A determination to popularize several of our best University songs and humor and mystery from the overture to get students to singing them, instead of knowing the names of a dozen or so Ohio State songs but not the words, is being shown by several of our leading campus organizations. They are showing the spirit that will eventually win, but it will take persistence, for a student body that is clearly out of the habit cannot be put in the mind to sing Alma Mater songs over night.

Student Council has announced a sing at the spring for April 23, right after vacation, and every two weeks thereafter until "Bix Six" time. The idea is to make the sings short and snappy, lasting perhaps 45 minutes, and strive to get the large majority
