UNI NOTICES

TWIN CLUB MEETINGS

All twins in the University of Nebraska will meet at the initial meeting of the club at 11:50 o'clock on Thursday, September 26, in U 112. Everyone will please be prompt and notify all others who are eligible to the club to be at this meeting.

Students in Music

All students taking work in applied music, either piano, voice or violin, must consult the director of the School of Fine Arts before registering. Such work is open to arts and science students to the extent of two hours a week, not to exceed eight hours for the entire course.

Chorus Rehearsal

Chorus rehearsal has been changed from Monday, Wednesday and Friday at five to Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at five in the Art gallery. The men will sing with the chorus on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Registration for chorus will be open during the remainder of the week. No charge will be made for registering during this time.

Military Geography

The following courses are being offered for the benefit of the S. A. T. C.: Mechanical engineering 21, a new course in the study of the gas engine. Military mapping, geography 21. Teachers are from federal departments. Military geography, course 1a. For information concerning the two latter courses inquire room 124, Bessey hall.

Physical Education

All girls classes in physical education will meet this week at regular class hours in lecture room, S 102 Memorial hall.

China Painting
 Students wishing to take work in china painting will consult Mrs. Henrietta Brock, Library, 308.

NAVY EXAMINATION BARS GREATER PER CENT OF APPLICANTS

Twenty more engineers are needed for the students navy training corps. About 400 applied for enlistment, but 75 per cent of them failed. The navy examinations are very rigid.

The men may apply as late as October 1, but they are advised to enlist as quickly as possible in order to notify the draft boards of their enlistment. Ensign Condict is pleased with the outcome of the enlistment.

DUNVIER PAINTINGS
 NOW IN ART GALLERY

An exhibition of painting by August Dunvier of Omaha is hung on the south wall of the Art gallery. Mr. Dunvier has done some interesting work in Nebraska landscapes, but these are excelled by his portraits. One of his panels, a portrait of his wife, received honorable mention at an exhibition of northwestern artists in St. Paul.

Mr. Dunvier is at present in the service. He was in Europe at the outbreak of the war and had considerable difficulty getting back to this country, being repeatedly suspected as a spy who are not regularly enlisted, hence must furnish their own equipment, should see Magee's at once in regard to their military uniform.

Captain Melvor informs us that you will be unable to obtain this equipment from the Quartermaster Department.

Five consecutive years of outfitting University of Nebraska cadets has given us unexcelled experience in fitting military uniforms and has naturally made us headquarters for all kinds of military supplies.

See us at once, without fail, and have your uniform in time to start off with those regularly enlisted.

Hats	Shoes	Leggings	Shirts
Belts	Ties	Insignia of Rank

S. A. T. C. Men will want a dress uniform in addition to the service uniform issued to them by the government. We are fitting the men with regulation O D wool uniforms made by the best tailors—a uniform you'll be proud to wear to dress functions.

Prices Right—its our opportunity to do our bit.
