HUSKERS VICTORY WAS WELL EARNED

Nebraska Eleven Shows Some Real Speed Against Jayhawkers Last Saturday

Howarth, Jobs and Hubka Claim High Honors For Their Stellar Playing

The Jayhawkers' decisive drubbing at the hands of the Cornhuskers last Saturday against such adverse conditions looms up as time goes by and shows the Huskers in true proportions. It was a great exhibition on the part of the Nebraska eleven and too much praise cannot be given them.

They have been coming up in every game so far this season and they promise to surpass any past achievements when they squat down opposite the soldiers from Camp Dodge, next Saturday on the Lincoln gridiron.

Harry Howarth's spectacular exhibition of returning Kansas punts excels anything seen on Nebraska field for many moons. Again and again, he caught the slippery oval and slipped through the Jayhawk forwards which were bearing down upon him and recovered the territory lost on the kick. One time he ducked under the arms of two Kansas players just as they were about to nab him and on he went splashing through the defense and was downed only after he had covered 30 or 40 yards. Howarth's generalship at quarter-back was superb and the attacks he planned seldom failed to add a few more acres to Nebraska territory.

Hubka Up to Standard
Captain Erney Hubka lived up to the reputation he has been building up from the first of the season and played his usual hard, consistent game. Although stationed at the tackle position, he was called upon to carry the ball eighteen times and in those times he advanced fifty-seven yards into enemy territory. He booted all the punts for Nebraska on top of his other duties and each one was good for thirty or more yards. The Jayhawkers were regular jokes when they came to returning his kicks, too. Several times the Kansas man was downed in his very tracks and never did he get away for any material gains.

FIFTY BOYS WILL FEAST AT SUNDAY EVENING BANQUET

Fifty boys will be carried back to the good old days before the war when they seat themselves around the banquet board on Sunday evening. All the dreamed-of perfections of the culinary art that have been denied so long can be indulged in without the slightest compunction on the part of the favored lads. They are to be treated as kings, and the savory dishes that are in the plan now, later to become concoctions such as one hears the gods are wont to feast upon, will satisfy all the cravings and longings of the "bean and spaghetti counter" haunter. He will be "fed up" for once.

Dr. Carter of the War Camp Community Service has been notified that four gentlemen living at the Lincoln hotel would like to have fifty boys sent to them for Sunday evening dinner at the hotel. The Garden Room has been engaged and a sumptuous feast ordered. The boys will be selected from the S. A. T. C. by the commandant and at six o'clock will sit down to a real dinner. Arrangements have been made for several interesting numbers in the way of entertainment, and a general good time aside from the "eats" are in store for the guests.

SENIOR CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS FOR SEMESTER

The first meeting of the senior class was held in Law 101 last Tuesday at 11 o'clock, the purpose being for the election of minor officers. It resulted in the following:
Vice-PresidentHelen Doty
SecretaryEllnor Bennett
TreasurerHelen Dill
Sergeant-at-ArmsEvelyn Black

MUSICAL CLUB WILL ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS

The Euterpean Musical club, a musical society of the Lincoln Conservatory of Music, is entertaining twenty-three soldiers at the Army and Navy club rooms in the Elks' building Saturday evening, November 23. Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Newens, Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Lorentz and Mr. and Mrs. Homer K. Compton will be host and hostesses.

FIRST VESPERS HELD IN NEW WOMEN'S HOME

The work of the Y. W. C. A. in foreign lands was the chief topic of discussion at the girls' vespers Tuesday, the first in the new girls' home. A large number of new girls were present at the meeting.

On the program was a solo by Margaret Perry and a reading from Kipling by Ethel Hartley. The subject, "Foreigners in America," was discussed by True Jack. "The Needs of South America" were brought out by Marjorie Barstow and those of China and Japan were mentioned by Ruth Sheldon. Helen Doty talked on the work of the Y. W. C. A. in India. Nelda Grove spoke on the work in Korea.

Martha Hellner led a discussion on the work of the Y. W. C. A. in France and Russia. She brought out the great needs of helping the war-worn countries now that the armistice has been declared.

