TEAM MUST BE CHEERED NOT KIDDED

NEBRASKA'S STYLE OF ROOTING NOT PLEASIN GTO COACH

Rally for Kansas Aggie Game Brings Sharp Call Down for Students—Pep Needed for Game

The football team does not go to football rallies to be kidded, said Coach Stewart before a fair crowd of students in mass meeting yesterday. The rooters can make the team win every game or they can make it lose it, according to the coach at the football rally Thursday morning in Memorial hall.

"Victories and defeats come in cycles—defeats come in just the spirit evident here today," he said, as the result of too much "spontaneous enthusiasm" on the part of the rooters. After a couple of selections by the band, Melvin Garrett, president of the innocents, introduced Dr. E. J. Stewart, the new football coach. Dr. Stewart said that it is vital that the band go to Oregon to show up the Oregon Aggies' band, which is noted as the best band on the coast. The business men in Lincoln aren't going to furnish all of the money, and the money is not coming in as fast as it should, and the student body must get busy.

Meang Lot to Team
"It means a lot to the team to have the band. When we are losing at Oregon, you will regret that you didn't send out that dollar. It will be the best investment you ever made," declared Coach Stewart.

The most convincing thing in way of proof of the Kansas Aggie confidence, according to the coach, is the attitude of "Germany" Chultz, last week. When he met Coach Stewart after the Drake game, he said: "Well, we'll give you something in the way of a good scrimmage next Saturday."

Expect Aggie Victory
Chicago and Omaha papers are anticipating an Aggie victory next Saturday, the coach said. "I can't say how much we will win or lose," the coach remarked, "but the result will

PROF. E. F. SCHRAMM SPEAKS BEFORE PICK AND HAMMER CLUB

The Pick and Hammer club held a very interesting meeting Thursday evening in Museum 301. Prof. E. F. Schramm gave an excellent illustrated lecture on Mt. Ranier National park. He has been a member of government parties working in this section of Washington, and thinks this park one of the most beautiful spots on the Pacific coast.

Professor Schramm also spoke of the work of the United States geological survey in the United States and Canada. After the talk a short business session was held.

PROF. COLEMAN TO SPEAK AT TEMPLE SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Prof. James Melville Coleman of Bloomington, Ind., will lecture Sunday afternoon on "Social Efficiency." The lecture will be given in Faculty hall, in the Temple, at 3 o'clock.

Professor Coleman has lectured extensively during the past six years on the general subject of "Ethical Phases of Social Problems," having spoken in more than one hundred colleges. His press notices are very favorable. All University men and women are urged to attend.

HOT SHOTS IN POLITICAL DEBATE

OPPONENTS BELABOR EACH OTHER IN ARGUMENT

Schofield and Waring for Wilson; Jeffrey and Prester for Hughes. Clash in Word War

C. E. Schofield and Robert Waring for the Woodrow Wilson club, and E. C. Jeffrey and L. W. Theister for the Hughes and Fairbanks club, met in a red hot political debate before a large gathering of the members of the two clubs last evening in the Temple. Chief Justice A. M. Morrissey presided and no decision was given.

Arguments flew back and forth, partisan spirit was manifested at every opportunity, and an extremely warm discussion was presented, the applause evidently favoring the Wilson supporters.

The Wilson Cry
The cry of the Wilson supporters was "What would you have done?" in answer to the criticism of the Hughes men. The issues were dodged to some extent, each side pursuing its own line of argument and generally ignoring the thrusts of their opponents.

"We are the first party in twenty years to come before the people on our record. The republicans have been in power for that period and have had only apologies to offer," said Waring of the Wilson team.

Record of Achievement
"It seems to me that the people should support a record of achievement rather than a promissory note issued by the republicans every four years. The republicans criticize us for not going to war with Germany, they criticize us for entering into war with Mexico. Hamlet cried: 'Frailty thy name is woman!' Well might the democrats cry: 'Inconsistency, thy name is Republican!'"

In his support of the Hughes side, Theister said: "A party that fails to keep its pledges should not be returned to power. The democrats said they would give us peace in Mexico and peace is still raging there." He also attacked the Underwood tariff measure saying: "It is wrong in principle and vicious in practice."

Criticized President
Jeffrey of the Hughes clan, criticized the child labor law and especially the president's foreign and domestic policy, saying: "The president's policy has been one of vacillation and will no longer be tolerated."

This came as a response to Schofield's inquiry as to what Hughes would have done, and of his defense of the Mexican situation: "The Mexican muddle is a legacy to the president from the republican administration."

