BIG PROGRAM FOR WAR WORK RALLY

Meetings Will Be Held at City Auditorium and First Presbyterian Church

Classes Closed While Entire Student Body Take Part in Affair

Tomorrow morning at 10:15, every class in the university will be suspended and all military work will cease during the monster mass meetings which will be held jointly in the city auditorium and First Presbyterian church. At this time the United War Work campaign will be opened in the city of Lincoln, and an energetic effort will be made to arouse enough enthusiasm among those connected with the university to go over the top with the university's quota of $25,000. Rev. H. H. Harmon, who has just returned from a year's service on the western battle front as a Y. M. C. A. worker in the American Expeditionary Forces, will be the first speaker. Rev. Harmon has been very closely associated with the personal service work being carried on among our own boys by the Y. M. C. A. and kindred organizations in France. He is certain to have a vital message to people of Nebraska.

"Jimmie" Taylor to Speak

"Jimmie" Taylor, one of the wars most famous personal service workers, who has been in active service with the British forces since the very beginning of the war, will tell of his experiences while in active service among the "Tommys."

Captain E. J. MacIvor will also address the meeting, emphasizing the importance of the war drive, and incidentally arousing enthusiasm among the student soldiers.

The university chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Carrie B. Raymond, will lead in the singing of patriotic songs.

S. A. T. C. to Attend

The entire detachment of S. A. T. C. will attend the mass meeting in a body and will march in procession to the auditorium. That part of Section B stationed on the farm campus and the School of Agriculture will attend the meeting at the Presbyterian church presided over by President Brown of the board of regents. The remainder of the S. A. T. C. and the S. N. T. C. will attend the meeting held in the auditorium.

The united war work campaign was organized at the request of President Wilson, and Catholic and Protestant, Jew and Gentile are working hand in hand to raise one hundred and seventy million dollars which will be expended for our soldiers and sailors without any thought of church or creed. The work of the seven organizations is truly carrying the comforts of home to the Yankee boys, and leaving them contented and happy.

TWENTY SUPERIOR BOYS TO HAVE NOVEL AFFAIR

Evelyn Black, '19 to Act as Hostess at Weiner Roast Saturday Night

Twenty boys from Superior, Nebraska, will enjoy a novel party Saturday evening. Evelyn Black, who taught school in Superior for a year, will be hostess at a weiner roast and a number of interesting things are planned to make the affair a lively one.

Captain MacIvor has granted passes to the twenty boys and at six o'clock they will meet the girls of the party in the large parlor of the Army and Navy club in the Elk's building. From there they will go out to the woods for "hot dogs." If the weather is such (Continued on page 3)

ANOTHER CALL FOR OFFICER MATERIAL

A call for ten men to attend a coast artillery officers' training school was sent out yesterday morning from headquarters.

Of the fifty men who could meet the preliminary qualifications, twenty were selected and rated. The men who hold the highest rating will be sent in this call, and the balance will be placed on the waiting list.

The list of fortunate candidates was not ready for publication this morning, but will be announced soon.

BETA THETA PI MAY SURRENDER CHARTER

Inter Fraternity Council Finds Greeks Guilty of Breaking Uni Regulations

Must Give Up Chapter House and Make Grade of 85% Or Be Suspended

Beta Theta Pi fraternity has overstepped the university rules in regard to the initiation of new members and as a result is facing a severe punishment. Charged with initiating members without regard to interfraternity regulations, the alumni division of the interfraternity council puts the following proposition up to the men:

Every active member and every pledge must make an average of 85% in his university studies. They shall have no chapter house or club rooms until such time as they can show to the proper authorities that they can show that they are in the right spirit toward university rules and regulations.

Should the men refuse to accept the proposition, they will all be expelled from school or have their charter revoked.

At the first of the year the council gave the fraternities permission to initiate men thirty days after pledging. Before the time was up, notices were sent to the men not to initiate members until the council had acted on the question again.

It was found out that Beta Theta Pi had initiated several men without permission and had broken university rules and regulations in former years. They were even charged with initiating all of their new men this year but the accusation was not proved.

Fearless

A man who makes $15 a week has been advised by a writer that he can marry and get along, providing he has saved up a fund. That sounds reasonable. A man who can save a fund out of a $15-a-week salary has nothing to fear from marriage or anything else. —Kansas City Star.

Poser From Prison

If men are the helpless creatures of their environment, how then do you account for the fact that in this prison there are three separate and distinct grades? Since the environment is precisely the same, how do you explain the segregation of the inmates into three wholly dissimilar classifications? —Leavesworth New Era.

FORMER STUDENT WRITES FROM AVIATION FIELD

A letter from Clement Svoboda, who was president of the Komensky Klub last year, was received Wednesday by Professor Sarka Hrbkova, head of the Slavonic language department. Svoboda is stationed at Post Field, Fort Sill, Okla.

"Aeroplanes are as common here as sparrows in Nebraska," he writes, "and the artillery keeps up a continual roar. Our work so far has been of the heavier sort, such as repairing roads and shoveling coal for the purpose of fitting the men physically."

His address is: Aero Squadron C, Post Aviation Field, Fort Sill, Okla., care of the Isolation Camp.

