Dean Charles Fordyce of the University Teachers' college, was a speaker at the Wymore city teachers' institute, conducted Friday and Saturday of last week.

Prof. Clark E. Persinger and Dean Charles Fordyce lectured in the city institute at Wymore on Friday and Saturday of last week.

Mrs. C. Van Dyck Basten of Kearney, visited the campus Friday, the guest of Susie Scott. Mrs. Basten, who was formerly Adah Seaman, attended the University in '77, '78 and '79. She was a member of the Union society when University hall was the only building on the campus. Professor Fossler was in college at that time also.

The Y. W. C. A. vesper service Tuesday evening, October 24, at 5 o'clock, will consist of reminiscences of the Estes Park conference, as told by the girls who attended the conference this summer. Eight Nebraska girls were there and have many interesting stories to tell of their experiences.

Director A. E. Sheldon of the legislative reference bureau spoke on "A Clear, Concise, Harmonious Statute for Nebraska," at a luncheon of the Barrister's club at the Omaha Commercial club, Saturday.

A letter from Hardie-Tynes Manufacturing company, engine builders of Birmingham, Ala., in regard to a special foundry course, has been received by Prof. J. D. Hoffman. They ask for details of a course to prepare men in good, practical lines for positions as superintendents and foremen. Last year a night course in lectures was given by the engineering faculty and the request for information comes as a result of this course.

Prof. F. A. Tuckerman of the physics department, read a paper on "Discontinuities of Nature" at the dinner given by the Faculty Men's club Saturday evening at the Lincoln hotel.

Annis S. Chaikin, alumni secretary, spent the week end visiting friends in Omaha.

Walter Campbell, gymnasium instructor, went to Hastings, Saturday to officiate at a football game there.

Miss Alpha Penn of Waxahachie, Tex., is a visitor at the Alpha Delta Pi house.

Marion Brown, '19, spent the week end at her home in Papillon.

Helen Howe, '20, has been forced to leave school because of illness, and has gone to her home in Omaha.

Miss Florence Grantham and Walter Hartzell, '05, of Kansas City, were married last Thursday evening. Mrs. Hartzell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Grantham, and has lived in Lincoln for several years. Mr. Hartzell, who also lived in Lincoln, graduated from the University and is now an electrical engineer for the Westinghouse company in Kansas City, Mo.

The Silver Serpents gave a dance at the Alpha Phi house Friday evening for thirty couples. Mrs. Waugh and Lula Mae Coe were the chaperones.

The College World

Students Hear Indian Speakers

Indian speakers representing a variety of the professions appeared before the student body at Coe college and described the Indian problem from the Indian's point of view. The speakers were part of a delegation of ten that were representing the National Society of Americans in the conference held September 25 to October 1 at Cedar Rapids. Among the speakers were W. A. Durant, a prominent lawyer of Oklahoma; A. C. Parker, head of a manufacturing concern in Massillon, Ohio; Brig-Gen. R. H. Pratt, originator of the Indian school system, and Rev. Serman Coolidge, who is a clergyman in Fairbault, Minnesota.—Exchange.

New Hospital

Plans are already under way for a new hospital at the University of Minnesota, which will cost an even million and a half. Authorities hope to make the hospital self-supporting and when completed will place Minnesota high in the ranking of the medic schools.—Exchange.

Fissure in Stadium

Princeton authorities have been worrying over the appearance of a fissure in the new $300,000 stadium. Examinations by expert engineers are being held to determine whether it will cause any structural weakness.—Exchange.

Must Give Up College

The battalion of troops which is composed entirely of students from the University of Vermont and Norwich university, may have to leave for the border. Orders have been received to be prepared to move to the border at any moment.—Exchange.

Sign Found

When Battery F, composed of Minnesota students, returned from the border they brought back a memento. Said memento consisted of a sign "Liana Grande" and was taken from the railroad station. President Vincent of the school demanded that it be returned. Upon correspondence with the railroad president, however, he made the boys a present of the sign.—Exchange.

Plenty of Musicians at Ohio State

After two or three weeks of drill Ohio state's sixty-five piece military band will make its first public appearance. Over 100 candidates tried out for places, with cornet and trombone players in the majority.—Exchange.

Colorado university plans one of the greatest times of the year for the Alumni Homecoming days, Friday and Saturday of this week. The freshmen of the university have been assigned the task of preparing the campus for the days.—Exchange.

College custom decrees at Penn state that freshmen may be taken out by sophomores only on Poster Night.—Exchange.

University Girls Sign Up for Military Drill

At least one co-ed at the University of Wisconsin is a firm believer in preparedness, for in the long list of freshmen and sophomores registered to take military drill at the state institution has been found the name of Miss Fay Morgan, 108 Breeze terrace, Madison. Miss Morgan has not yet reported for drill registration, but Commandant Lieutenant P. G. Wrightson has ordered her to the Red Cross corps as soon as she reports.—Exchange.

The latest addition to the curriculum of the University of Illinois, is a course in baking for bakers.—Exchange.

To travel from San Francisco to Cambridge in ten days and with only $7 to live on while en route is the feat that was accomplished by Dick Varnum, now a student at Harvard. The young man was born in Pocatello, Ida. Two years ago he went to Los Angeles and thence to San Francisco in the hope of finding some way of earning enough money to carry him through school. Failing to find a position, he determined to make the trip that landed him at Harvard.—Exchange.

Student Grateful for Education
While working at odd jobs to pay the expenses of his education at the University of Chicago, James Vincent Nash had an ambition to repay in some measure the university for what it had given him. After graduating in 1915, he continued to add to the little hoard that he had managed to save while in college. His ambition was at last realized, when he gave $1,000 to the Reynolds club library.—Exchange.

Women Wear Green Caps

Women at Howard college have discarded green sleeve bands for fancy designed caps to show their loyalty to the class.—Exchange.

Greece and Porto Rico have each one student at Howard college, Birmingham, Ala.—Exchange.

The following is a clipping from the University of Southern California "Trojan."

"Red shirts for the 'sophs' is the latest crinkle in university fashions.

"At the sophomore meeting held Wednesday, the second year men decided to introduce the new fad at once despite the shock it will be to upperclassmen's eyesight.

"Corduroy trousers for the juniors, Stetson hats for the seniors, green caps for the freshmen, and red shirts for the sophomores. Such at the present time are the dictates of Dame Fashion.

"It is up to the faculty now to wear a special design of footwear."

The University of California at Berkeley has an elaborate system of headgear to distinguish the different classmen. The freshman wears the small "greenlid," the soph an ordinary cap of a particular style, the junior may wear a soft hat and the senior may wear the "board" or a stiff hat.—Exchange.

Episcopal Church Will Erect Student Chapel at Wisconsin

To provide a chapel for the Episcopalian students at the University of Wisconsin, a campaign has been undertaken to raise $250,000 among the members of the Episcopal church in Wisconsin. In addition to a student church there is also to be a guild hall and rectory, and a dormitory which will probably be limited to freshman students.
