W. A. ROCKIE, '14, IN ILLUSTRATED TALK ON WESTERN FORESTS

W. A. Rockie, '14, of the United States bureau of soils, will give a lecture illustrated with motion pictures on "Western Forests," Thursday at 10 a. m. in U-309. While this lecture is primarily for the class in Industrial Geography, it will be of general interest and other students will be welcome to attend.

ALUMNI NEWS

Frank H. Woodland, '00, of Omaha, president of the state alumni association, visited alumni headquarters yesterday morning. Mr. Woodland was in Lincoln to attend the meeting of the board of regents, to which he had been invited.

Candis Nelson, '01, who is instructor in the state normal school at Valley City, N. D., has accepted the position of supervisor of the teachers' training department in the normal school at Madison, S. D. Miss Nelson will also teach child psychology. In her letter to the alumni secretary, she says: "I will have a beautiful new building, a very interesting increase in salary, besides being a little nearer 'Home Coming' times." She will begin work in her new position the first of the year.

George B. Blackstone, Civil '12, is engaged in some interesting work in the technical high school of Indianapolis. The 1,600 students there are getting work in practical engineering, and Mr. Blackstone's work is more of an assisting engineer than an instructor. The school is very popular Announcements of the appointment of R. L. Cochran, '10, as assistant state engineer was made at the meeting of the Nebraska Irrigation association held at Bridgeport last week. O. W. Sjogren of the department of agricultural engineering read a paper on "Pump Irrigation" before the association.

Judge Charles M. Skiles, '92, L.L.B., '95, of David City, visited alumni headquarters yesterday. He stated that the David City alumni club is planning a banquet for the near future.

Some University of Nebraska alumni whom Searl S. Davis, professor of rhetoric saw on his visit to New York city are: Fred McConnell, '13, assistant instructor in the fine arts department of the Carnegie institute of technology at Pittsburgh; H. Lloyd Unland, '10, power and mining engineer connected with the General Electric company of Schenectady, N. Y.; P. H. White, '04, maintenance engineer for the American Locomotive company, whose headquarters are at Schenectady, and Vance Traphagen, ex-'18, of Lincoln, who is attending Harvard this year. He also visited with Prof. Daniel Ford, formerly professor of rhetoric at Nebraska, who has obtained a year's leave of absence from the

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

The first thing you'll notice about Tuxedo is the rich, mellow-sweet Burley flavor. And the best thing about it is the on-your-toes snap, and brisk, bracing hustle you get out of it.

"Tux" will smoke out that tobacco-hunger as no other tobacco can, and you can smoke pipeful after pipeful with never a fear—the original Tuxedo Process removes every trace of harshness and "bite".
