SPORT SPARKS

Ask "Joe" Caley if he enjoyed his dip in the sea; and then duck.

It didn't take much more nerve for Gardiner to dive over a man's head after the ball in the O. A. C. football game than it did for Caley to make his famous dive in six inches of water.

The hardest task the team had to accomplish on the trip was going to bed early in Seattle, a city noted for its good-looking young ladies.

Funny how ubiquitous a sweater is. From matriculation to graduation its uses are multitudinous, its paths devious. And how nomadic, too. The athlete's luxurious shaker, proudly alphabetized, migrates from "stude" to co-ed, from frat house to girl's dorm. If it's a Bradley, it abides there.
