TWO CLUBS FORM ON DRILL PROBLEM

ANTI-COMPULSORY GROUP FINDS RIVAL ORGANIZATION

Jensen Heads Students Who Would Make Drill Voluntary at Nebraska University

Everyone had a thoroughly good time at the meeting at the Lindell hotel last night, when a student organization to put drill at the University on an entirely voluntary basis was formed, and a rival organization was got together on the spot for the avowed purpose of combatting the first in its intention. A lot more fun is promised the University as a result.

Most interesting as a feature of the evening was the entrance into the business of the meeting of Col' John G. Maher, who delivered an impromptu and impassioned speech in favor of patriotic Americanism, in spite of the efforts of the chairman, C. A. Sorenson to head him off.

After Col. Maher had spoken, the antis of the antis, the men who favor a continuance of the present system of military drill withdrew, leaving the hall to the organization of the volunteer movement, if it might be so called. These last then proceeded with the organization of their club.

Rival Officers

So the University now has, as officers of a club that is pledged to secure, if possible, legislative enactment making military drill entirely voluntary, these men:

President, Anton H. Jensen.
Vice-president, R. B. Warren.
Secretary-treasurer, M. Lilliefors.
Executive committee, Earnest Lundeen, Charles Schofield, Ozro Woods and C. A. Sorenson, the latter being the only alumnus officer.

Of the rival organization, whom their opponents insisted on calling propagandists, these are the officers:

President, Leonard Trester.
Secretary-treasurer, M. C. Hildreth.
And a publicity and debate committee.

By actual count, fifty-seven students went into the meeting room at the Lindell hotel, about 8:20, when the meeting began. This number had been swelled to seventy interested participants and merely curious, as well as opponents, before the evening was over. A fifty-fifty division occurred in the middle of events, forty men remaining to organize the originally proposed club, and the others forming the rival organization.

Sorenson in the Chair

C. A. Sorenson, an alumnus of the University, who has been said to be the prime mover in the thing, took the chair, and appointed M. Lilliefors temporary secretary.

Sorenson gave a speech in which he said the purpose of the meeting was to organize to try to abolish compulsory military drill at the University. He declared that in Europe today the young men were fighting for the ideals of the old men; and that had the young men been in the saddle two years ago, there would have been no war.

"The time has come for America to take the lead for a philosophy when there will be no war," he said.

"The University authorities I feel certain, consider you in a sense undesirable citizens because you have taken this step," Sorenson declared, after complimenting the audience on their courage in taking the stand they did. Then he requested those who were against them not to take this time and place to voice their objections.

Sorenson then called for expressions of the pleasure of the house. One man of the opposing force was on his feet with a suggestion for a debate. L. E. Zook proposed a publicity committee. Anton H. Jensen was then called upon by the chairman.

MRS. WILLIAMS TO TALK ON SOCIOLOGY

GRADUATE TEACHERS CLUB TO HEAR HER SATURDAY

Program for Second Semester Outlined—Other Faculty Men to Speak

The Graduate Teachers' club, a society for educational research, will hold the first of its meetings at the home of Dr. G. W. A. Luckey, 1439 R street, Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Hattie Plum Williams, of the department of sociology, will give the address.

The subject for study during the year will be that of the general problem of the school of education, "The value, use, community control of playgrounds and recreation centers."

Membership in the society consists of associate members, students in the graduate school of education; active members, holders of master's or doctor's degree, together with a graduate teacher's diploma; and honorary members, faculty of the graduate school of education. Meetings of the society are open to all eligible members.

Officers of the Club

C. B. Cornell, Ph. D., is president of the club; Miss Grace Munson, Ph. D., is vice-president; and Miss Rose Yont, Ph. D., is secretary and treasurer.

The faculty speakers for the meetings of the society during the year are:

February 3, Prof. R. J. Pool, Botany.

March 3, Prof. F. M. Fling, European History.

March 24, Prof. L. A. Sherman, English.

April 21, Prof. G. W. A. Luckey, Education.

May 19, Prof. H. K. Wolfe, Philosophy.

June 2, Prof. George E. Howard, Political Science and Sociology.

GOOD SEAT SALE FOR GERMAN PLAY "EMILIA GALOTTI"

The sale of tickets for "Emilia Galotti" is going splendidly. As usual H. W. Enderis of the Lincoln Freie Presse has purchased fifty tickets which he will distribute among his employees. The Germans of the city show a great interest in these plays by their loyal support every year.

Many of the students of the German department have read Lessing's "Emilia Galotti," and much more interest is shown this year by the student body than in past years. The sentiment is expressed by the girl who exclaimed "I have never been so anxious to see any play before."

