FRESHMAN GIRLS DEFEAT SOPHOMORES

Take First Game of Interclass Basketball Series, 21-18—Juniors and Seniors Meet Today

The freshman girls' basketball team defeated the sophomore quintet by a score of 21 to 18 in the first match game of the annual interclass tournament played in the Armory yesterday morning. The game, rather slow at first, but soon developing into one of the speediest contests ever staged by the girls on the Armory floor, was watched by over a hundred co-ed basketball enthusiasts, who supported their teams with "husky" rooting.

The freshmen started out with luck on their side when Lettie Irons, captain, shot a basket from the center of the floor a minute after the signal to start. A foul on the freshmen gave the sophomores a free throw and point. Janet Thornton following with two field goals for the freshmen. The score of 6 to 1 in favor of the lower classmen woke up the sophomores and some good consistent playing on their part resulted in an 8 to 8 tie, at the close of the first half.

The second year girls walked away with goals the first part of the second half. Three goals were made in rapid succession by Helen Hewitt, Helen Bloodhart and Bess McDonald. Real fighting spirit on the part of the yearlings and good team work turned the tables, however, and eleven points were added to their score, the sophomores closing the half with eight points. The final score was 21 to 18. The line-up was as follows:

Do You Enjoy Outdoor Sports?

If so, you like skating, and to thoroughly enjoy this healthful exercise you must be correctly corsetted.

You must be comfortable, and still you want your figure to be trim.

meet all these requirements. There are models distinctly made for "sports" wear, and each model is a fashionable shaping corset.

Be fitted to your Redfern Corset.

WANTS ALUMNAE FOR HEALTH INSTRUCTION

National Organization of Public Health of New York City Says Executives in Nursing Needed

The national organization for public health of New York City has written Annis S. Chaikin, alumni secretary, asking for the names of Nebraska women graduates who are also graduates of a school of nursing.

The association writes that there is a constantly increasing demand for women to take responsible positions as executives or instructors in public health nursing, and that it is very difficult to find qualified women for these important positions.

STUDENTS PLAN TO KEEP FAMILY BUDGET

Girls in Department of Home Economics Working on Things to Furnish Model House

A list of the things needed to furnish a model cottage is being worked out by the women of the department of home economics, assisted by Miss Alice Loomis, head of the department, and Mrs. J. W. Babcock, dean of the women's dormitory at the state farm.

Later the department expects to publish a family budget, which will show how food and clothing can be most advantageously bought. Alumnae who are now keeping house for themselves, are helping to make this budget.

SUCCESSFUL BOTANIST NEBRASKA ALUMNA

Mrs. M. B. McKay Has Had Wide Experience in Field of Botany

Mrs. M. B. McKay (Venus Pool, '08), has been one of the most successful Nebraska women botanists. Immediately after graduation, she accepted a position with the experiment station connected with the University. Shortly after she went to work for the government, and was put in charge of the investigation of sugar plant diseases in Colorado.

Mrs. McKay is the only woman the government has ever sent out in complete charge of such work. She solved the problem of handling the disease, and was then put at work investigating potato diseases. Her husband is state pathologist of Oregon, and she is now assisting him in his work at Corvallis.

Bradley KNIT WEAR
 "Cum Laude" Sweaters
 Funny how ubiquitous a sweater is. From matriculation to graduation its uses are multitudinous, its paths devious. And how nomadic, too. The athlete's luxurious shaker, proudly alphabetized, migrates from "stude" to co-ed, from frat house to girl's dorm. If it's a Bradley, it abides there. Ask for them at the best shops. Write for the Bradley Style Booklet.
