FRESHMAN GAIN WITH SYRACUSE FORMATIONS

Outplay Varsity in Offensive Work

LINEUP STILL IN DOUBT

Nebraska May Play Smashing Game or May Count on Speed to Win

Using Syracuse formations the freshmen shoved over three touchdowns on the varsity yesterday, without working very hard at the job. The varsity took their turn at advancing the ball, but had hard work getting across the line for a single counter. Several regulars were lacking from the lineup, notably Captain Shaw and Wilder. Schellenberg was in the scrimmage for only a few minutes while Dobson was injured early in the workout and sent to the Gym.

The entire freshmen team was outplaying its older opponents on nearly every charge. Gains around the end or through any part of the line were made with equal ease. Assistant Coach Frank did the heavy work for the first year men, and did it so well that the varsity had hard time catching him, whenever he took the ball.

Varsity Gain on Line

The varsity gains were made for the most part on line bucks by Hubka and Dobson, or on tackle smashes by Cook and McMahon. Hubka and Cook had fair luck in bucking the line, but with the aid of the other succeeded in getting only one touchdown across.

Coach Stewart is still in doubt as to what kind of a lineup he will have to face the New Yorkers with. A few of the men are in danger of being ineligible when the time for the game rolls around and have been spending most of the time the past few days in trying to work off some of the delinquencies. Whether the coach intends to rely on speed or on a smashing weighty attack will not be known until the team takes the field on Thanksgiving day.

It is known that the easterners use both kinds, relying for their biggest gains, however, on line smashes. If Coach Stewart can develop a defense that will stop the Orange men and then adopt similar tactics in the manner of attack he may be able to take the opponents by surprise.

D., where she was a critic teacher at the State Normal school. Last year she taught at Brunswick, Neb. The work was heavier on account of the war, and Miss Newman had a nervous breakdown. ## HEAD OF JUNIOR CLASS ENTERS AVIATION SCHOOL

Jean O. Nelson Withdraws From University to Await Call to Omaha

Jean O. Nelson, junior class president, withdrew from school Tuesday to enter the school of aviation in Omaha. He went to Omaha last week to take the examination for the aviation corps and was notified that he had been accepted. He expects to leave for his home in Sterling, Colo., very soon, to await his call.

Nelson was a prominent man in the Engineering college, and has been very active in school affairs. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

Co-Eds May Lose Pool Unless More Tickets Taken

Girls who are at all interested in swimming are urged to buy their tickets this week as thirty more must be sold by the end of this week if the swimming classes are to be continued. There are a large number of girls who signed up and have not secured their tickets. The cost of securing the pool is so great that more girls must buy tickets or the swimming season will be uncertain. The classes meet every Thursday and Saturday.

L. M. Palmer Speaks To Insurance Class

L. M. Palmer of the Aetna Life Insurance company, addressed Mrs. M. T. England's class in insurance for women, on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Palmer told how in the past it has been extremely hard for women to obtain insurance of any kind, and that if gotten at all the premiums were rated very high. "Most of the insurance companies have frowned upon the idea of women taking out insurance, and have hesitated at selling them policies. But at the present time women can get all the insurance they want if they are willing to look around for it and try the different companies. And the rate at present is just on a par with that charged for men.

"It is logical that the rates charged for women should be smaller than those for men on account of the longer life of women and the consequent greater length of time that they will pay premiums into the company. It is the belief of Mr. Palmer that the rates for women will eventually fall to a lower level than that charged for men."

Freshmen Commission Holds Third Meeting of the Year

Freshmen Girls' commission held their third meeting Tuesday night in Music hall. There were twenty-one of the commission present and the subject of forming Bible classes to study Miss Conde's book was discussed, and it was decided to have each one on the commission try and get two members for these classes. It was also decided that a girls' budget would be kept, commencing with the first of the year, by each girl on the commission, for the purpose of getting some idea as to the exact expenditure of a girl going to University. By the first of March it is hoped that some statement may be published regarding this. The next meeting will be held the Tuesday after Thanksgiving, and all girls appointed on the commission are urged to be present.

