MAY BE NO FORMAL PARTIES THIS YEAR

Chairmen of Councils to Ask Reduction of Parties "In Number and Ostentation"

BELIEVE GREEKS WILL HELP

Formals at Nebraska this year of the kinds of former years will probably be few in number. The Faculty committee on student organizations at their meeting last Thursday morning, decided that under present conditions there should at least be less of this sort of social life. They decided that fraternities and sororities should be asked to restrict their formal parties "in number and ostentation." Accordingly Prof. Amanda Heppner, dean of women, will ask the chairmen of the Pan-Hellenic and the Interfraternity councils to recommend such restriction at their next meeting.

The Greeks so far this year have shown themselves very willing to cooperate with the committees in restricting the number of their social events and in practicing economy and it is thought very probable that the councils will decide to comply with the request of the faculty committee. It is hoped that this year, at least, all parties will be held in the chapter houses or on the campus instead of down town.

The committee also granted the request of a number of students to form a new literary society, the Delian. The organizers, a number of which are from the Latin department, have had meetings the last two weeks to discuss plans of the society.

Mr. W. C. Giffin, '15, has been spending a few days on the campus and returns Friday to resume his geological work with the Emporia Oil company.

Cook Tells of 27,000 Men in War Review

Camp Mill, Hempstead, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Lieutenants McMullen, Poteet, Prouditt and Shoemaker send regards. Lieutenant Herb Reese is abroad, the four first-named officers are with organizations here in the Rainbow division.

We had a wonderful review before Secretary of War Baker, Sunday—27,000 men in line. You cannot imagine that many and neither can I. Saw about 3,000, but not more, at one time. Just a moving sea of soldiers.

My regiment is from Iowa and has many of my old friends from home among the older officers.

I am very busy, but feeling well and gaining weight. The responsibility of course, is big, with forty men to train, but many of my platoon had border service.

Now, I would like to ask you to put a couple of "Rags" in an envelope as first class mail and send them to me. I don't know yet who succeeds me as associate editor. Do not send me the paper regularly yet as it will be difficult to send quickly except as first class mail.

My address is:
Company C, 165th Infantry,
Camp Mills,
Hempstead, N. Y.

I remain for auld lang syne and the great days to come, most sincerely,

RICHARD E. COOK,
2nd Lieut., Inf., U. S. R.

WILL GIVE THREE ADDRESSES THIS WEEK

Prof. Sarka Hrbkova Will Speak On War Subjects at Lincoln Meetings

Prof. Sarka Hrbkova, head of the department of Slavonic languages, will give three lectures this week. Tonight she will talk on "Making Democracy Safe for the World," at a meeting of the Lincoln Business Women's club at McKinley school.

Thursday night she will speak on "The State Council and Conservation Work," at a meeting of women who expect to become county agents at the state farm. Friday evening at a meeting of the Deborah Avery chapter of the Lincoln D. A. R. at the home of Miss Mary Ray, she will give a resume of the war.

Prof. Bengston Away—Prof. N. A. Bengston of the geography department was away the first of the week on consultation work in the Missouri valley flood plain.

DEAN HASTINGS AT CONVOCATION TOMORROW

Will Speak on Interesting Subject of "Pacifism, Anarchism, Materialism"

Dean William Granger Hastings, dean of the college of law, will speak on "Pacifism, Anarchism, Materialism," at convocation tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock in Memorial hall.

"Some of the ideas for this lecture were suggested to me by reading Tolstol's 'Thevbania Lubl.'" Dean Hastings told a reporter.

Since the beginning of the war Dean Hastings has made an intensive study of its different phases, and his lecture will be one of the most interesting of the school year.

J. C. Resler, '10, formerly instructor in the Oklahoma state normal school, has accepted the office of city manager of Weatherford, Okla.

Chas. W. Potts, '03, of Deerwood, Wis., is prospector and explorer for manganese and iron ores on the Minnesota and Wisconsin iron ranges. He writes the alumni office. "This prospecting is done by machinery in which we use diamonds for our drilling."

ASKS FOR MEN FOR WAR EMERGENCY WORK

John R. Mott Sends Request for Y. M. C. A. Service in Russia

Prof. Sarka Hrbkova, head of the department of Slavonic languages, has received a letter from General John R. Mott, of New York City, general secretary of the international Y. M. C. A. committee, asking for recommendations for young men to do war emergency work, particularly in Russia.

Among the questions asked the applicants are experience in navy, army, and national guard; business training, languages studied, musical ability, experience in operating a moving picture machine, why he seeks army association service rather than service with the colors.

There are three kinds of positions open—clerical, executive and supervising, and the work is social, educational, physical and religious.

