ROYALTY PLAY TO BE STAGED HERE SOON

University Artists to Introduce Novel Sketch at Temple
 March 21

"The Passing of the Third Floor Back," the big royalty play on which the University Players have been working for over a month, will be presented March 21st at 7:30 in the Temple theatre. Its author, Jerome K. Jerome, is a well known writer.
 Instead of being written in acts, the play consists of a prologue, a play and an epilogue.

Every character is a pronounced type in itself and the gradual change of these from contemptable, unworthy people to worth-while personages, makes up the play. The scene is laid in a rooming house for presumably high class people, which is kept by "Mrs. Sharpe." The part of "Mrs.
 Sharpe," who is indeed sharp and very cross, is taken by bronze-headed Myrtis Downing. Gladys Appleman,
 '19, of Alvo, plays "Stasia," the loud, coarse little serving girl who has just been let out of a reform school. The part of "Miss Kite," the "regular cat" of the play, is taken by Susie Scott, '18, of Kearney, who played in last year's junior play, "Green Stockings."

Another of the roomers, "Mrs. De Holley," the snob and would-be aristocrat is portrayed by Octavia Beck '18, of Lincoln. "Major Tampkins"— Walter Herbert—and his wife—Georgia Boggs—are the scheming match-makers who want their daughter, "Vivian"—Elizabeth Erazim—the leading lady in "Green Stockings" and one of the cast of "The Builder of Bridges"—to marry "old man Wright" —Harold McMahan—for his money, but "Vivian" loves the struggling artist, "Christopher"—Herman Thomas.

The story of the play revolves about the character of "The Stranger," the mysterious passer-by whose influence for good is subtly felt by everyone and whom everyone feels that they have met before but do not know where.
 This kindly, gracious "Stranger" is played by Alfred Reese, '19, of Randolph, who was recently elected to the Dramatic club.

Harry Tarkcom—Reuben Claussen —is the musician who plays cheap music and "Jape Samuels"—Robert Moodle—is the hisping, money-making Jew.

DR. HINMAN TO LECTURE ON RELIGIOUS SUBJECT

Series of Three Lectures to Begin in Y. W. C. A. Rooms in Temple Sunday

Dr. E. L. Hinman of the philosophy department of the University will begin a series of three lectures on the "Religious Readjustment," next Sunday afternoon at 4:30 in the Y. W. C. A. room at the Temple. The dates and subjects for the series of lectures follow:

March 17—"The Religious Readjustment—What is the Bible?"

March 24—"The Religious Readjustment—Christianity and Modern Culture."

April 14—"The Religious Readjustment, Christianity and World Religion."

Those in charge have been very fortunate in being able to secure an expert in this line, a man who has spent years of study in the philosophical and religious as well as the scientific fields. These lectures are planned under the auspices of the Student Volunteer organization of the University, with a desire to make them genuinely helpful to all students. All University people as well as the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. members are most heartily welcome.

If you believe Christianity has broken down since the war, you should hear these lectures, as they promise to disclose satisfactorily the harmony existing between science and religion and lay broad foundation for Christian beliefs.

John R. Bender, former manager of athletics at Kansas State Agricultural College, and Johnny Griffith, last year head of the athletic department at Drake University, have been commissioned captains in the army with orders to sail for France with their divisions when the time comes. Griffith is now athletic director at Camp Dodge while Bender is serving in a similar capacity at Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C.—Daily Kansan.