Next week a Thanksgiving service will be held at regular vespertime. New members are particularly urged to be present.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE AT TEMPLE TONIGHT

At 6:30 tonight at the Temple theatre Miss Brown will give an illustrated lecture on her impressions of Russia. Miss Brown has only recently completed a tour of the world and the Y. M. C. A. is indeed fortunate in having her here. She has spent much time the last few months in Russia and has taken many pictures there which she will show here. Every soldier is welcome and the time is suited so as to not interfere with study periods.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION APPEALS FOR MEMBERS

The Woman's Athletic association wants every Nebraska girl to become a member.

It is a live wire organization in charge of university girls who want fair competitive athletic sports for women. It is part of a strong national organization and admits to membership by a standard point system based on athletic merit. Association girls who win the required number of points are awarded the official "N" sweater.

Some of the sports promoted by the W. A. A. are soccer, basketball, baseball, swimming, tennis, hiking, and track. W. A. A. points are awarded the girls who are chosen for these teams. We are playing soccer now, come to practice and try out for the team. Our weekly hikes are open to every girl in college, sign for one on the poster on the bulletin board in the Armory.

Hasten Victory. GIVE DOUBLE.

BASKET FLIPPERS WILL MEET TODAY

Candidates to Meet in Basement of Armory This Afternoon at 2:30

Four Veterans to Form Foundation for Invincible Husker Quintet

A loud clear blast from Captain Jackson's ol' brass trumpet sounds today for his basketball clan to gather for the first pow-wow of the year and plan the winter campaign against the big game lurking in the Missouri valley jungles.

All basketball enthusiasts will congregate in the basement of the Armory this afternoon from 2:30 to 3:30 and every man who has ever skinned his knees on a basketball floor is urged to show up at the meeting. Two more numbers yet remain on the Huskers' football card, Camp Dodge and Notre Dame, and then the king of winter sports will mount the throne. Court gossip has it that he will have an eventful reign, conquering all comers and annexing new trophies.

Three Letter Men Back

Three old letter men, Jackson, Hubka and Adkins and possibly Schellenberg, will be on hand to form the foundation for the quintet, and practice will commence next week. Equipment is on the way and practice will be staged in the city auditorium or the Y. M. C. A. floor until the university gymnasium, now used as quarters for Company D, is cleared of cots.

An attractive schedule is in the making and it includes some good out-of-town trips.

JUNIOR CLASS WILL GIVE HOP SATURDAY

Party Will Be Initial Event Given By Classes of University

The junior informal hop to be given on Saturday evening, November 23, at the Lincoln hotel, is the first big social event to be given by any of the classes of the university. Plans have been under way for the last two weeks, and it was announced last evening by the chairman of the committee, that a happy time was in store for all juniors on Saturday night.

The hop is being given under the supervision of Glen Hopkins, chairman, and Chas. Stretton, master of ceremonies, of the committee. They are assisted by the following members of the hop committee: Janet Thornton, Alice Temple, Patricia Maloney, Herman Thomas, Harold McMahon, Harold Mathews, and Alice Sedgwick. Tickets go on sale today, and can be gotten from any of the above students. Only seventy-five tickets have been validated at the students activities' office, and if anyone hopes to obtain a ticket, it will be necessary to see one of the committee today.

Owing to the war situation, it was decided the custom in former years to make the junior formal the big event of the year, and because it is not possible to give the formal this year, the members of the class are devoting all their efforts to making the dance on Saturday night the best possible under the circumstances.

A CABLE FROM A HUSKER "OVER THERE"

I'm sending this from a German sentry post in a German trench. I'm using a German telephone instrument with a "Made in Munich" stamp on it. I'm standing ankle deep in German mud and of kulture sort, and once in a while, when my feet get cold, I cuss in German. Just as I placed the receiver to my ear, preparatory to sending this, a Yank from Yonkers passed with a broad grin on his face and a plundered German helmet on his head. I'm smoking a German cigarette, and the monogram in gold letters on the corp tip, is that of a German lieutenant. An English speaking German orderly just brought the glad news of Nebraska University going over the top in the United War Work drive. With all these German instruments at my command, I'm enabled to send a rousing American THANK YOU!

Excellence is never granted to a man, but as the result of labor.—Sir Joshua Reynolds.