Lincoln Lad Becomes Sole Editor of News Sheet When 13 Years of Age

Within the past two years a new publication has appeared in the ranks of Lincoln journalism that seems to have a real future before it. It is known as the Lincoln Tribune, and is published weekly nine months of the year, omitting the time from the middle of June until the middle of September. The editor and publisher of the little sheet is Adelbert B. Cline. Interest in the paper is strengthened by the fact that Cline at present is only sixteen years old, and when he started the work was only thirteen.

The different departments of the paper are handled by reporters. The editorial and press work is done in the basement of Cline's home, at 1920 B street. Cline sets the ads himself, and has the straight news matter set up on a linotype. He has a job press on which he prints the paper.

The paper was started two years ago and has become a regular "hobby" with Cline. It was formerly printed in six or eight pages, but the size was

FIRST ALL-UNIVERSITY PARTY IS SATURDAY

Committees Are Planning New Type of Entertainment For All Students in School

"BE DIFFERENT" IS MOTTO

The first of the new all-University parties will be held Saturday evening in the Armory. Committees are already busily planning new forms of entertainment that will be the last word in "something different." There will be provision made for every student in the University. Of course there will be the dance for those who dance, but the feature of this year's parties is to be the entertainment for those who do not, and the best part about it all is that the price remains the same as before, only twenty-five cents.

The program and entertainment committees refuse to divulge any of their secrets at the time this goes to press, but are promising some surprises for next week. Some of the best entertainment in school will be rounded up and it is probable that the band will be out for a celebration after the Wesleyan game.

Formerly most of the receipts at the door were spent for refreshments and the orchestra for the dancing. This year it is planned that an equal amount will be spent for entertainment devices.

The committee chairmen which have been appointed to take care of the first of the new parties are as follows:

Reception, Edith Yungblut; program, Dwight Thomas; entertainment, Kenneth Saunders; dance, Wayne Townsend; refreshments, Lucile Wilcox; finance, Walter Blunk; advertising, Leonard Kline; decorations, Harriet Ramey.

ENGINEERING SOCIETY ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Different Departments Described to Freshmen at Annual Reception Wednesday Evening

At a meeting held Wednesday night, the Engineering society elected the board of officers for the following year. This board is composed of the chairmen of the different sections and the chairman of the general society. Chairmen chosen for the different divisions were: C. E., H. B. Thompson, '18, Ag. eng., J. M. Root, '18, E. E., H. A. Langdon, '18; M. E., L. M. Solto, '18, R. B. Saxon was chosen chairman of the general committee.

The meeting was as much in the nature of a reception to the freshmen, as a business meeting. Prof. O. J. Ferguson, in the address of the evening, welcomed the first year men to the society and gave them some good advice as to their school life. He was followed by professors from each department, who spoke briefly regarding the value of a technical training. Prof. L. F. Seaton spoke for the Mechanical engineering department; Prof. V. L. Hollister for the Electrical engineers; Prof. L. W. Chase for the Agricultural engineering school; Prof. G. R. Chatburn for the department of Applied mechanics; Prof. J. N. Bridgeman for the Civil engineering section.

Harold McGlasson, '19, of Lincoln, and Oakley Cox, '20, of Lincoln, are both 2nd Lieutenants "somewhere in France."

Ann Pennington, '20, spent the week end at Nehawka, Nebr.

LARGE NUMBER ATTEND MEETING OF PALLADIANS

A Short Talk by Dean Engberg and Musical Numbers Make Up the Program

Nearly seventy students attended the regular weekly meeting of Palladian Literary society in Palladian hall, Friday evening. Dean Carl C. Engberg spoke for a short time concerning the benefits to be derived from arranging a definite schedule for one's work and the amount of time which could be saved by this way. Several musical numbers were given.

After the program an hour was spent in games and entertainment events.

Sigma Xi Meets—Officers of Sigma Xi held a short business meeting Friday noon in the office of Prof. O. J. Ferguson, to lay plans for the coming year. Another meeting will be announced soon to make more definite arrangements.

FOURTEEN ELECTED TO ENGLISH DRAMATIC CLUB

Eighty Students in Tryouts at Temple Theatre Thursday Evening

Fourteen students were elected to membership in the English dramatic club from the eighty who tried out Thursday evening. The tryouts were held in the Temple theatre and the time from 7 o'clock until 10 o'clock was taken up with the four-minute tryouts for individuals and the six minutes for groups.

The club expects to maintain its usual high standard of productions this year in spite of the fact that it has suffered greatly from loss of men for war service.

Following are the 14 students elected to membership:

F. Woolen.
Myrtle Downing.
Leone Mallory.
Michael Dally.
Elvera Johnson.
Herman Thomas.
Beulah Aylesworth.
Paul Dobson.
Ruth Wilson.
Octavia Beck.
James Colton.
Ruth Lindsay.
Cable Jackson.
Earl Starboard.

