Sheridan and Box Butte, counties where he has been doing potato selection work.

Reports on Food Conference.—The state commerce and welfare commission is now billing out complete copies of the report on the food conference held in Omaha, May 22 to 25.

Conscription Takes Students.—Effects of conscription have already begun to make themselves felt in the University. A number of students are being compelled to leave school to fill the places left by some one taken in the draft. Four such cases have been recently reported in the engineering college.

J. QUEEN, OF HOLDREGE, IS PLEDGED BY PI BETA PHI
 AS SHE STEPS FROM TRAIN

J. Queen, whose family is one of the best and oldest in Scandinavia, will be the house guest of Pi Beta Phi during this winter. A most intimate friend of Miss Angelette Barnes of Holdrege, she has made her home in that town for the past year. Upon Miss Barnes' hearing that Miss Queen was coming to the University this semester the chapter immediately sent a formal, special delivery letter asking her "to be one of us." Owing to her credits and a few other irregularities Miss Queen replied that she could not become a member of this chapter this semester but that she would like to "become better acquainted with the girls." She was met by the active girls at the train and colors were pinned on her immediately. She is full-blooded, has no fears and sleeps quietly on the floor during "trat" meeting.