NEW INITIATES FOR BLACK MASQUE NAMED

Helen Kendall, '19, of Superior, and Professor Sarka Hrbkova, head of the department of Slavonic languages, were initiated into Black Masque, senior honorary society, yesterday.

Miss Hrbkova was elected honorary member of Black Masque last spring at the annual Black Masque election, but on account of war work which she was doing at the time she was unable to be in the city at the spring initiation.

Helen Kendall, a senior in the Arts and Science college, has been active in W. S. G. A. and is a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, and has taken a prominent part in campus war work. She was elected to fill the vacancy left by Marian Wyman, who was one of the thirteen chosen last Ivy Day. Miss Wyman is taking nurses' training at the university hospital in Omaha this year and does not expect to return to school.

DRAMATIC CLUB WILL HOLD TRYOUTS FRIDAY

Dramatic club tryouts will be held in the Temple theatre Friday evening, November 22, from seven to nine-thirty o'clock. All students wishing to tryout are asked to re-register in "U" hall 106, before five o'clock Thursday.

Because of the football game Saturday afternoon, the time of meeting had to be set forward one day.

STUDY SUPERVISORS APPOINTED FOR ARMY

Lieutenant William G. Murphy announced yesterday that five special instructors had been appointed as supervisors during study hours. The men appointed follow:

Clark E. Mickey.
George W. Hood.
J. C. Rankin.
Allan H. Stubbs.
John P. Sennong.

CONVOCATION

"Woman's Place in the New Democracy," is the title of the convocation address by Miss Lutia Stearns tomorrow at eleven in the Temple, in place of "Opportunities for Educated Women in War Work," as was announced in Monday's paper. This talk is concerning a vital problem of the day and everybody should be there.

CAPT. MACIVOR LEAVES S. A. T. C.

Nebraska Commandant Resigns From Army and Goes at Once to Washington

Captain Leslie G. Drake is Appointed to Take Charge of the Detachment

Captain Edmund J. MacIvor, commanding officer of the University of Nebraska, S. A. T. C., since its organization, received a telegram yesterday morning that his application for resignation from the army had been accepted by officials at Washington and would take effect immediately.

Within an hour after the receipt of word regarding his resignation, the former captain was en route to Washington where he will step from the ranks of Uncle Sam's forces into civilian life.

Successor to MacIvor Arrives

Captain Leslie G. Drake, successor to Captain E. J. MacIvor, arrived at the University yesterday, and assumed his duties immediately as commander of all the troops stationed at the Nebraska University. Captain Drake comes from Ellsworth College, Iowa City, Iowa, at which place he has acted as commanding officer since the organization of S. A. T. C. He received his commission at the second Fort Harrison officers' training camp.

Word that Captain MacIvor had left was passed from one man to another last evening, few realizing that they might never see their former commandant because of his resignation from the army. In view of the fact that he had announced Monday evening that reports of his leaving were unfounded, his sudden departure comes as a complete surprise to his many friends in the Cornhusker camp.

A communication received by the former commandant last week announced that another captain was to be assigned to this unit, but it was expected that Captain MacIvor would continue as commandant.

Leaves Unexpectedly for Washington
Announcement was made at army headquarters that Captain MacIvor had left in such haste that formal announcement of his departure was impossible. The fact that the new commander arrived only a few hours prior to the receipt of word from Washington is regarded as a very singular fact. Whether or not he was aware of the fact that he was to be chief executive of all the troops stationed here is also a matter of conjecture.

"Present plans contemplate the indefinite carrying on of the S. A. T. C. program," said Captain Drake last evening. "Also the same policy with regard to strict discipline and soldierly conduct as has been carried on by Captain MacIvor will be pursued by the present commandant."

The fitter the fighter, the faster the finish.

We Must Finish Job of Canning W. Hohenzollern

Now that Will Hohenzollern (he's common enough to be called that) is in "Dutch," as it were, drastic action must be taken regarding his disposition. A few suggestions are in order, and in our humble way, we tender them.

To-wit:
—That he be caged and sent on a tour of the United States under the exclusive direction of Ringling Bros.
—That the tour shall include each city, town, hamlet, and cross-roads (Continued on page three)
