SOCIETY

The Komensky club, composed of the Bohemian students, held its eighth annual banquet in the Chinese room of the Lincoln hotel Saturday evening. The club flowers, carnations, in the Czech national colors, red and white, ornamented the tables which were arranged in "U" form. The toasts were all based on stanzas from a poem entitled "Slavy Dcera" (The Daughter of Slavia) written almost a hundred years ago by Jan Kollar, the poet who first advocated Pan Slavism. Prof. Sarka B. Hrbkova acted as toast-mistress and asked the following graduates of 1917 to respond: A. Virgil Hlava, "Our Future;" Thomas Stibal, "Harmony;" Miss Ferne Longacre, "Music;" Karl Janouch, "Patriotism;" B. J. Novotny, "Industry;" Charles Pospisil, one of the alumni present, told of "Old Times," while James E. Bernar an attorney of Omaha related amusing incidents concerned with the earlier days of the Komensky club. Clement V. Svoboda, on behalf of the Komensky members of the class of 1918, then presented each of the graduates with the club gifts. All the addresses were in the Bohemian language.

The G. H. S. club gave a dance Saturday evening, March 17, in the parlors of the University Woman's building. Decorations were in the colors of St. Patrick's Day. Schembeck's orchestra furnished the music. Twenty couples were present. Out of town guests were Helen Axelsson, Red Cloud; Claire McKenna, McCook; and Anna Swanson, Aurora. Chaperones were Miss Irving and Miss Mary Fossler.

Alpha Chi Omega freshmen gave an informal dance at the chapter house Saturday evening.

MRS. CANFIELD-FISHER WRITES OF WAR WORK
Author, Daughter of Former Chancellor, Describes War Time Life in Paris
Dorothy Canfield Fisher, daughter of former Chancellor Canfield, has written to a Lincoln friend of her life and war-time work in Paris in which she is now engaged. She is working for the blind in connection with "Le Phare de France," organized by Miss Alice Holt, who has done much for the blind of New York City.

Mrs. Fisher has been helping establish the printing press which is to supply a magazine and as many books as possible to the war blind. To start any new enterprise in war times, she says, is a difficult matter. Her work is at present largely of an editorial character, and brings her in contact with some of the most prominent people in Paris.
Mr. Fisher is with her, working for the Paris bureau of the field service of the American ambulance. Mrs. Fisher is the author of "The Squirrel Cage," "The Bent Twig," and other well known books.

Degeneration of American Youth
"The modern dance and the modern moving picture show are the two greatest dangers to the American youth of today," said Prof. O'Shea of the University of Wisconsin in his psychological lecture, "The Trend of the Teens." "There is a great danger of the youth of America becoming old before his time, and when he does we will decay as a nation. The causes of this premature danger," he repeated, "are the modern moving picture shows and the modern lustful dances."—Vanderbilt Hustler.
Would Abolish "Finals"
Seniors at the University of Washington are strongly opposed to the final examinations. They have completed a list of data which shows that the largest percentage of the big colleges do not have such exams or that they are merely semester exams that require no particular amount of extra time. They hope to convince the regents that their exams are unnecessary and bad. A similar movement at the University of Illinois failed.—U. of W. Sagebrush.
