Chas. J. Warner REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR State Senator

Chas. J. Warner is a native of Lancaster county. In 1899 he was graduated from the University of Nebraska, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Science.
Afterwards he took a two-year law course, one year at our University and one year at the Columbian University, Washington, D. C.

After finishing his education, he engaged in active farming and is today one of the largest stock-raisers and farmers in Lancaster county. He was three times elected to the House of Representatives, each time with an increased majority.

Read what "Benny Andrews" says:
April 3, 1905.
My Dear Sir: Allow me to thank you in the heartiest manner both officially and personally for the kind, intelligent and efficient service you rendered the University of Nebraska during the recent session of the legislature. I hope that your constituency will elect you again and that you will find it convenient with your interest to serve.
Very sincerely yours,
E. BENJAMIN ANDREWS, Chancellor.
