FULL OF CONFIDENCE TEAM PREPARES FOR KAS. AGGIES

LAST NIGHT'S WORKOUT WAS A LIGHT ONE

Scrubs Learning Kansas Plays to Use in Scrimmage Again Huskers This Week

Full of the confidence which wins battles and determined to keep up the fine record which it started on Saturday the team reported for practice yesterday afternoon in fine condition. None of them are over-confident, the coach saw to that immediately after the game when he pointed out all mistakes that each man had made. There is a great deal of skepticism about the campus as to the actual strength of the Kansas Aggies, after the way that Drake behaved. But one has only to talk to one of the Kansas coaches and see the confidence sticking out all over him to be sure that something is going to happen next Saturday.

Lots of Pep

The practice was full of pep last evening even though there was no scrimmage. The whole show was behind closed gates and as a result the coach had the men run through some of his pet stunts. The opening stunt of the practice was a warming up session of setting up exercises led by Captain Corey and under the eagle eye of the coach, who called any shirkers that he saw.

The charging machine next received the united and undivided attention of the line men while the backfield worked up new signals. A snappy signal practice was followed by looking over some of the K. A. C. plays that the scrubs showed. There was no rough work, the men just merely watching the plays and figuring out how to meet them.

Rutherford Busy

Rutherford was busy teaching the scrubs the plays he learned last Friday when he viewed the Kansas Aggie game at Lawrence. These plays will be used in scrimmage later in the week.

The work of Pat Norris, who looks as if he had the goods this year after his year of rest, is pleasing the coaches greatly.

A mistake appeared in Monday's paper when Doyle was credited with going over the line after Cook's 52-yard sprint. The Julian stunt was done by Rhodes. The mistake was not so serious as it may seem as the two men play side by side and either one of them would have covered that distance any day in the week.

DRAWINGS FOR TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Thirty Men Entered for Fall Eagles Tournament—Play Starts Today

Drawings for the annual university fall tennis tournament have been announced by Guy Reed, manager of athletics. The first round starts today, and must be completed by Saturday, October 14. All matches in the first round must be played before that time unless inclement weather forbids them.

Edward Geeson, '18, of Seward, last year's champion, will have a hard match for a beginner, when he meets Bollbaugh. The drawings have placed several good men against each other, and some of the promising ones are doomed to be eliminated early in the race. Dark horses, as usual, have put in their appearance, promising an exciting tournament before the finals are reached.

The drawings follow:

The Drawings
Johnson plays Crownover.
Bollbaugh plays Geeson.
Flood, bye.
Lundgren plays Sherman.
Anthes plays Withey.

150 STUDENTS AND FACULTY ATTEND ART EXHIBITION

About 150 students, members of the faculty and friends attended the reception held in Art hall Friday evening. The exhibition included work from the Boston museum of fine arts, the Pennsylvania academy of fine arts and the Chicago art institute. Associate Prof. Blanche C. Grant gave a very illuminating talk on the work of these three schools. She stressed the fact that the Boston museum of fine arts had restricted its activity to the development of painting and had never entered the field occupied by the Pennsylvania academy, which is developing industrial phases of art.

CONVOCATION

Chancellor C. A. Fulmer, of Nebraska Wesleyan university, will speak on "The Choice of a Vocation," in Memorial hall, at 11 o'clock.

ANNOUNCE UNI NIGHT SATURDAY, MARCH 3

HAROLD HOLTZ SAYS SHOW WILL BE AT AUDITORIUM

Organizations Planning Stunts Asked to Begin Now, as Weeding Out Process Soon Begins

A bigger and better University Night is the promise of Harold Holtz, chairman for the Y. M. C. A. made yesterday when the date of the annual stunt night was announced for Saturday, March 3, 1917.

The show will be held in the city auditorium. In past years the Oliver has been used for this purpose, but from 500 to 700 people have repeatedly been turned away from the show because the Oliver did not have the seating capacity. The Auditorium, with its ample floor space, will accommodate all who wish to see the performances.

