EIGHT TEAMS TO BATTLE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP IN CLASS A

winning 25 to 3. Frundell, of Crete, who made a brilliant showing in last year's games, played in old-time form and electrified the crowd several times by his clever work. His teammate, Dedla, also tossed the ball into the basket with careless unconcern. The Humboldt defense could not cope with the floorwork of the fast Crete forwards, which swept around them and on toward the goal.

University Place, playing a good floor game and making good on a fair proportion of their attempts at baskets, defeated Kearney 20 to 14. Kearney was outplayed on the floor, and her shots at the goal were not so accurate as in her previous game. Adolph Panek starred for Kearney, while Cummings, Howell, and Trombla led the University Place scoring.

Geneva won a fast, rough game from Schuyler, 13 to 7, by coming from behind in the second half and overcoming an early lead. There was a great deal of spirit in the play of both teams, and the game was one of the roughest of the afternoon.

Harvard and Norfolk played nip and tuck for most of their game yesterday, but consistent basket shooting by Hartley and Moger of Harvard won the game for the latter, 8 to 7.

The midget Columbus team delighted the spectators by an exhibition of fast play in its game with Osceola, which it won 10 to 4. Although there are three small men on the Columbus five, few teams of the tournament this year have shown as speedy, flashy work. Columbus had little difficulty in muzzling the Osceola forwards and got away for several field goals. Newman of Columbus displayed fine form in all-around play, and demonstrated almost wizard ability at hitting the basket.

Fremont Team "Scrappy"

Fremont, showing one of the scrappiest fights of the afternoon, ran away from Gothenburg 24 to 3 in the closing game of the second round. Gothenburg failed to make a field goal, and could not stop the spirited attack of its opponent. Fitzsimmons, Gardner, and Eldam starred for Fremont. Kaint threw three free throws for Gothenburg, its only scoring.

Class B Games

In the second round of Class B in the Armory last night, West Point, Clearwater, Auburn, and Hardy won their games and qualified for the semifinals.

West Point won a nip and tuck game from Ravenna, 11 to 10, with Lanz of Ravenna scoring ten points against the winners in an attempt to bring victory to his team. West Point showed all-around teamwork but Lanz was the star of the game.

Clearwater continued in splendid form, defeating Ong without much trouble 14 to 8. One of the surprises of Class B has been the strength shown by the Clearwater five which has gone this far without being seriously threatened.

Swanton, in defeating Auburn 22 to 6, showed up in unexpected form, and some of its easy, smooth teamwork smacked of championship class. Auburn was helpless before the Swanton attack, and could make but little of its attempts to score.

Hardy defeated Exeter 11 to 8 in the final game of the second round. Exeter lacked in teamwork, although it had the individual star, Adams, who scored six of the eight points made by Exeter. Teamwork and a strong floor game won for Hardy.

Games in Class C

Minden, Bancroft, Lexington, Wolbach, Salem, Papillion and Alexandria are the teams which survived the third round of Class C and will meet to continue the elimination process. Several of the teams winning in the third round by hairbreadth escapes, while other games were won by glaring margins.

Minden, last year's champions, showed improvement in teamwork and general attack, defeating Fairmont 18 to 13 in the third round. The game was featured by Minden's play. Although getting off to a bad start in the department, were in Friend, Neb., yesterday and will be there today with moving pictures for the annual Friend barbecue for the farmers in that district.

Lieut. James E. Allison, ex-'15, who was with the Fourth Nebraska regiment at Llano Grande, visited the engineering college yesterday. He leaves for Detroit soon to see Irving Baker, '16, who is with the Chalmers Motor company of that city.

tournament, and not showing up especially strong in its first two games, the champions rounded into shape yesterday afternoon and promise trouble for teams aspiring to the championship position.

DeWitt a Black Horse

DeWitt appeared in the role of a black horse by winning from Bancroft, counted as a string contender for Class C honors, 26-14. Bancroft failed to show up to form, while DeWitt exhibited excellent all-around play, supported by the individual work of Blodgett at center, who scored 16 points.

Lexington, defeating Chester 11-10, won what was without doubt the hardest fought game of the afternoon. The lead see-sawed back and forth throughout the first and most of the second half. Toward the end of the game the score was tied and stuck until within the last sixty seconds of play, when a free throw gave Lexington the one point needed to get the game.

In a close-guarding game, with few trials at goal, Wolbach eliminated Tilden 11-8. The ball remained near the center of the floor for long periods, so close was the guarding that the machine could not start goalward. Bartinek of Wolbach starred.

Salem won from Bloomfield 14-7 in a featureless game. The Salem team was perfectly at home on the small chapel floor and its teamwork was too much for Tilden.

Papillion showed good goalshooting ability and won from Bertrand 12-7. Getting a late start, Papillion soon had its team working well together, and with good luck on baskets, drew away from its opponents.

Alexandria and Clarkson played a spirited game winding up the third round of Class C, with Alexandria winning 16-12. Terry of Alexandria and Tomes of Clarkson starred for their respective teams, doing the bulk of the scoring.

Second Round—Class C

The second round of Class C was played yesterday morning and afternoon. In Division I, Minden, Fairmont, Bancroft, and Steele City won their games; in Division II, Lexington, Chester, Elmwood and Pawnee City survived; in Division III, Wolbach, Tilden, Salem, and Bloomfield eliminated their opponents, and in Division IV, Clarkson, Alexandria, Bertrand and Papillion qualified for round three. Several of the games were hard fought, especially those in the early afternoon, preceding the beginning of the third round.

Following are summaries of all the games played in the three classes yesterday:

CLASS A—ROUND TWO

Lincoln 19, Arlington 12
Lincoln showed better teamwork and better luck on baskets and won from Arlington 19-12. Albrecht, Lincoln, starred, scoring six field goals. Echtenkamp scored five goals for Arlington.

Norfolk 7, Harvard 8

Both teams played a hard, fast game throughout, and both showed flashes of unusual teamwork. The basket shooting of Hartley and the guarding of Moger of Harvard featured. Harvard's winning point came from a free goal just before the whistle blew.

Columbus 10, Osceola 4

The fast, but small, Columbus team showed superior teamwork and scoring ability and defeated Osceola. R. Newman was the individual star for Columbus, and Weaver and Lisco also starred.