It doesn't much matter whether the German soldiers believe the American soldiers are in the field, so long as they really are there.

"HOUSE WARMING" FOR SATURDAY POSTPONED

The "house warming" which had been scheduled for the Woman's Home on Saturday afternoon, has been postponed until some time next week. The postponement is made necessary because the house is not as yet in condition for occupation by the girls for a large party. By the middle of next week the house will be in shape for the big party, and at that time all the women and men coming to the social will make merry.

The initial event is merely the first of a series of these parties which will be given for the soldiers throughout the year. Each Saturday evening two hundred university students will attend the socials—one hundred soldiers and one hundred girls. The men will be picked by Captain E. J. MacIvor, and the girls will be selected by Mrs. T. J. Doyle. No one will be admitted to these parties who does not have the written invitation either from the Captain or from Mrs. Doyle.

REGULAR STUDY PERIODS FOR MILITARY STUDENTS

"Supervised study for every member of the S. A. T. C., each evening from 7:30 to 9:30, except Saturday and Sunday." This is the gist of the latest official order from local army headquarters.

Last evening, members of Nebraska University's student army found themselves studying, for the first time, with Uncle Sam as their professor.

The new plan was found feasible because of the difficulty students found in concentrating upon their work while in the barracks.

CAPTAIN "ERNEY" HUBKA LEADS HUSKER WARRIORS

Says Team is Rounding Into Fine Shape for Saturday's Tussle With Balloonists

Captain Ernest A. Hubka, who is piloting the Huskers through the 1918 season, and is planning on copping the Missouri valley pennant for Nebraska, is a veteran of the gridiron game. He first won his spurs at Beatrice high school where he played tackle and fullback for two years and was selected for all-state honors in his last year on the team.

Hubka made good on the Cornhusker freshman team in 1916 and jumped into the varsity lineup as soon as he became eligible, at the right end position. Near the last of the season he was shifted to fullback and worked against Kansas at that position. His work was so spectacular that he was placed at left tackle on the second all-Missouri valley eleven by C. E. McBride, sporting editor on the Kansas City Star last year, and honored by Eugene T. Dyer in Spaulding's Football Guide by a place at halfback on the first all-valley team.

This is his second year on the Nebraska varsity and has been hitting the line from full back until he was changed to tackle recently. Hubka was the shining star of the Husker offense against Iowa this season and has been one of the most dependable (Continued on page 4)

BALLOONISTS WILL SUB FOR TIGERS

Missouri Game Cancelled and Fort Omaha Eleven to Play in Lincoln Saturday

Prices for Extra Home Number Slashed to Fifty Cents and One Dollar

Another plug in the Cornhusker football schedule blew out yesterday when Director Scott received word that the Missouri Tigers could not entertain the Huskers next Saturday at Columbia, on account of the influenza situation at the southern institution.

Coach Kline and Professor Scott, already haggard and worn with the constant strain and worry of running down new opponents on the ever-changing schedule, were tearing their hair until late last night in trying to land an adversary for Saturday. Several schools had sent in bids for a game on that date and out of the handful, the management settled on the Fort Omaha balloon school as the safest bet.

The balloonists have been carrying out a heavy schedule this season and are formidable opponents for the Cornhuskers. They have tackled the Great Lakes Jackies and Wisconsin university and are going to take on the Camp Grant soldiers November 16. Coach Kline got in touch with the Omaha coach over the phone last night and completed arrangements, and the observers are coming down with thirsty men and attempt to clean the Nebraska tribe.

Extra Home Game

Inasmuch as Saturday's conflict was originally supposed to be played down in the "show me" state, the transfer unexpectedly brings a home game to the Cornhusker supporters who have been cheated out of three or four exhibitions by the influenza.

Expenses will be comparatively light and Director Scott has slashed the admission prices to fifty cents, general admission, and $1.00, reserved seats. Fans who have been starving for some football action will at last get a chance to satisfy their hunger, which has been growing for five long weeks.

S. A. T. C. LADS WRITE HUNDREDS OF LETTERS

Student Soldiers Consume More than 3,000 Sheets of Paper Daily

Twenty pounds of Y. M. C. A. stationery equal to 1,500 letters! Is it any wonder that the Y. M. C. A. has printed on all of its stationery the request that the writer help save by using both sides of the paper? If one looks upon stationery from the individual's point of view it is truly a small matter and hardly worthy of consideration, but if looked upon in a more collective way, say from the Y. M. C. A. or supplying end of the game, it is of different proportions.

A Red Triangle worker has stated that here in Lincoln there are used twenty pounds of paper daily to say nothing of envelopes.

This means that six packages of 500 sheets each are used daily, or 3,000 sheets. The average letter consists of two sheets, and from this, one deduces that the boys serving under the flag at Lincoln write something like 1,500 letters per day. This also entails the use of 1,500 envelopes, which are also supplied by the Y. M. C. A.

Over 1,500 Letters Daily

Fifteen hundred letters is quite a number but this is undoubtedly not all the correspondence done by our boys as we have not taken into consideration the use of postal cards nor have we tried to estimate the num-
