ia., on October 2, and may go to the National Dairy show at Springfield, Mass., for the contest on October 13.

Wesleyan College, at Macon, Ga., will have a new course of study in the department of English under the instruction of Miss Mary Virginia Garner, professor of rhetoric and Anglo-Saxon.

The course will be elective and take the place of one of the regular courses in the department of English. The work done by the students will not only be thoroughly practical, but will be conducive to the very highest literary development, and will give training in newspaper reporting, editorial writing, advertisement writing and short story work.—Exchange.
