SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC NOT UNDER CONTROL

Advanced Case Discovered in Temple After Long Exposure

VACCINATIONS REQUIRED

No More Free Examinations to Be Had From the University Physicians

University authorities were warned of the fact that the smallpox epidemic was not permanently checked when they discovered early yesterday morning that the janitor at the Temple had contracted the disease and had been broken out for three days before being sent to detention quarters.

The Temple was immediately fumigated and closed to prevent a spread of the disease from that source. All classes in the building were dis-pensated with and the cafeteria closed for Monday. Tuesday classes will be held as usual, although it may be a little unpleasant as a result of the fumigation. The Convocation that was scheduled for the Temple Tuesday morning was held in the Armory.

Many Were Exposed

The new case has a very significant bearing upon the present situation because all those who attended had classes in the Temple during the latter part of last week were exposed to the disease. The fact that the case was in an advanced stage before discovered, and that there was such an open exposure makes it probable that new cases may be contracted from this source.

Chancellor Avery has issued an order requiring all University employees to be vaccinated before Wednesday or they will be given leave of absence from their work without pay. Some of the employes up to this time have been reporting for daily inspection but that will be no longer allowed after Wednesday.

No More Free Inspections

The authorities in charge of the vaccination have decided that the free inspection of those who have not been vaccinated cannot be continued any longer on account of the great expense to the University.
Those who have refused to be vaccinated will be required to obtain certificates from reputable physicians in the city and these certificates will have to be renewed every 36 hours.

These orders are found in the following letter of Dr. R. A. Lyman, dean of the college of pharmacy, who has been in charge of the vaccination.

"I have been authorized by Chancellor Avery to make the following statements:

"Only a small percentage of the employees and students have not been vaccinated. If smallpox continues to flourish in the University community it will be because of these few who have not been vaccinated.

"After Friday, December 21, the University will discontinue the free inspection of these people.

"After the Christmas holidays, all students and employes who have not been vaccinated will be required to obtain a certificate from some reputable physician in the city. This certificate will be good for 36 hours only and must then be renewed. The certificate must be filed as soon as obtained, with Dean Engberg.

NEBRASKA'S MIDGET CENTER JOINS NAVY

Enlistment of Bill Day Will Prove Serious Loss
to Team

"Bill" Day, Nebraska's midget center, who made a name for himself this season in the football world, has left school to join the navy.

"Bill" enlisted at the naval recruiting station in Omaha sometime ago, and has just received a letter from the department ordering him to report at the Great Lakes Naval Training station on January 2, 1917. Until then Day will spend his time adjusting his personal affairs at the University and at his home.

The enlistment of Day will be a big loss to the team next year. The past season was his first year in varsity football, and there is every reason to believe that Day has not yet struck his real stride. If the war is over inside of two years, Day has promised that he will be back in school again to play football.

Local Red Cross Society Asks for More Bandages

A call for three thousand more bandages has come from the Red Cross headquarters to University girls. The full quota from the school was filled last week during the drive for standard Red Cross bandages, and it is now the desire of those in charge to add three thousand more in order to fulfill a shipment.

Mrs. Samuel Waugh, Sr., who is in charge of the work on the campus announced that the rooms would be open today at 1 o'clock, for those who want to work.

THE UKULELE

THE languorous charm of the Hawaiian native instruments—so moving in appeal, so observably in vogue—is strikingly characteristic of the Ukulele. Its tone possesses that curiously beautiful timbre, that exotic charm of tonal quality which has made these instruments so sensation-ally popular.

The Ukulele has a pleasing grace of form. The finer models are made of genuine Hawaiian Koa wood. It is much in request today among the smarter college and other musical organizations.

It is easy to learn. Its price includes an Instruction Book.

Hawaiian Steel Guitar

Every chord struck upon this typically representative Hawaiian instrument is marked by a weird, plaintive harmony and strangely beautiful qualities of tone. It brings, to any music, qualities full of vivid color and varied charm.

Price $8.00 and upwards, including Steel and Set of Three Thimbles for playing, and Instruction Book.

Catalogs on application.
