THANKSGIVING

—a "dress-up" Day

ASIDE from the "deep-down" feeling that the day brings, there is a desire to do honor by wearing especially good "togs."

WE ARE headquarters for garments of character—coats, suits, blouses, dresses, hats. Our shoes are the finest made. Our accessories of dress, such as gloves, hosiery, neckwear, bring distinction.

DURING the Big Game the chill winds will pass you by if you wind soft furs about your neck and shoulders. Motor robes will not come amiss.

NEWS FROM CAMP

Leonard Bahensky, ex-'20, Mech., is now fighting in France, in Company A, 2nd Engineers, American Expeditionary forces, via New York. He writes that he saw three Zeppelins brought down by the French forces in one day. He enlisted May 14, and trained at Fort Bliss, El Paso, Texas.

Chas. F. France, ex-'18, now first lieutenant in the 17th Aero squadron located at Camp Hicks, Fort Worth, Texas, made a call at the Engineering department Thursday. France entered the first officers' training camp at Fort Snelling, and was given a forward to the aviation training school at Toronto, Canada, from which place he has been transferred to the Texas camp.
