J. M. Perrigo, Fremont, and Mrs. D. F.
Cole, Chicago, Ill.

About forty members attended the annual banquet of the Latin club
given in the English room at the Lincoln. The decorations were simple.
The menus, which were made by the club members, were tiny scrolls, similar to the ancient Roman books. Alice Allen was toastmistress. The following toasts were given:
"De Finibus Bonarum et Malorum"
—Catherine Hafner.
"De Senectute"—Nellie McKesson.
"De Amicitia"—Jessie Baum.
"De Republica"—Zora Schaupt.
"De Gloria"—Jean Landale.
The surplus saved from this event
and economizing on club expenses
during the year, will be used to purchase liberty loan bonds.

Forty members were present at the annual banquet of Sigma Phi Epsilon held in the Chinese room at the Lincoln. Clifford B. Scott was toastmaster. The following toasts were called for.