A letter from E. A. McCreery, '99, who is now manager for New York State of the Exchange Mutual Indemnity Insurance company, was received by the alumni secretary this week. He sends a clipping from the Buffalo Courier stating the score in the Kansas and Nebraska game last Saturday as being Kansas 31, Nebraska 13, and asks, "Is it possible?"

E. F. Borchat, ex-'18, who left school only recently to enlist in the army, writes that he is now stationed at Camp Meade, Md., Co. A, 28th Engineers, and has already been appointed acting top sergeant.

CO-EDS FINISH SCORELESS SOCCER SEASON YESTERDAY

Third Game of Season Results in Tie—Decision Game Will Not Be Played

A scoreless season of soccer was closed yesterday morning when the upper and lower classmen met at 11 o'clock on the athletic field. This is the third game of a series of games between the two classes, and all have resulted in no score. Since it is so late in the season the tie will not be played off, but it is hoped that the games may be continued in the spring. A rather large number of girls were out to see the game and arrangements were made whereby an attendance at this game could be substituted for a regular gym class.

Ralph Cowan, physical director of the Lincoln High school, was referee. The teams were very well matched and great interest and enthusiasm was shown by all who took part.

Those who deserve special mention for commendable work are: Fay Breese, Ruth Swenson, Ruby Swenson, Ruth McKenney, Grace Nichols, Camille Koch and Valentine Minford.

Oberlies Speaks on "Universality of Religion"

L. C. Oberlies, '95, spoke at the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting in the Temple last night, on the subject of "The Universality of Religion."

"Every man of every nationality has a religion. The Hindu, the Hottentot and the man of greater civilization alike, has a religious instinct within. The spark of divine fire is all but smothered in some, and needs to be fanned into brighter flame. The Bible is an expression of the greatest religion on earth, of which Christ is the exponent and the church the institution. The church is criticized; it has its faults, but it is cowardly to throw rocks through its stained glass windows. Let us not add to the rubbish already within, but work on the inside to eliminate the undesirable. The church and christianity have had their struggle for existence, but they shall never die. I commend you as young men to Jesus Christ, the leader, to the Bible, the greatest of all books, and to the church, the institution established and authorized by the Man of Galilee."

Dean Lyman Urges Pharmacy Reforms

Great effort is being made toward the improving of professional and scientific pharmacy. Dr. R. A. Lyman, head of the department of pharmacy, in his address as president of the American conference of Pharmaceutical faculties at Indianapolis, Ind., advocated among other things that the period of college training be lengthened and the drug store experience shortened so as to make pharmaceutical training in our colleges and drug stores comparable to training in our medical colleges and hospitals. In so doing Dr. Lyman stirred up a hornet's nest among the practical druggists of America, but his point of view is being supported universally by leading educators along this line as evidenced by a series of articles appearing in the Druggists' Circular of New York for November, 1917. As a result of agitation of this nature on the part of professors and educators, there is no doubt but that the whole method of education and practical experience will be changed for the betterment of pharmacy.

WARNING TO HOLDERS OF STUDENT TICKETS

Gatemen Will Take Up Season Tickets Not in Purchasers Hands Thanksgiving

Warning comes from the student activities' office that all student season tickets not in the hands of the original purchaser at the Thanksgiving game, will be taken up by the gatekeepers and the owners will lose their right to further use. The tickets are non-transferable and are issued under the condition that no one use them except the purchaser. The management intend to hold strictly to this rule at the Syracuse game. The student will forfeit his right to entrance to all other athletic events for the year on his ticket.

Student tickets for the Thanksgiving battle are nearly all taken, but a few good seats remain. They may be bought or reserved at the College Book store. Tickets for the north stands may be obtained at Harley's Drug store.

The activities' office says that all students who had tickets laid aside without paying a deposit, must get them within the next few days, as they will not be held longer.

Dr. F. M. Fling to Speak on "America and World War"

Prof. F. M. Fling, head of the European History department, will speak to the Agricultural club Thursday night at 8:15 o'clock, upon "America and the World War." He will speak upon the same subject at Fullerton, Friday night, under the auspices of the Ladies' club.