SOPHOMORES ELECT MINOR OFFICERS

SPEND 8 MINUTES IN LIVELY CLASS MEETING YESTERDAY

Mary Helen Allensworth of Lincoln Unanimous Choice for Vice-President

SOPHOMORE MINOR OFFICERS

Mary Helen Allensworth, Lincoln, vice-president.

Faris Chesley, Armour, S. D., treasurer.

Ted Lonam, Lincoln, secretary.

Dwight Barnes, Tecumseh, Sergeant-at-arms.

The sophomore class, with only enough members present to half fill Law 101, yesterday morning elected Mary Helen Allensworth of Lincoln, vice-president; Faris Chesley of Armour, S. D., treasurer; Ted Lonam of Lincoln, secretary, and Dwight Barnes of Tecumseh, sergeant-at-arms.

Miss Allensworth was unanimously elected, she being the only candidate. A speech was called for, but she could not be persuaded to take the platform.

For both the secretary and sergeant-at-arms, there was a close race with only a few votes between the candidates. All the candidates conducted lively campaigns before the election.

The meeting was noticeable for the lack of girls, all of whom seemed to favor the football rally. No new business was taken up and the meeting was adjourned so the students could attend the rally. Only eight minutes were taken up by the meeting.

300 AT GERMAN CLUB RECEPTION

German Play Heartily Enjoyed—Games Played—Songs Sung

About 300 guests attended the reception given by the German Dramatic club and the Deutscher Gesellige Verein for the students of the German department.

Before the reception the guests gathered in the Temple theater where they were addressed by Professor Alexis and Professor Heppner.

The one-act play, "Im Reiche der Mutter," which was presented by the Dramatic club under the direction of Miss Craft was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Even students of the beginning classes could laugh over the many funny situations in which the poor suitor found himself. The various roles were played by Robert Nesbit, Walter Blunk, Clara Shulte, Clara McMahon, Geneva Seegar, Martha Winter and Anna Luckey.

After the play there was a general

Civilian Soldiers Make Brave Bayonet Charge on Library

After a desperate charge with fixed bayonets, fifty civilian soldiers Thursday evening found themselves in possession of several rods of ground in the enemy's territory north of the library building on the city campus.

The final charge was the climax of a series of brilliant maneuvers.

With his victorious troops ready to pour into the windows of the doomed library building, Captain I. D. Beynon called them from the assault and may resume the encounter some other time. Several of the charging soldiers tried to imitate the rebel yell in the final onslaught and they had not been taught this, therefore they were

NEW OFFICERS FOR DRAMATIC CLUB

ANNUAL ELECTION HELD AT MEETING FOR NEW MEMBERS

Two Plays Given by Members of the Club Repeated Last Night

Catherine Pierce, '18, was elected vice-president, Carlisle Jones, '18, secretary, and Carolyn Kimball, '18, treasurer of the Dramatic Art club at its first meeting Wednesday evening in the Dramatic club rooms in the Temple theater. Miss Alice Howell is permanent president of the club.

The president, Miss Alice Howell, spoke a few words of welcome to the new members, after which two clever little plays were presented—with the following casts:

The Flower of Yeddo
Kami ..... Irwin Clark
Sainara ..... Catherine Pierce
Musme ..... Eliza Bickett
Talphoon ..... Lucy Jeffords
The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife

Mlle. Garandiere ..... Catherine Pierce

These two plays were presented last night at the home of Julia E. Spalding, 2221 Sheridan, in honor of the Library association.

STUDENT NEWS FOLKS TO MEET JOURNALISTS

Newspapermen with Charles E. Hughes to Be Received Next Sunday

University of Nebraska students interested in journalism will have an opportunity to meet the fifteen expert political writers who will be in Lincoln Sunday with Charles E. Hughes, if plans started yesterday go through.

Prof. M. M. Fogg was in telegraphic communication with the newspaper men last night at Louisville, Ky., and Sigma Delta Chi, the journalism fraternity, last evening decided to extend its courtesies to the visitors.

Whether the entertainment will take the form of a reception or a dinner has not been decided. Definite announcement will be made in the city papers Sunday morning if not before.

RALLY FOR TEAM AS LEAVES FOR OREGON

TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION TO ENCOURAGE CORNHUSKERS

Committee Named to Manage Event Will Meet in Nebraskan Office Tonight

The Nebraska University football team, which starts upon the longest trip ever made by a representative team of this University next Tuesday night, will be given a rousing send-off by a rally participated in by all of the students who must stay behind.

The team will leave for Portland, Ore., for its game with the Oregon agricultural college, Tuesday, accompanied by the band, and such rooters as have been able to scrape up enough money to go along. The distance to be traveled, 4,000 miles, precludes the possibility of "bums" attempting to go.