No arrangements have been made so far in regard to reserved seats, although in all probability the same plan of reserving the main floor will be carried out.

The Program Stunts

Chairman Holtz has made no definite announcement in regard to the number of stunts that will comprise the program, but has informed the different organizations that they should enter their stunts as soon as possible. There has been some talk of cutting down the number of stunts and raising the standard, if possible. Keener competition among the organizations will be forthcoming in this case, and the management believes that better stunts will result.

Some of the performances of last year's show were put on by organizations new to the program, although there are several which never fail to make the bill. The organization that

"How To Spend Sunday Evening" ---By Harold Neff

Here's a story on Harold Neff, the president of the senior class.

We don't know whether it is true or not, but it is a good story, and it has its foundation on fact.

The name of the co-ed in the story, for like most others this, too, has a woman in the case, is suppressed, deleted and otherwise kept under cover, because the story is on Neff, and she disappears after figuring as the cause. Now for the story.

'Twas Sunday Night

Sunday night Neff called up one of the ever-popular sorority houses, asked if a certain girl had a date, learned she had none, and promptly filled the breach. He felt in a playful mood, however, so he gave the name of another man, instead of his own.

Now the girl found out about the little deception, so she decided Neff must pay the penalty. She left the house, and when he got there she was gone.

Being a persevering young man, and still feeling playful, Harold decided to step into the telephone booth, to await

PHARMACY SCHOOL ADVERTISES PRODUCT BY POSTAL CARDS

Colored postal cards showing the drug plant growth is the novel scheme now being used for advertising purposes by the school of pharmacy. The reputation of the products from the garden is so high that the plants are in great demand by the local druggists.

At present the supply is nearly exhausted by the department for experimental purposes, but when the proposed enlargement takes place much of the material will go to the druggists throughout the state.

Isa Reed left Friday for Northampton, Mass., to take a position at Smith college.

FRESHMEN MIXER SATURDAY NIGHT

FIRST YEAR MEN AND CO-EDS ONLY TO BE ADMITTED

Vikings and Silver Serpents, Junior Organizations, in Charge of Affairs

The freshmen will have a party strictly their own Saturday night when the annual all-freshman mixer will be held in the Armory.

The committee in charge has made arrangements for a varied program of amusements, from dancing to home town games. Every first year man will find congenial company in anything he may want to do to spend the evening.

A movement is on foot among the fraternities to discourage the men from taking co-eds to make the mixer a real get-together affair.

The mixer is under the management of the Vikings and Silver Serpents, junior men's and women's organizations, and proceeds will be turned over to the freshmen class to help pay its end of the class Olympic expenses. Tickets have been placed with a committee of freshmen.

HURT IN RUSH

Two members of the freshman class at Hanover college were seriously injured yesterday in the annual tug-of-war. Several other students received minor injuries in the scrap which is a tug-of-war over a shallow pond. The losing side goes in the pond.—Exchange.

maps out its stunt first and gains the advantage of an early start in rehearsal, will stand the better chance, for the management will try to alleviate as far as possible the marks of the amateur in the productions.

NOW IS TAG DAY COME, TO SEND BAND TO OREGON

TAPPING OF STUDENTS' SCHOOL SPIRIT BEGAN AT 8 O'CLOCK

Co-Eds on Campus and Men Down Town Boost for Good of University and the Team

Tagging of University students to raise funds to help defray the expenses of the band to Portland next week, began at 8 o'clock this morning, with Black Masques tagging the girls, and Silver Serpents and Xi Delta tagging the men, and football warriors, Vikings, and men prominent in every class, selling dance tickets down town.

Before nightfall the boosters expect every student to be wearing a tag. The girls will be asked to contribute only what their school pride and pocket-book prompts them, from a "jitney" to a dollar. The men will be expected to buy a ticket to the band dance Friday evening.

At 8 o'clock this morning the men met at the office of student activities in the Administration building, and there received final instructions on the campaign that is being carried on down town. Every place of business will be canvassed, and tickets offered for the dance. The proposition has the backing of the Lincoln Commercial club, and the business men who appreciate the immense advertising value for the University, the city and the state the presence of the band with the football team will have.