Dean Heppner to Confer With Organization Heads

Dean Amanda Heppner has sent the following notice to all University sorority and fraternity houses, to obtain the student views of the proper treatment of chaperones and guests, at all social functions:

"Thursday evening, November 22, I wish to confer with representatives of all organized houses concerning social customs and regulations. Will you kindly send a delegate who can talk and who will be helpful at such a conference? The meeting will be held in Music hall of the Temple, and will begin promptly at 8 o'clock."
AMANDA H. HEPPNER,
Acting Dean of Women.
Adm. 205.

MAY USE PEAT MOSS FOR SURGICAL DRESSINGS

Sphagnum or peat moss will be used as a substitute for cotton dressings in the hospitals if the experiments which are now being carried on in the botany department of the University of Minnesota prove favorable. Prof. C. O. Rosendahl of the department is conferring with the Red Cross officials in Duluth and it is hoped that the substitution will prove successful, for large quantities of sphagnum are to be found in Minnesota. These dressings are not only cheaper than cotton dressings but they are really more valuable because they have greater absorbent power.

RED TRIANGLE RALLY FOR EVERY STUDENT

Only the "Slackers" Will Be Absent Tomorrow

DRILL PERIOD FOR CADETS

Students and Faculty Will Gather in Groups Immediately After 9 O'clock Classes

Students and faculty coming from 9 o'clock classes tomorrow, will form in lines as shown in another column, and will march behind the University band and regiment, down Eleventh street, up O, and down Thirteenth to the Auditorium, for the Patriotic rally.

The Military department has issued the order to all cadets to respond to roll call in regular places with arms, Friday morning at 9:55 o'clock. There will be no drill Friday afternoon, but all cadets who do not report Friday morning will be counted absent from Friday's drill.

Chancellor Avery will preside at the rally at the Auditorium. The meeting will be opened with University yells and patriotic songs. Following there will be short, "peppy" talks by student and faculty members, Steele Holcombe, Jean Burroughs, John Riddell, Walter Judd, Prof. M. M. Fogg, and Prof. R. D. Scott will be the speakers. The committee has sent for "Tim" Corey, who will attend the rally and talk to the students, if possible.

Appeal to Organizations

The following notice has been sent to all presidents of organizations, who are urged to be responsible for the attendance of their members:

"You doubtless know about the Patriotic Rally to be held Friday morning from ten to twelve. All classes are dismissed and Chancellor Avery says that any who can attend and do not are slackers. The success of this campaign—the biggest and most vital ever presented to the students of the University—depends absolutely on every man and woman being present at the Auditorium at that hour. We must have all the enthusiasm that can possibly be worked up on this occasion in order to remove the stain of indifference to our fellows in arms that now rest upon this student body. Will you, as president, talk this up in your organization, especially at dinner Thursday evening, and make it the general feeling that every individual must be in that parade and in the rally? Watch The Nebraskan for details.

"For the honor of U. of N. and our own 'boys.'"

"WALTER H. JUDD,
Chairman of Rally Committee.

The rally has had the hearty cooperation of the faculty, and it is now up to the students to make a real demonstration of Nebraska loyalty (Continued on page four)

INTERESTING PROGRAM FOR BOHEMIAN FETE

Playlets, Clown Work, Chalk Talk and Dancing Included In Entertainment

The program which will precede the dancing at the Bohemian fete, given by the Art club in Art hall Saturday evening, has been announced by those in charge. There will be two playlets, a clown dance, gypsy story telling, a Bohemian dansant, a chalk talk by Dwight Kirsch, '19, president of the club, and a short talk by Professor Blanche Grant, associate professor of drawing and painting.

The program opens with the short play, "The Art Club as Others See Us." Marguerite Polk, '19, Helen Youngson, '21, Margaret Noble, '19, Eleanor Seymore, '19, have the leading parts in this play. Gypsy stories will be told by Dorothea Ferris, '21. Miss Langwait will give the clown dance. A real gypsy fortune teller has been secured, whose power of foretelling, the committee asserts, is miraculous.

Refreshments will of course be served. Dancing will begin about 10 o'clock, probably before. The committee has secured excellent music, they say, and the floor is in splendid condition.

Professor Grant has offered a framed Holbein drawing to the student who sells the largest number of tickets.
