BRIEF BITS OF NEWS

Legislative League to Meet—The Legislative Ladies' league will meet in the Art Gallery Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Professor Dann will talk on Carol Beckwith's exhibition, which will remain here until the first of March, when it goes to the Peru State Normal school.

The School of Fine Arts is getting ready for an exhibit of pictures of state capitol buildings. Reliable pictures of the capitol building of every state in the Union and possibly other public buildings will compose the collection. This is being done to be of assistance in shaping ideas for our own new capitol.

Menorah Reorganized—The Menorah society met Sunday evening, February 16, at the Women's Building. The society is a national organization among the universities and was revived here by Mathias Levenson, who acted as temporary chairman. The aims of the organization are to study Jewish history, literature, and ideals, and to follow up closely the present development in Palestine.

The following officers were elected: President, Maurice Margolin; vice president, Mathias Levenson; secretary, Ethel Katz; treasurer, Edward Kushner.

Professor Alexis in his welcome address to the organization urged the members to make a special study of their Hebrew ancestry as their special gift to civilization. The rest of the evening was spent in playing games.

Y. W. C. A. to Serve Today
The Y. W. C. A. will serve hot chocolate today at 12 o'clock at the Woman's Hall. It is hoped that the girls will get better acquainted with the comforts of the building. The price per cup will be 5 cents.

IN DAYS GONE BY

Nine Years Ago Today
Fifty delegates attended the annual convention of the Nebraska Y. M. C. A. at Wesleyan University.

Four Years Ago Today
Two hundred and fifty students of the College of Agriculture inspected the stock yards at South Omaha.

Three Years Ago Today
It was announced that baskets containing fruit, sandwiches and chocolate would be left at all fraternity houses each night at 10 o'clock. People could take what they wanted and leave the money in the baskets. The proceeds and the surplus supplies were to be collected at midnight.

Avery Addresses Farmers' Congress—Chancellor Samuel Avery spoke Monday evening at the Farmers' Congress held at the Castle Hotel in Omaha. His subject was "The Farmer and Reconstruction."

"The World's Greatest Indoor Circus will be given in Robingson Gymnasium by the Women's Athletic Association of Kansas University, April 1," Doris Drought, manager, said today. The animal show will be given on the small floor on the men's side of the gymnasium, the side show on the floor on the women's side, and the gig two-ring circus will progress on the floor upstairs.

The circus is to be given by the W. A. A. for all women of the University. All members of the W. A. A. are admitted free and for those who are not members the admission will be 50 cents. The talent for the circus is to be drawn from the women in the university.