FRAT PIN-SMASHERS START TOURNEY

KAPPA SIGS AND SIG ALPHAS WIN FIRST CONTESTS

Phi Pias and Alpha Sigs on Losing Side—Close Battles Both Matches

Sigma Alpha Epsilon beat Alpha Sigma Phi and Kappa Sigma trounced Phi Kappa Psi, in the opening games of the interfraternity bowling tournament, at the Y. M. C. A. alleys last night.

Both matches were closely fought, the Alpha Sig-Sig Alpha argument being the hardest to decide, the losers actually compiling more pin totals in the three games than their victorious competitors.

Angel of the Alpha Sigma Phi team was high man of the evening with a total three-game score of 565. He also rolled the best single game—204.

Former Chancellor Andrews Was 73 Years Old Yesterday

Elisha Benjamin Andrews, chancellor emeritus of the University since 1909, celebrated his seventy-third birthday yesterday, at Interlachen, Florida.

Former Chancellor Andrews was born in Hinsdale, N. H., in 1844. He enlisted in the civil war as a private, but was advanced to second lieutenant for distinguished service, before the end of the conflict. During the war he lost an eye.

He was ordained a Baptist minister in 1874. Five years later he became president of Brown university, continuing in that position until 1893. Two years after that he came to Nebraska University as its chancellor. He was chancellor until the end of the year 1908. After he left Nebraska he went on a tour around the world, and has since then been in private life.

Picture Will be Hung Over the Lincoln Press in the "Abode of Peace"

A photograph of the famous French statue of Abraham Lincoln, on the west end of the state capitol grounds, framed, and bearing a suitable inscription, was sent to Sir Rabindranath Tagore in Omaha yesterday, by the Lincoln committee, headed by Dr. F. M. Fling, which made the arrangements for the Tagore lecture Monday night.

The legend on the picture states that it is a statue of Lincoln, presented by the citizens of Lincoln to the boys of the famous Indian school, The Abode of Peace, over which Tagore presides, and in the interests of which he is making his lecture tour of America.

Dr. Fling stated yesterday to his class in European history I, that Tagore had been deeply moved by the action of the Lincoln committee in giving to him the surplus over the expenses and guaranty of the lecture. It was the first time this has been done in the United States, other cities finding some other use for the money. The money, amounting to $410, will be used for a printing press that has been long wanted at the school, and that will be called the Lincoln press.

Prints of a full-face photograph of Tagore have been made by Cornell's, and are selling for ten cents.

DR. MAXEY WRITES ON LLOYD-GEORGE FOR BOSTON TRANSCRIPT

Dr. Edwin Maxey, professor of public law and diplomacy in the college of law, wrote an article on David Lloyd-George, the new British premier, that was published in the Boston Transcript for December 22. It was a careful study of the man who has been called the "Roosevelt of England."

What Did The Kappa Barglar Want With Silk Hose?

The Kappas had a burglar. At the stroke of midnight, Tuesday, a dirty hand, under the terrified eye of Edith Martin, entered a window, took from a writing desk a pair of silk stockings and pocketbook containing $5, and exited. This happened at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house, 1701 L street.

Edith Martin and Bess Wallace room on the ground floor. They like fresh air, and generally have their windows open. Tonight all of the ground floor windows at the Kappa house will be closed.

About midnight Miss Wallace left the room, leaving the light burning, and her roommate in bed. A noise at the window attracted the latter, and she looked over that way, and saw a hand steal in. She said it was a dirty hand. If the police follow that clue, several prominent University men might be implicated.

Miss Martin screamed. With scarcely a perceptible pause, the hand explored the writing desk, conveniently near the window, encountered the purse, and removed it. A second trip, and the silk stockings were added to the collection. Then the hand made good its escape.

The screams roused the rest of the sorority girls, and the house chaperone. The story was told; then they all went back to their beds, after having first looked once more beneath them. The robbery was not reported to the police; it came to the ears of The Nebraskan from one of the most consistent Kappa men on the campus.

FOSTER NAMES HIS BUSINESS STAFF

FIVE UNDERCLASSMEN WILL SOLICIT ADVERTISING

Staff Again Declares That Juniors and Seniors Must Hurry With Pictures

Business Manager DeWitt Foster has announced his business staff for this year's Cornhusker. The members are Rawson White, '18, of Omaha; Charles Peterson, '19, of Omaha; John C. Wright, '19, of Lincoln; Norman Curtice, '19, of Lincoln.

Manager Foster has called a meeting of his staff for 5 o'clock tonight in the student activities office. The soliciting of advertising will be explained and the work will be apportioned. Each member of the staff will have a definite department and will be held responsible for his part of the work.

The staff will soon start to solicit advertising for the annual and it is expected to have this end of the book complete in thirty days.

The Cornhusker staff again emphasizes the need of having all junior and senior individual pictures taken now. This is the only thing that can delay the book, it is asserted.

CONVOCATION

FOURTH BEETHOVEN SYMPHONY CONVOCATION PROGRAM TODAY

The Fourth Beethoven symphony will be played at convocation this morning in Memorial hall at 11 o'clock, by the University string quartet, under the direction of Mrs. Raymond.