UNION LITERARY SOCIETY HOLDS SECOND MEETING

Large Number Enjoy Program of Games, Musical Numbers and Playlet

The Union Literary society held its second regular meeting for the year, in the Union hall, Temple, Friday evening. A large number of visitors were present. A program, consisting of musical numbers, readings and a farce-comedy, was given, following which games were played and refreshments served.

Nine Years Ago Today

Ex-President Taft, who was making a tour as presidential candidate, was a guest in Lincoln and spoke before a University audience at the Temple.

Eight Years Ago Today

Chancellor Samuel Avery left to attend the inauguration ceremonies installing Professor Abbott Lawrence Lowell as president of Harvard University, and to speak before the annual meeting of the state universities association at Cambridge, Mass.

Six Years Ago Today

Prof. H. W. Caldwell and Mrs. Caldwell were traveling in Germany, on a tour of Europe for which Professor Caldwell had a year's leave of absence.

Five Years Ago Today

A Woodrow Wilson club was formed by twenty-five students, for the support of Wilson and Marshall among University students. Bob Harley was elected president.

Three Years Ago Today

Prof. F. M. Fling delivered an address at convocation on "The Imperialism of the German Empire."

Pre-Medic Society

Pre-Medic society will meet Tuesday at 11 a. m. in Brace hall, general lecture room. All freshmen Pre-Medics are asked to be present. Meeting is a business meeting to organize the Medic society.

Mr. J. F. Stoiz, '09, for two years an assistant in the University museum, was a guest on the campus Thursday.

Varsity Trims Scrubs 25 to 0 in First Game

Make Four Touchdowns in Spite of Fierce Resistance of First Year Men

PASSES MORE SUCCESSFUL

By Dwight P. Thomas.

In a game full of thrills and not very much expert football the varsity scrambled through the freshmen Saturday afternoon and won by a score of 25 to 0. The first half was all in favor of the varsity, but in the last two periods with Coach Frank at the helm, the freshmen braced and after the first few minutes gave the varsity a real battle.

The chief amusement of the afternoon was furnished by Ross, the 266-pound freshman, who persisted in getting in the road of the varsity men and hindering their further progress. In the last quarter this same man, with Triplett, who was borrowed from the varsity squad, opened up holes in the varsity line several times that let a scrub backfield man dash through for a small gain.

Shaw, Rhodes and Dobson

For the varsity Captain Shaw, Rhodes and Dobson did the best work. The bright and shining star of the freshmen was Swanson, fullback, who met the varsity men at their own game of hard and fierce tackling. Koehler, Jobs, Redelfs and Howarth are other men on the freshmen team who showed up well.

Koehler started the game well for the freshmen by grabbing Munn's kickoff on his own goal line and carrying it back to the thirty yard line before being halted by the varsity. His teammates could not keep up the work he had started, however, and the scrubs were forced to punt. Cook failed to return the punt. The varsity then began a steady march, using end runs and off tackle drives, which ended in a short forward pass from Cook to Day for the first score.

On the next kickoff the varsity received the ball and again took up the march to the goal. Cook made the score on a 24-yard run through a broken field. Captain Shaw kicked goal, but on a second try, which was for the first touchdown, missed. Score, varsity 13, freshmen 0.

The next score came after more end runs and tackle bucks with McMahon going over from the two-yard line on a tackle drive. ~~Shaw~~ missed goal, the ball hitting the uprights and bounding back.

A very short intermission was taken between halves and the varsity again received the kick and made short work of another score with Cook carrying the ball. Dobson missed the goal.

Score, varsity 25, freshmen 0. Then the worm turned.

Freshmen Start Things

Things began to happen in the middle of the field when varsity forward passes started to fail. Three had been successfully completed in the early parts of the game, but in this quarter they would not work. When two of them had failed the varsity tried other tactics but on the next two downs lost ground and the ball went over to the freshmen in the middle of the field. The scrubs made a first down, and helped by varsity fumbles took the ball to the varsity ten-yard line, where they were held for downs.

The varsity then tried every means of scoring, but all failed. They then resorted to a form of attack that no one expected them of having, that was Dobson's toe. Dobson has always possessed a trained toe, but has used it entirely for punting. At this stage of the game, however, he was called into action as a drop kicker and narrowly missed a goal from the 47-yard line.

Munn, the giant tackle, was then called into operation as a place kicker and right here happened the event that almost permitted the freshmen to score. Swanson broke through and blocked the kick, and Howarth, coming through on the dead run, scooped

NEBRASKAN FREE TO UNIVERSITY SOLDIERS

Believing that Nebraska men actively engaged in the war are just as anxious for news from the campus as their former classmates are for word from them, the management of The Nebraskan will send the paper free of charge to every Cornhusker soldier whose address is known. You can help by sending lists of addresses to The Nebraskan, either mailing them to Station A or telephoning them to the business office, B-2597.
