YOUR DUTY TO VOTE

No matter what you think about the candidates for office today, it is your duty to vote. The polls will be open from 9 to 12 o'clock in the morning and from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon—giving everyone ample time to express their preference.

You are to select officers who will guide the classes through what may well be called the critical period in student life at the University. Great things are going to happen this semester. The Student Council, the semi-centennial, the pageant, Ivy Day, all will mark high spots in the history and tradition of the University.

Select officers who will reflect credit upon the student body. Vote for the man or woman you think will be most honest, fearless and impartial, regardless of the promptings of selfishness.

Let everyone vote, so that the candidates who are successful will be representative, as near as possible, of most of the people of the class, and not representatives, merely, of a small group.

If the red heads are all for woman's suffrage, who can be against it?

Today is the day of the warm smile and the genial handshake—and tomorrow will be the open season on lame ducks.

BRIEF BITS OF NEWS

To Wisconsin.—Alva Wilson, who has been studying in the department of zoology for a year and a half, has secured an appointment at the University of Wisconsin. He got his master's degree last week at the University of Nebraska.

On Telephones in Nebraska.—R. H. Fair, of the Bell Telephone Co., will speak on telephone practice in Nebraska at the meeting of the student section of American institute of electrical engineers Wednesday, February 21.

Girls' Shooting Club.—The Girls' shooting club has been organized and held its first meeting in the shooting gallery Saturday, with twenty girls present. They will hold another meeting Tuesday evening, February 26.

Valentine Program.—The Union literary society gave a valentine program at their regular meeting Friday evening with fifteen visitors present in addition to the regular members. The program consisted of several musical numbers, a brief history of St. Valentine's day and several novelty numbers.

Speaks to Alpha Zeta.—Prof. W. W. Burr will address the Alpha Zeta fraternity in Music hall at 7:45 o'clock Wednesday, February 21, concerning his investigations on the relative effect of climate and tillage in crop production. This is to be an open meeting to all who are interested in the work.

Repair Testing Machine.—By use of the other testing machines in the materials testing laboratory, the screws on the 100,000-pound Riehle Bros. universal testing machine, which were accidentally bent last week, have been straightened. Castings for the machine will also be welded here, decreasing the cost of repairs formerly estimated at $200 to about $25.

Faculty Women's Luncheon.—The Faculty Women's club gave a luncheon at the Commercial club Saturday, with fifty members of the club present. Mrs. Minnie T. England of the department of political economy gave a reading from James Whitcomb Riley and Prof. Sarka Hrbkova of the department of Slavonic languages gave a talk on "Justice to the Small Nations."

Herbarium Moved.—The herbarium belonging to the Botany department was moved last Saturday from the basement of the Museum into Bessy hall. The work of fumigating the specimens and transferring them from the old wooden cases into the new steel ones will take several weeks. The herbarium is considered one of the finest in the country, containing several hundred thousand specimens.

THE DAYS GONE BY

Seven Years Ago Today

Harry Ewing, Cornhusker football star, was elected assistant coach.

The Cornhusker five, weakened by the absence of Petrashek at center, was defeated by Minnesota, 33 to 14.

Five Years Ago Today

Prof. H. W. Caldwell and family after a six months' visit in Dresden, Saxony, started on their way for Italy, stopping at Munich to visit art galleries there.

Two Years Ago Today

Dr. Lloyd Jenkins spoke at Convocation on the subject of "World Peace."

A great deal of interest was being shown in the interclass debates on the question of the sale of munitions to belligerents.

One Year Ago Today

The Kosmet Klub play, "The Knight of the Nymphs," was presented at the Oliver.

The Wesleyan basketball team won from Nebraska by a score of 23 to 19.

NON COMPOSITIS

Our Daily Thought

Today is election day, watch the "plums" ripen and fall to earth.

We see that one person, at least, is reading this column, humble as it may be. The following literary production was sent to the editor for his Forum column, but it was so fearfully good that he unselfishly turned it over to us to add value to brighten our own little corner.

Editor, The Forum,
Daily Nebraskan.

Dear Editor:

Of the I crave a boon,
Sir,
Editor, a boon.
For Pete's sake put on that guy
Who thinks that he
By deividing,
Forsooth,
Nothing

Into its component parts,
Makes something, the lid;
And
If his advice is good
In your
Most able judgment.
Then,
Oh!
Editor!
Follow it and exercise,
As he has urged subscribers to do,
DISCRIMINATION.

In answer let me say,
Dear contributor
To the Fourm
Column
That DISCRIMINATION
Spelled in capitals
Or spelled

Any old way
Is a rare word
Yea,
Even so
Dear contributor
And even in Spelling
Why not spell

The word
D-i-v-i-d-i-n-g.
Instead of
D-e-v-i-d-i-n-g?
Why not use discrimination?
"Of the I crave
A boon."
Of the
What, dear contributor,
Discrimination
Is a
Wonderful word,
Dear contributor,
And used with Discrimination
Is even valuable
Unto the price
Of rubles,
Dear contributor.

The Phi Psis got about three or four dozen invitations, more or less to the Kappa formal. Who knows some more gossip? This column is getting stale for want of more "news."

Just now the editor is sewing buttons on his overcoat while the girls on the staff are thinking what a rare and beautiful sight it is.

Sing a song of springtime
And of birds and bees;
Sing a song of politics,
And of num'rous plum trees.

Sing a song of springtime,
Sing a song that's been sung;
They do not need the birds and bees,
To see that they've been "stung."

When you buy a shoe you have it fitted and you take it because it looks well and feels comfortable.

But a careful selection of your corset is much more important.

You must feel comfortable—and your corset must form a fashionable smooth base for your gown.

Redfern Corsets

Back Lace Front Lace

are designed with infinite care for every type of figure, and naturally the best of fabrics, boning and other materials is used in their design, for they are high class corsets.

But a Redfern is not an indulgence. It is a healthful safeguard. You will find it all you expect the best corset to be—comfortable, fashionable and serviceable.
