Phi Gamma Delta Leads Fraternities With $2,450—Alpha Phi Leads Sororities as Organizations

Although the goal of $25,000, set as the students quota in the second liberty loan, was missed by $3,300, those in charge are well pleased with the support given by students in the campaign. The reports turned in by the University Commercial club, on the campus campaign, show as nearly as it is possible to determine, that the total amount subscribed up to the close of the campaign Saturday night was $21,700.

Of the total amount reported fraternities and sororities took well over half. The final figures for the fraternities totaled $10,300; those of the sororities as organizations, $1,750. More of the sororities bought as organizations than did the fraternities but not so many of their members bought individually. The total amount of individual subscriptions, exclusive of fraternity members was $6,600.

Phi Gamma Delta with $2,450 leads in the fraternity subscriptions. Delta Chi is second with $1,350. Of the sororities Alpha Phi stands first with $500 and Delta Gamma second with $350.

Professor Condra Speaks For Food Conservation

Dr. E. G. Condra of the geography and conservation department addressed a meeting at Omaha Thursday evening in the interest of food conservation. Dr. Condra has been asked by Hon. Gurdon W. Wattles, state food administrator, to address a number of such meetings that will be held shortly over the state.

The principal object of the meeting Thursday was to make plans for a registration of the food consumers of the state. An effort will be made to get every consumer in Nebraska to register for a movement to follow out the suggestions of the national food dictator, and especially to adopt a wheatless day and a meatless day, and to prevent waste. Reports were read at the meeting which showed what had already been done along this line by the counties of the state. By means of the registration, Mr. Wattles hopes to make this support universal.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN ARE NEGLECTING RED CROSS

Local Organization Unable to Satisfy Urgent Demands for Bandages and Kits

Although over 400 University girls registered for the Red Cross work which is being done in Nebraska hall Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons, under the direction of Mrs. Samuel Waugh of the city Red Cross, only some 200 girls are reporting regularly for work. There is a lot of work that should be done at once and more girls are needed badly.

Last week muslin slings and compress bandages were made. These will be shipped direct to France before the holidays. Mrs. A. H. Armstrong of Lincoln, an expert packer, will help with the packing. The boxes will be lined with waterproof paper and bound with steel binding. They will be shipped to Major G. M. P. Murphy, head of the American Red Cross clearing house at Paris.

Another sewing machine has been secured to make the comfort kits which will be sent wherever the Girls' club wishes to send them, probably to Fort Snelling.

"Isn't the work fascinating?" a girl said as she worked Friday afternoon. "I didn't intend to stay this long, but here I am. I think it is heaps of fun."

As the girls work women of the city organization, working with the girls, tell interesting phases of the war. Mrs. Armstrong told of a trench paper which had been sent to her from Paris by Mrs. Austin, Major Murphy's assistant. The paper is written in French. It was printed in the trenches.

Mrs. Armstrong received a note from Mrs. Austin, congratulating the Lincoln association on the work it has done. It is only rarely that a city association is allowed to ship directly to France, but after inspecting the work the Lincoln association did for two years, the national Red Cross surgical department gave them permission.

Mrs. Waugh and Mrs. Armstrong are confident that when University girls realize how important this work is that they will turn out in larger numbers. If every University girl would spend only one hour a week, an immense amount could be accomplished. Mrs. Armstrong said Friday, "The University girls should make from 3,000 to 4,000 compress bandages each week."

Palladian Society Entertained at Roca

Palladian Literary society held a closed meeting Saturday night with Estella Warner, '20, at Roca. Nearly fifty members made the trip, leaving the Temple at 6 o'clock.

A Halloween party with Halloween refreshments and games furnished entertainment until time for the return trip.

The following toasts were given: Roasts—A. C. Krebs. Obituaries—Florence Slater. Caricatures—Harold Stockman. Anticipations—Evelyn Caldwell.

STUDENTS AND FACULTY TO SUBSCRIBE $15,000

Part of Big Program of Christian Association War Work

"Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. War Work" was the subject of the talk given by Mr. Tinker, national Y. M. C. A. secretary, to a group of representative University men and women Saturday at 1 o'clock. He said that $39,000,000 was to be raised by November 20; 50 per cent to go to prison relief, 20 per cent to national Y. M. C. A. war work, 20 per cent to national Y. W. C. A. war work and 10 per cent to the World's Student Christian federation. Mr. Tinker stated that among other dangerous tendencies which we, as a foresighted nation, must avoid are hate, immorality and coarseness. He then told a story of an officer who reported that "a mine had exploded and had buried a lot of men. Some were killed, others we dug up and used over again." He told of starving prisoners who left the table without eating because they simply could not eat the same dreadful food which was offered to them day after day. "I gave my life to my country but it only took my feet," once a wounded American said. In speaking of the sum of money which was to be raised, Mr. Tinker said, "When I talk about heroes I don't ask for pennies."

