SECOND CALL FOR BASKETBALL MEN

RUTHERFORD WANTS SQUAD OF FIFTY OUT

Finish of Track Trials Postponed Because of Bad Weather—Coming Later

Coach Rutherford has again issued a call for candidates for the varsity basketball team.

About fifteen men report each night, but many more are wanted. Rutherford would like to have from forty to fifty varsity candidates out every night.

The assistant coach took charge in person Wednesday evening and directed the calisthenics and passing practice.

The hours of practice are as follows: Monday and Wednesday from 7:30 to 9 o'clock and Tuesday and Thursday from 4 to 5 o'clock.

Manager Guy Reed has announced that the track events which were scheduled for this week have been postponed indefinitely because of the cold weather.

GUY CHAMBERS, '16 ADDRESSED MEMBERS OF PHI ALPHA DELTA

Guy C. Chambers, law '16, now practicing in Lincoln, addressed the members of Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity at the first of a series of program meetings to be held in their chapter house this semester, Wednesday night.

Mr. Chambers gave an informal talk concerning the trials of a young lawyer, telling of many of his personal experiences in the first few weeks of practice and describing the stumbling blocks a student just out of the law college is apt to find in his path.

The fraternity has recently moved into a chapter house and a series of such meetings with alumni and faculty members speaking each evening of the regular meeting has been arranged. On the program already made out are included Senator E. J. Burkett, Ex-Attorney General Grant Martin, W. H. England, C. L. Rein, Prof. M. M. Fogg and every member of the legal faculty.

The University of Pittsburgh plans to erect a new dentistry building which is to cost $3,000,000.—Ex.