Meeting at Armory
For the student rally that is to send the team away with the knowledge that the home rooters are with them every minute of the time, a big mass meeting is planned to be held immediately after supper at the Armory.

The mass meeting will be short, and will be merely preliminary to the real fun. A torchlight procession will be formed, and the team escorted in state to the Union Pacific railway station.

The band will lead the procession that will wind down O street. Students who remember the torchlight parade on the night preceding the game with the Michigan agricultural college team know what a big reception the visitors were given then. The Cornhuskers will be given a more enthusiastic send-off, unless all signs fall Tuesday.

Committee in Charge
The committee that will be in charge of the Tuesday night rally is composed of the following men:
Homer Hewitt ..... Merrill Reed
Alfred Bryson ..... Harold Holtz
Jack Elliott ..... Henry Campbell
Virgil Haggart ..... M. L. Poteet
Harold Neff ..... Carl Ganz

Acting with this committee in getting out the men, will be the following:
Ivan Beede ..... Beachey Musselman
Carl Brown ..... Harvey Nelson
Fred Clark ..... Homer Rush
George Grimes ..... Wayne Townsend
Addison L. Harvey Lloyd Tuhy
Walter Hixenbaugh John Wenstrand

These two committees will meet this (Friday) afternoon at 5 o'clock at The Daily Nebraskan office. It is important that every man be at the meeting to help plan for the rally.

FIRST MEETING OF FRESHMAN CLASS

MINOR OFFICERS ELECTED, AND PLANS MADE FOR YEAR

First Year Students Urged to Make Saturday's Mixer a Success

FRESHMAN MINOR OFFICERS
Margaret Dodge, Fremont, vice-president.

Layford Davis, Lincoln, treasurer.
Leland Waters, Lincoln, secretary.
Herman Schroeder, Lincoln, sergeant-at-arms.

The freshman class met yesterday morning in Memorial hall for the first time. Although only a short time was

FRESHMEN ARE TO MIX TOMORROW

SHORT PROGRAM OF EXTRAS BY FIRST YEAR STUDENTS

Vikings and Silver Serpents, Junior Organizations in Charge of the Party

Carrying out the idea of making the mixer tomorrow night in the Armory thoroughly a freshman affair, Rawson White of the Vikings, chairman of the general committee, has planned for a short program of "extras" to be put on by the first year men themselves.

The Vikings and Silver Serpents, who have charge of the mixer, are keeping quiet about all the good things that have been planned for the annual get-together meeting of the new students, and few of the details are known. It is certain, however, that there will be dancing on the big Armory floor to music furnished by a good orchestra, and that amusements and refreshments to suit the versatile tastes of every freshman.

It is also whispered, and with good foundation, that there will be a long line of Silver Serpent girls to receive the guests, and it is also rumored that they will have charge of the refreshments.

The Silver Serpents
Following is a list of girls who have been working on the reception, and who may be expected in the receiving line; Marion Reeder, Hannah McCorkindale, Zilpha Riggs, Jean Burroughs, Georgia Barnes, Evelyn Caldwell, Ermine Carmine, Marjorie Graham, Kate Helser, Mildred Holtz, Milrae Judkins, Vesta Mawe, Winnifred Moran, Dorothy Rhodes, Marion Sheldon, Edith Yungblut, and Lucille Welch.

Chairman White announced yesterday that tickets would be for sale at the door, so that any freshman not visited by the committee would have no trouble in that respect. It is re-

CAPTAIN PARKER HELPS FOOTBALL TEAM BY GIVING UP FIELD

Capt. Samuel Parker, commandant, has relinquished all right to the athletic field for drill purposes during the football season so that the 1916 Cornhuskers will have free and unhampered use of the battle ground.

With the athletic department, the department of military science shares equal access to Nebraska field. Captain Parker is a loyal follower of Nebraska's football progress, and he is making this concession to the team so that their chances for another championship will be enhanced.

The elementary work done by the rookies at the present time is being handled successfully on the campus and on Twelfth street, although in past years some of the squads have always used the field.

CELIA HARRIS, '09, WILL READ POEMS AT ENGLISH CLUB MEETING

Celia Harris, '09, who for the past year has been studying at Radcliffe, and who is well known as a poet and writer, will read some of her own poems and narratives at the English club meeting Saturday night.

Others on the program are Prof. S. B. Cass, L. C. Wimberly, '16, and Maude Meredith, '13.

The club is to meet with Miss Louise Pound and Miss Marguerite McPhee at Miss Pound's home.
