A FRAT FRAZZLE

When ya journey off to college,
 An' yer rush'd to join a frat,
 Yer kind a undecided
 Till ya find out where yer at,
 A dozen crazy Rah-Rah scabs
 Will meet ya at the station,
 An' chuck ya into taxicabs
 To rouse yer fascination.
 They take ya to their fussy home,
 An' brag with all their might,
 Then about the place ya roam
 An' drink in every sight.
 An' when you've killed the evening meal
 At the settin' o' th' sun,
 Ya start to write yer dad a speal,
 An' the lines will thusly run:

Dear Pop:
 I struck this town at noon today,
 It's half-past seven now,
 I've got a million words to say,
 But I can't quite figure how.
 At one o'clock they burnt my back;
 By two I thought I'd choke;
 At three they hit my head ker-whack,
 I thought I'd surely croak;
 At four o'clock they pinch'd my ears
 An' nose an' arms an' legs!
 At five o'clock I bought the beers
 An' joined the TAPPA KEGGS.

DAILY DIARY RHYMES

By
 Gayle Vincent Grubb

"THE BLACKSMITH"
 You've heard of the village blacksmith
 With his arms as strong as bands;
 Whether iron or rubber it matters not,
 And with all he had sinewy hands.
 As the world of blacksmiths moves along,
 With a million different kinds;
 I have chanced to meet the latest, to date,
 And the news will sharpen your minds.
 Picture a delicatessen store,
 With the sweetmeats everywhere;
 Then imagine a blacksmith, rough and gruff,
 And imagine his duty there.
 Do you give it up? I figured as much,
 For you'd fall in a hundred tries;
 'Cause a blacksmith, my dear, in such a resort,
 Is the man who shoes the flies.

ALUMNI

Leo J. Gude, ex-'20, arrived in Vladivostok with the first shipment of troops there. He wrote the following letter to Miss Chaikin, the alumni secretary:
 Vladivostok, Siberia,
 September 26, 1918.
 Dear Alumni and Students of the University of Nebraska:
 Arrived here on the first boat load and like it fine. George Follings, pre-med '20, and I are the only U. of N. men here as far as I have been able to locate.
 Best wishes from George and me for a very successful year for the University of Nebraska.
 Sincerely,
 Leo J. Gude, ex-'20.

HUSKERS' VICTORY WAS WELL EARNED

brand of football throughout the entire engagement. When the individual players were all smeared with mud until none could be distinguished from another, a figure would dart away to the right or plunge through the line and when he would extricate himself from the mire and take his place in the back field again, it would invariably prove to be Jones. He rolled up the largest total of yards gained by any player in a Nebraska game this season, totaling 72 yards out of nineteen chances at lugging the ball.

New Men Show Speed

The men who were plucked from the second string to fill the gaps left by McMahon and Schellenberg showed up like veterans and did some brilliant work. Time and again, Fullback Hartley was called upon to carry the ball and he was always good for a substantial gain. He made thirty-two yards out of thirteen times he was entrusted with the pigskin.
 Reynolds, Swanson and Lantz bob up for their share of the praise and a goodly amount is due them. Swanson at right end put over two of the three touchdowns earned by Nebraska and covered twenty-five yards with the ball.
 Lyman, Neumann, Martin and in fact all the eleven men did their share in ducking the Jayhawkers.

STYLE HEADQUARTERS

Where Society Brand Clothes

The Waist Seam Suit

UNIQUE style and unusual smartness are qualities of the Waist Seam Suit which we offer now for the consideration of the man who uses good taste and careful judgment in buying his clothes.

The waist seam gives it distinction and a smartness that is military—an appropriate design in these times.

Besides, there is the Society Brand label as a guarantee of its correctness in style, and of the hand tailoring which assures you that its style is permanent.

with a population of one or more persons.
 —That upon arriving at a point, the inhabitants of that point, shall have previously selected the huskiest blacksmith in their midst and instructed him to arm himself with a twenty-six pound hammer, with a view toward delivering as many blows as there are service stars in said points'

service flag. (If this fails to impress the erstwhile majestic dome—compel him to drink a sour lemonade disguised as a glass of Heidelberg beer. The disappointment will, in all probability, prove too great for him.)
 The above suggestions are our own. You are asked to submit your idea of how he could be tortured unmercifully each day of a ninety-nine year existence. All such ideas should be written plainly on one side of the paper and mailed to the editor of the sheet. That person will award the latest model clipper for clipping hair from coconuts to the person submitting the best suggestion.
