Published every day during the college year. Subscription, per semester, $1.

Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second class mail matter under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Every year, after the football season is ended, Nebraskans celebrate the victories of the team by a men's Cornhusker banquet, and a girls' costume party. There are no other parties scheduled for that evening and there are few "stay-at-homes." When there is "special entertainment" between courses at the banquet, and no men allowed at the costume party, there can be no doubt that both affairs are successful.

It appears that the League of the Second Generation is not overcrowded with members.

The league was founded last year with enthusiasm. It was an opportunity to establish another tradition in the University, and traditions play an important role in any school or college. Perhaps one reason for its non-support this year is its youth and the resultant ignorance on the part of a great many students as to its existence. The League of the Second Generation is destined to become a part of student social life at the University.

Out at the penitentiary, night before last, the University players gave their big play for this year, and their audience at the end of the last act, "gave a unanimous vote of thanks."

It was a practice performance for the "Players," but instead of giving it to a row of empty seats in the Temple, they played before an audience that was both critical and appreciative. And they created new interests in the uninteresting routine of the men who are shut off from the rest of us.

A $25,000 stadium will be erected at Ohio state university before next football season.

The football schedule for next year is being arranged today and tomorrow at the Missouri valley conference meeting in Manhattan, Kansas.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY BUYS STATE PICTURES

Scenes of Life in Early Days in Nebraska Prove to Be Interesting

The Nebraska State Historical society has purchased a collection of early Nebraska pictures, dating back as early as 1852. The pictures are mostly drawings and illustrations from Harper's Weekly.

One very interesting picture is the Mormon's crossing the plains in 1858 in one wheeled carts pulled by the people themselves. Another interesting picture is the St. James hotel, a small one-story log cabin with one door and several windows.

The collection was purchased in the east and consists of sixteen pictures in all.

FINE ARTS FACULTY APPOINTS COMMITTEES FOR COMING SEMESTER

The fine arts department faculty met at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The following committees were appointed:

FORUM

Editor Daily Nebraskan:

The League of the Second Generation was founded last year under the direction of Charles H. Epperson, '16. He with the help of a few others spent considerable time framing a constitution, and arranging for a strong club with at least forty members.

This year, however, with only two or three boosters it has literally gone to pieces. A meeting was held the first of the year. Another was arranged for but outside of two of the officers no one came.

What is the matter? Are you ashamed of your parentage or are you just lazy?

Perhaps a few do not understand what the purpose of this league is. It is to have all students whose parents have at some time or other attended the University, banded together to promote better fellowship, and keep the old ties that have always surrounded so much of the University life alive.

Did either of your parents ever attend the University? If so you are eligible.

Watch this column for announcement of the next meeting which will be called in the near future.

Will you come?

J. DWIGHT DAVIS, Secretary.
