TEA FOR TOLSTOI COMES WEDNESDAY

Will Honor Son of Russian Writer and Philosopher—Will Follow Russian Custom.
 The Russian tea in honor of Ilya Tolstoi, son of Leo Tolstoi, Russian author, will be given Wednesday afternoon in the Dramatic club rooms at the Temple theater from 2 to 5, instead of today as announced.
 The tea, carrying out Russian customs will be unique in decorations and entertainment. Mrs. Maud Fender Gutzmer, vocal instructor at Wesleyan university, will sing songs by the Russian composer, Rimsky-Kovsakov, in the native tongue. Mr. Tolstoi will talk informally on the life of his father.
 Students and faculty are cordially invited.

Fraternity Bill Defeated.
 House bill 336 to exempt from taxation, property owned by Greek letter and other college fraternal organizations was defeated by a vote of 51 to 36 last week. The law at present exempts only fraternities under control of universities. Purdue fraternities are not exempted. A DePauw fraternity which attempted to escape the levy has for some time been engaged in litigation.—Purdue.
