TARS HOLD BOUTS TO TEST BOXING SKILL

FRIENDLY BOUT AT NAVAL STATION—PASSED BY CENSOR.

Uncle Sam's tars in a naval training station making a go of it in a bout before many of the other members in the training station. Boxing is looked upon as more of a sport than a part of the training of the tar, but every future naval fighter is taught how to defend himself. Every one of the tars likes to put on the "big mits" and take on one of his pals for a few rounds. It also supplies a lot of entertainment for the boys. The photograph shows the tars engaged in their encounter and the throng of cheering mates urging them on. Every man here is a fighter, and boxing tends to make him more fit, and even better able to take care of himself.

At every other training camp throughout the United States, no matter for what branch of the military or naval service the men are being trained, healthful sports and recreations like this are provided for Uncle Sam's future fighters.—Censored and Passed by the Committee on Public Information.

CHIEF MEYERS IS REAL INDIAN

Boston Catcher Played Both Football and Baseball While at Dartmouth —Is Able Actor.

John T. Meyers, or Torts, if you want the Indian of it, was born in Riverside, Cal., and is a full-blooded Mission Indian. His grandfather was a chief and the Boston Braves' catcher therefore comes honestly by his nickname. Meyers is twenty-eight years old and has played baseball in almost every part of the country. He played semi-professional ball in California and the Southwest until he had saved enough to go to college.

At Dartmouth he played both football and baseball, and in the deepest portion of the baseball field at Hanover there is a stake driven into the ground which marks the spot where a home run by Meyers came to rest. It was the longest hit ever seen by the collegians and no one has approached it since Meyers left Dartmouth.

The Indian got his first taste of league baseball in the Tri-State. St. Paul of the American association snapped him up and there he made such a good record that McGraw paid $6,500 for his release. He at once showed hitting ability, hanging up the wonderful record of 29 home runs on the first training trip, but his catching was very far below big league standards. When McGraw finally let the Indian go he was picked up by the Brooklyn Dodgers and from there went to the Boston Braves. In addition to his catching ability Meyers is an able actor.

Lefty Leifeld Drafted.
 Lefty Leifeld, returning from a successful campaign in the American association, was drafted by a St. Louis team of independents barnstorming in Illinois.

SEE HIGH FINANCE IN ORGANIZED BASEBALL

The White Sox and the Giants are the big profit makers, while the Red Sox, Cleveland and Detroit show a good balance on the right side of the ledger. The Yankees have been laboring under very heavy expenses, but are expected to break even, while the Phillies, too, are making money for their owners. The losing propositions this year are the Washingtons, Browns, Athletics, Brooklyns, Cubs, Braves and Pirates. War, weather and baseball conditions in general are held responsible for the cutting down, and in some cases cutting out, of profits.

MACE BEATS SLASHER SLACK

First of Englishman's Long Series of Victories Which Made Him Champion of the World.

Jem Mace defeated Slasher Slack in nine rounds at Middenhall, England, on October 2, 1855. This was the first of Mace's long series of victories which made him the champion of the world and the greatest boxer of his time. About four years before Mace had met Licker Pratt in the ring, but Pratt was an experienced fighter and much heavier than Jem, and the latter got a good trouncing. Before that time Mace had traveled over England playing the violin and giving sparring exhibitions at country fairs, and his experience with Pratt did not encourage him to keep on as a pugilist. Several years passed before he again tried his luck in the arena, and his victory over Slack determined him to take up fighting as a profession. Mace had gypsy blood in his veins, although he was not a full-blooded son of Romany, as has been alleged. Small for a heavyweight, his science and skill enabled him long to maintain his supremacy among the big fellows of Europe and America.

Ring Pitches Well.

Jimmy Ring, in his brief stay with Buffalo, pitched the most effective ball in the international league, allowing an average of only 1.62 earned runs per nine-inning game in the 50 innings he pitched. Veau Gregg, of course, was the real league leader. His average was 1.72 runs to the game and he pitched 267 innings. He and Ring were the only pitchers to hold opponents to less than two runs to the game.

Byron Houck is Back.

Byron Houck, on his way back to the big show through draft by the St. Louis Browns, is taking fresh heart. Twice in the Portland-Oakland series recently he shut out the Oaks, allowing few hits and always holding the enemy safe.

To Winter in Memphis.

Press Cruthers, second baseman of the Memphis team, has decided to spend the winter in Memphis.