Students Appreciative

The University students are expected to be no less appreciative of the value of the band's going, especially to the University. Coach Stewart has said that it may mean the loss of the game not to have the band, as it has accompanied the team on every trip for many years past. The vigor with which the football men are pushing the sale of tickets is ample evidence of the importance they give to the trip.

The goal that is being tried for is $2,600. This is a scant allowance to take the organization of the forty best players to the coast and return, and yet with this amount in hand, the athletic board feels that it can assume the rest of the burden.

Best estimates on the number of tickets that can be sold for the Friday night party place it at $2,000. There are almost that many men students enrolled in the University, and the presumption is that nearly every man will have a ticket by sundown tonight.

Alumni Tickets

The few remaining tickets will be disposed of to alumni and business men who are interested in the trip. They will not go to the Auditorium to dance next Friday, but they will go for a while to see how the students enjoy themselves, and to hear the best dance music of the season.

Some of the girls who are going to do the tagging of the co-eds think that not less than $200 will be raised by this means. That is expecting each University girl to give a little more than a dime, not a great amount. Many will have to give much more than that—a few will give less. It is hoped, however, that none will give nothing at all.

PROF. W. F. DANN TO GIVE ANALYSIS OF SECOND SYMPHONY

Prof. W. F. Dann will give a descriptive analysis of the second Beethoven symphony at 11:30 this morning in Art hall. Professor Dann gives these talks for the benefit of students who wish to understand and appreciate the symphony programs at convocation better.

ASKS RAG TO ADOPT SIMPLER SPELLING

Twelve Words Suggested for Paper by H. G. Paine, Secretary of Simplified Spelling Board

H. G. Paine of New York City, secretary of the Simplified Spelling Board, has written to the editor-in-chief of The Nebraskan, asking that the paper adopt the twelve words recommended by the board and already adopted by the University, and suggesting that some of the simpler forms could be introduced without the paper becoming at all radical.

The twelve words suggested are those adopted and used since 1898 by the National Education association. They are:

tho for though.
altho for although.
thru for through.
throout for throughout.
thoro for thorough.
thorofare for thoroughfare.
thoroly for thoroughly.
catalog for catalogue.
decalog for decalogue.
pedagog for pedagogogue.
program for programme.
prolog for prologue.

The Nebraskan uses the last four but one of these words, but has not yet adopted the other eight.

In his letter, in addition to the forms given above, Mr. Paine also used these: "riting," "shal," "progressive," "ar," "conservativ," "stat."

The price of athletic association books at Pennsylvania has been raised to $10.—Exchange.

NO SCORES YET IN SOCCER GAME

More Than Twenty Girls in Football Contest, But No Goals Made

Soccer football for girls has been pronounced a decided success by those who have been playing the game. Friday was the first day the game has been played in earnest as the girls have been playing hockey until that time. As yet a score has not been made.

The soccer ball very much resembles a basketball, but is about two-thirds as large. The ball is kicked with the instep instead of the toe, the game being a combination of hockey and Rugby football. The ball can be stopped with any part of the body except the hands.

Each score which is made by putting the ball between the goal posts counts two points. In the two days that the girls have been playing strenuously, neither side has yet scored. Eleven girls are required for a team and there have been from twenty-five to thirty out every day.

Soccer is being played three days a week. The delay in getting started was caused by the ball not arriving on time.

MRS. W. G. HILTNER AS VESPERS TONIGHT

Mrs. W. G. Hiltner will speak at the vesper service this evening on the subject, "My Chinese Neighbors." The city of Nanking, where Mrs. Hiltner lives, is a city of 400,000 people, only 400 of these being American and European, the remainder of this entire number are Chinese. Miss Eunice Munson will preside at the meeting.

MINIATURE IS CONSTRUCTED

A complete miniature of the campus of the University of Washington is being completed as a hobby of H. O. Sexsmith, instructor in architecture. A perfect representation of all the buildings is incorporated into the "campus" and has taken the best part of his spare time for the past two years to build.—Exchange.