The program: Adagio—allegro vivace. Adagio. Allegro vivace. Fivale—allegro ma non troppo. Mr. Harrison, Mr. Quiek, Mr. Watt and Miss Elche will play.

DELTA TAU DELTA DRUBS ALPHA THETAS

FIRST FRATERNITY BASKETBALL GAME A WALKAWAY

Did Not Produce Thrills Anticipated—the Final Score Was 43 to 6

Winning from Alpha Theta Chi by the multiplication table score of 43-6, Delta Tau Delta, interfraternity basketball champions of last year, flashed some team work and individual class in their first game last night on the Armory floor which convinced visiting scouts on the side lines that the champions would be very much averse to relinquishing the trophy.

Showing precision and speed in their teamwork, which would do credit to a five in mid-season, the Deltas ran away from their opponents early in the contest, and were never even closely pursued. A tall, nimble young man named North playing forward, was the most prolific basket shooter, but "Stubby" Grant, Schroeder, and Stromer also were inspired. Early in the second half Grant plucked well within the enemy's territory, the ball out of the air and deflected it with a nonchalant flip which sent it sailing straight through the hoop.

Alpha Theta Chi scored their first and only goal before the Deltas got started. They fought gamely to the end, but were unable to corner the speedy Delta Tau flippers who evaded them, sent a shower of shots at the hoop. The first half ended 19-2. The second half was a repetition of the first, with the Alpha Thetas scoring two goals, and the Deltas 24.

Following is the line-up:
Delta Tau Delta— Austin, Nelson Stormer, Irwin, Dinsmore, Schroeder, Henry Grant, Witte Mulligan, Norton, Tincomb Referee, Schumacher.

NATIONAL PHARMACY FRATERNITY WILL CONVENE IN LINCOLN

Phi Delta Chi, the national pharmaceutical fraternity will hold its convention in Lincoln, February 19-20-21, at the Lincoln hotel. About twenty chapters will be represented and entertained by the local chapter and their alumni who will hold a reunion at the time of the convention.

N. P. Hansen, national treasurer, will entertain the national officers at his home, and the Nebraska chapter will hold open house for the visiting delegates.

HUSKERS BEAT SIMPSON COLLEGE

BASKETBALL TEAM EARNS VICTORY BY 20 TO 13 SCORE

Campbell's Floor Work a Feature—Nelson and Collins Led Scoring

The basketball team opened the season with a victory by the score of 20 to 13 over Simpson college of Indianola, Ia., Tuesday night.

The feature of the game was the close guarding of the Cornhuskers and the floor work of Captain Campbell, Nelson and Collins led the scoring with three goals apiece.

The Simpson team was almost helpless against the guarding of the Nebraskans and could only count four field goals as a result of the evening's work. The other five points came from free throws.

Flynn and Jackson, the only substitutes taken on the trip were given a

SINGLE TAX AGAIN BEFORE STUDENTS

FACULTY WISHES TO KNOW THE GENERAL OPINION

Each Student Asked to State His Views Registration Week

The single tax, for which the students have agitated almost from time immemorial in the University, will again be placed before them during registration week of the second semester of school. Each man and woman who registers will be asked to fill out a blank card, stating whether or not he is in favor of the single tax, and what the views of his parents on the proposition are.

This announcement was made yesterday afternoon by Dean Engberg. He said it was highly important that the students learn their parents' feelings at once. The single tax is probably familiar to all but the freshmen students, but campus discussion will help the underclassmen formulate their opinions on the matter.

The vote that was cast after a protracted campaign conducted by The Daily Nebraskan last May, was not large enough to give the University authorities and the board of regents an opportunity to learn the real student sentiment. Less than 500 votes were cast, not more than one-fifth of the students on the campus.

Get Universal Opinion

During registration week, however, the opinion of every student in the University can be ascertained. If there is sufficient majority in favor of the plan, it will have some weight with the board of regents, who will have to decide the matter. The vote last spring was not significant enough for them to act upon it.

The number of hours each student is registered for will also appear on the card, so that the faculty may know exactly who should be excused from the operation of the tax.

The single tax, in brief, provides for each student at the beginning of the semester, to pay, with his usual fees, another fee that will grant him admission to all athletic events of the University, the debates, give him The Daily Nebraskan and the Cornhusker, and probably provide also for medical supervision.

The plan is being used with splendid success by many other universities in the country. The students find it is much more economical, the college spirit is better, attendance and student support for every worthy activity is secured.

TEGNER SOCIETY SPECIAL MUSICAL PROGRAM SATURDAY

A special musical program will be given by the Tegner society at the regular semi-monthly meeting in Music hall of the Temple, Saturday evening. All Scandinavians are invited to the program, which follows:
