Old Clothes!

Are more valuable than you might imagine.

To have them properly cleaned, pressed and reaired means they will last a longer time and we make them look like new ones. We sterilize them, too—that helps to prolong their life.

May we call for some of your old clothes?

WHAT PART WILL THE COLLEGE PLAY IN AFTER-WAR RECONSTRUCTION?

attention given to their studies. For the last twenty years, faculties, student bodies and committees have wrangled over intercollegiate athletics, but they have not yet been suppressed because there have been so many other distractions that the faculties have not known which to put down first, and like politicians, they have been content to muddle along with eligibility rules and point systems.

"The college has lost its definiteness of aim. One thing is certain. Unless under the pressure of new times and new standards the college as a non-professional institution will have no place unless its course of study can be justified as convincingly before the world as the courses in our vocational and professional schools, and unless the college can render to the democratic order of tomorrow a service that shall be recognized as essential to the individual and social well-being of man."

Field Trip for Geography Class—The classes in field geography and conservation will spend most of the annual spring vacation in the vicinity of South Bend and Louisville, Nebraska. Professors Condra, Rockie, and Wolfanger have charge of this work. Miss Esther Anderson's class in field geography visited the Gooch Milling Company's plant the past week and studied the various processes which are employed in the making of the many wheat products.

STUDENTS VISIT DOCTOR 25,000 TIMES A YEAR

How often does a college student "go to the doctor?"

During the past two years, University of Wisconsin students have made 52,364 visits to the physicians in the university clinic which is maintained for the care of student health, and the doctors made 10,192 visits to sick students at their homes.

During 1916-17, when about 5,000 students were enrolled in the university, 2,114 were given preliminary medical examinations, 4,452 sought medical advice at the clinic, and 679 were cared for in the university infirmary.

During 1917-18, when the enrollment was about 4,100, some 1,740 received preliminary physical examinations, 3,554 went to the doctors for advice, and 650 were cared for in the infirmary.

In addition, 3,782 visits were made and 1,309 students were cared for in the past two summer seasons.
