VENUS 10¢ PENCIL

No matter what course you're taking you need this famous pencil!

BECAUSE of the superlative quality of material and workmanship, VENUS is admittedly the finest pencil it is possible to make.
If you like a thick soft lead that marks so that you can read the writing half way across the room, choose the soft degrees 6B—5B—4B.
For short-hand notes or easy writing 3B—2B—B (medium soft) are popular.
For sketching, general writing purposes, etc., HB—F—H—2H (medium) will prove desirable.
For drafting, a medium hard pencil gives the best results and you'll like 3H—4H—5H—6H.
For very thin, narrow lines for extremely accurate graphical charts, maps, details, etc., 7H—8H—9H are available.
Look for the distinctive water mark finish on each of the 17 black degrees and hard and medium copying.
Your professors will confirm these statements as to the merits of VENUS pencils.

BUY BEAN SEED FOR EMERGENCY CROP

EXTENSION DEPARTMENT HAS TWO CARLOADS AT COST

In Great Demand for Use in Place of Winter-killed Wheat

Owing to the present scarcity of bean seed, the extension service of the college of agriculture has secured two carloads of seed for sale at cost to all who wish to buy. Beans are in great demand for seed because many persons are planning to grow them as an emergency "war crop" and because they are a good crop to replace winter-killed wheat.

So long as the supply lasts, the extension service will book orders for bean seed. The price will not exceed 22 cents a pound for navy beans and 18 cents a pound for pinto beans. The price for navy beans is f. o. b. Lincoln, and for pinto beans f. o. b. Sidney or some point not farther west than Denver. The navy beans are from Michigan and the pinto beans from Colorado.

Prof. Pugsley Makes Statement
A statement just issued by Prof. C. W. Pugsley, director of extension service, follows:

"We are having many inquiries for navy and pinto bean seed. Pinto beans are especially adapted to central and western Nebraska. We have made an effort to locate bean seed in quantities and have succeeded in locating a limited amount. The seed is very scarce and it will be necessary to book the orders at once in case we are to take advantage of the prices quoted. When the beans are laid down it may be found possible to scale the price a few cents a pound. The seed is being located by the college of agriculture for sale to farmers at cost.

"It is necessary that cash accompany the orders, and in case the orders cannot be filled, the cash will be returned and the party notified at once. I would suggest that the beans be ordered in quantities, a number of farmers clubbing together. This will reduce shipping charges and will also reduce expense in handling the beans."

Advancing in Price
"Orders may be sent to the extension service, college of agriculture. No definite date for delivery can be given, but within a few days we hope to be notified of the approximate date of delivery. Bean seed is advancing very rapidly in price, and our orders for two cars could only be placed subject to the ability of the parties to locate beans."

A new circular on "Bean Culture," Emergency Bulletin No. 4, has just been issued by the extension service. It will be sent free upon request.
