Life Story of
GENERAL PERSHING

Hastings restaurant men who have refused to serve colored people and especially passing colored troops have been notified by Mayor Madgett through the police department that all guests must be served alike during these war times.

The voters of Grand Island defeated a school bond proposal of $112,000. The total vote was light owing to unpleasant weather, there being cast one hundred and thirty for and an even four hundred votes against the proposal.

A plan for consolidating all of the volunteer war enterprizes in Dodge county will be put into effect soon. Committees have worked out the foundation for a society to be known as the War Service league.

Niels P. Hansen of Lincoln is to be secretary of the republican state committee. His appointment has been officially announced by Chairman E. D. Beach.

The body of Lieut. Charles J. Hyde, killed at Love flying field, Texas, when his airplane went into a tall spin, was brought to Norfolk for burial.

Separate suits by twenty-two Dodge county banks was brought in district court in the matter of the assessment ruling of the state board of equalization providing that all real estate mortgages and Liberty bonds held by banks be listed as taxable property

There are over a half million depositors in the state commercial savings banks of Nebraska, and they have to their credit the gross sum of $246,800,000, or an average exceeding $475 for each depositor. The deposits have increased during the last thirty-four years nearly $22,000,000. Nine hundred and thirty-four banks are included in the foregoing. This gives each bank average deposits of more than a quarter of a million dollars.

LONG LINES OF STUDENTS SEEK EARLY REGISTRATION

Nearly Five Hundred Freshmen Stand in Line Before Memorial Hall

Most Men Registrants Apply For Student Army Training Corps

Early Wednesday morning the first day of the registration at the university, long lines of students and prospective students began to form outside of Memorial hall and the Administration building.

The new students with the exception of the co-eds were enrolling almost entirely in the S. A. T. C. A great many of them either neglected to send the registrar their entrance credentials, or did not make up their minds to enroll in time to do so. Consequently an extra amount of work has fallen upon Miss Florence McGahey, registrar, and her corps of assistants in approving the high school entrance grades.

Room 102 in the Memorial hall was filled before nine o'clock this morning with youths desiring entrance into the S. A. T. C. but not just sure how to proceed. They were taken care of as rapidly as possible, but even those having time cards for registering are far behind the time set for their matriculation.

Line of 500 in Wait

At two o'clock the line outside Memorial hall contained between four and five hundred students waiting for entrance. It reached nearly to the physical laboratory but every one was waiting patiently for their turn. Upstairs in Memorial hall everything was moving with maximum efficiency, despite the unusual conditions presented by the matriculation of so many new students. The advisors quickly directed the students and a steady stream was kept moving from one desk to another as the freshman were initiated into the mysteries of matriculation.

Those enrolled in the S. A. T. C. received a welcome surprise when it was announced that there would be no fees charged those of this corps.

The registration is proceeding rapidly and smoothly, all that could be expected under the conditions confronting authorities.

THE SLACKER

You say he can't stand the army,
The life is too rough for him,
Do you think him any better
Than some other mother's Tom or Jim?

You raised him up like a girl,
He doesn't smoke or drink is your brag,
If all other boys were like him
What would become of the Flag?

You say let the rough class do the fighting,
They are used to the beans and stew,
I am glad I am classed with the rough-necks
Who will fight for the red, white and blue.

You say his girl could not stand it,
To send him off with the rest,
Don't you think she'd be glad he enlisted
When she feels a Germans' hot breath on her breast?

Think of the women in Belgium,
Of the cruelties they had to bear,
Do you want the same thing to happen
To your innocent daughter so fair?

You can thank God that the stars in Old Glory
Are not blurred with that kind of stain,
Because there are ten million rough-necks
That have red blood in their veins.

They go and drill in bad weather,
And come in with a grin on their face,
While your darling sits in the parlor
And lets another man fight in his place.

Maybe we do fight an gamble a bit,
But we fight as our forefathers did,
So go warm the milk for his bottle
Thank God we don't need your D-kid.

—By a Soldier in the Trenches.