At the meeting which was held immediately afterward, $15,000 was the share voted that the faculty and the students of the University should take of the $25,000 Nebraska is to raise.

Ralph Sturm was elected chairman and Eleanor Fogg, vice-president. The executive committee is as follows:

Wayne Townsend, Dwight Townsend, Ray Cowen, Katharine Helzer, Valentine Minford, George Driver, Fannie Drake, Katharine Kohl and John Riddell.

CONVOCATION

Rev. S. Mills Hayes, pastor of the Lincoln Episcopal church, will discuss "The Holy Roman Empire in the Twentieth Century," at 11 o'clock convocation tomorrow morning in Memorial hall.

Reverend Hayes, upon whom the University conferred the degree of doctor of literature at the commencement exercises last June, is a man of very high literary attainments. He is a profound student of Greek drama and has written several manuscripts on the subject.

Modify Elocution Course

The work in Elocution 57, which has formerly been made up entirely of plays, has been modified this semester.

The first part of the two hours, before the class separates into groups for rehearsing different plays, is spent either in reading "Romeo and Juliet" or in listening to reports made by members of the class. Some very interesting ones have been given already on "The Theatre Prospect in Lincoln," "New York Player," "The Little Theatre Movement" and "Movies in Lincoln this Winter."

Constructing Gas Engine

Students in the machine shops of the department of mechanical engineering have nearly completed building a gas engine that was started by the class last year. When completed, it will be a modern four-horsepower engine of the high-speed type.

Miss Redford requests that all the faculty women be present at this meeting it possible and also that they bring pen and paper. She will give some preliminary demonstrations and instructions. The general organization of the class will be completed. CORNHUSKERS FAIL BEFORE ATTACKS OF WOLVERINES

On Muddy Field Nebraska Loses Big Game, 20-0

THREE MICHIGAN STARS

Weston, Weiman and Froemke Pierce Husker Line for Big Gains—Two Place Kicks

By Ivan G. Beede

Ferry Field, Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 27, 1917.—The Michigan Wolverines, playing a brilliant offensive and sturdy defensive game, defeated Nebraska today, 20 to 0. The Cornhusker offense could not get started, and the ball was in Nebraska territory most of the time.

Michigan showed strength in all departments of the game, including several trick plays which battered Nebraska. Weston, Weiman and Froemke starred for Michigan, while Dobson and McMahon played a good game for Nebraska. The Nebraska stone wall weakened by the loss of Riddell and the crippled condition of other men, was pierced frequently for good gains.

The breaks in the game were with Michigan throughout. The first touchdown came when Dobson fumbled on Michigan's seventeen-yard line. Froemke picked up the ball, and with excellent interference, raced straight down the field for a touchdown.

The second score came after Nebraska had suffered penalties, which placed the ball well within her own territory. Six more points came from place kicks by Weiman in the third and fourth periods.

Field Was Muddy

Nebraska and Michigan lined up for their first game since 1911 on a sloppy field. It had drizzled steady all day. The slow field furnished an advantage to the heavy Michigan ends.

The crowd filled the stands slowly. All the seating space was exposed to the steady downpour. The Michigan team appeared at 2:25 o'clock. The Nebraska team came on the field at 2:27 o'clock.

As the Nebraska team took their places they were handed the following message sent by The Daily Nebraskan:

"The Armory is filled with students and faculty watching every play. Nebraska spirit and confidence will be with you at every turn of the game. Remember that Nebraska fights. Go to it."

SECOND UNIVERSITY PARTY SATURDAY

Good Entertainment, Refreshments and Dancing Make Up Evening's Attractions

The second All-University party, which will be held Saturday night in the Armory, promises to be one of the most enjoyable and novel events of the school year. The program will begin at 7:30 o'clock and there will be something doing every minute of the evening.

Just what the program is to be has not been divulged by the committee as yet. They promise some original stunts, however. The decorations are being kept secret, too, but it is rumored they will be "Hollowe'ny."

Refreshments will be served during the evening. They also are not being announced as yet, but students who ought to know are talking of brown, sugary doughnuts, cider and maybe pumpkin pie.

Dancing will begin when the program is over. J. G. Fowler, who has charge of this part of the program, says the music and floor will be "the best ever."

NEBRASKAN FREE TO UNIVERSITY SOLDIERS

Believing that Nebraska men actively engaged in the war are just as anxious for news from the campus as their former classmates are for word from them, the management of The Nebraskan will send the paper free of charge to every Cornhusker soldier whose address is known. You can help by sending lists of addresses to The Nebraskan, either mailing them to Station A or telephoning them to the business office, B-2597.
