So it Has Come to This—Girls Advise Chancellor!

Chancellor Avery received the following letter from some students who wished to advise him how to manage the university. He is carefully considering the matter and also the misspelled words used by the authors of the epistle.

Dear Chancellor—
We are a bunch of students and we read a piece in the newspaper last week saying that you were likelp to unite departments that belong together. If you do, why not unite . . . and . . . But under . . . He's the man, is modern in . . . and we like him He's square and accomodating. The girls would like it too. They say there's nothing modern or pleasant left in physical education department and never will be. Now think about this and if you do unite the departments it will please all the students, fellows and girls both.
We'd sign our names, except that we are scared of getting into trouble. The least thing gets us into trouble with your faculty these days—things like taking an interest in the faculty you give us, mostly a bum faculty since the war.

STUDENTS' AEROPLANE IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Upon its first trial flight Tuesday evening, the aeroplane recently purchased by A. D. Zook and Brooks Harding was destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $10,000 and is not covered by insurance.

Lieutenant Ball was piloting the machine at the time of the accident. While the plane was still coasting preparatory to leaving the ground, he glanced back and saw fire coming from the cockpit. He stopped the motor but before any efforts could be made to save it, the machine was enveloped in flames.

A leakage in the gasoline system is said to have been the cause of the fire.

SENNING AND BROADY GIVEN IMPORTANT WORK

University Professors Are Selected to Investigate Political Conditions of State.

Prof. J. P. Senning of the Political Science Department and Prof. J. H. Broady of the Law College have been appointed by the Supreme Court of Nebraska to act on the board of five commissioners which will investigate the political conditions of the state which need remedying and be prepared to make recommendations to the Constitutional Convention which convenes in Lincoln next December.

Other members of this commission are: Victor Rosewater, editor of the Omaha Bee; Ashton C. Shallenberger, ex-governor of Nebraska, 1909-11; and Chas. E. Sandall, senator from York, session of 1917-18. During the summer the commission will travel over the country to study the progress which other states have made in constitution making. The present constitution of Nebraska was made in 1875 and has not kept abreast of the times and the convention next December will attempt to bring it up to date.

The election last November decided that there would be a constitutional convention but it remained to the legislature to frame the machinery which would set the wheels in motion. The session which recently adjourned passed a bill giving the Supreme Court the power to appoint the investigative

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS SCORE BIG SUCCESS

Present "She Stoops to Conquer" to Large Audience Last Evening.

The university players presented "She Stoops to Conquer," by Oliver Goldsmith, their second public production of the year, Wednesday evening in the Temple theatre to a large and attentive audience.

George Bushnell as Young Marlow played the leading role with fine understanding and originality. Marguerite Mulvihill who played the part of Miss Hardcastle and Margaret Howes who was in the role of her mother both did excellent work.

The part of Mr. Hardcastle which was played by Rudolph Sandstedt was probably the best sustained part of any and Eliza Fogelson in his well executed role of Tony Lumpkin, the spoiled son, supplied the humorous note to the play.

Mae Moritz as Miss Neville, Cable Jackson as Hastings, Mark Johnson as Sir Charles Marlow played splendid supporting parts and the rest of the cast was splendidly filled by Albert Jonda, Helen Holtz, Alvin Sandstedt, George Hearn, Louis Finkelstein, Richard Johnson and Ralph Dickinson.

The play was given under the direction of Miss Maryott and Miss Ethel Hartley. The action throughout was good and the atmosphere was lost only in a couple of instances.

The players are at a disadvantage on account of the inadequacy of the scenery and properties.

SATURDAY IS GALA DAY FOR SPEED MEN

Greatest All University Track Tournament Ever Held on Cornhusker Field.

Entries Must Be In by 6 O'clock This Evening—Medals to Winners.

Preparations for the combination inter-class, interfraternity, and all-university track meet Saturday are now complete, and it will be by far the largest event of its kind ever held in this part of the country. All entries must be turned in at Coach Stewart's office by six o'clock this evening. The ruling made by the Interfraternity Athletic Association that each Greek organization must have at least ten entries or stand a penalty will be rigidly enforced and all contestants will be checked off at the beginning of the race.

Gold medals will be given for first place in each event and bronze for second, third and fourth. Each man's score will count for himself individually, for his class, and for his fraternity. The "N" Club has taken charge of the meet in the absence of Coach Stewart and will direct the entire affair. The time schedule of events as they will be run off is listed below. Look it over, choose your events and be sure and have the entries in by six o'clock.

FRESHMEN CONSCRIPTION FOR PARTY STARTS TODAY

Every First Year Student Will Be Expected to Purchase Tickets.

Every student in the Freshmen class will be drafted within the next ten days to participate in the big Get-to-Gether which will be held in the Armory, Saturday night, May 3, operations start this morning. A drag net will be thrown over the campus by a corps of ticket sellers who are expecting to get every person in the class of '22. Thirty-five cents will buy a license for admittance to the party.

The Freshmen mixer is a well established tradition in the university and is responsible for promoting more spirit among the first year students than any other event. Plans were made last semester for a party, but owing to the rigid censorship of the military regime on social activities, were cancelled. The normal circumstances of this semester have made it possible to stage the party.

The fore part of the evening will be devoted to a very novel entertainment which has never before been presented in Lincoln. The remainder of the program will be topped off with dancing and eats. The Get-to-Gether will undoubtedly be the biggest social event of the year for the class of '22.

SIX R. O. T. C. COMPANIES REORGANIZED WEDNESDAY

The R. O. T. C. at the university was completely reorganized Wednesday evening at the usual drill hour. Companies were formed according to height, and new instructions were given the cadets by the commanding officers. Each man has a permanent place in the ranks now and he should remember this and fall in as he did Wednesday evening from now on until the end of school.

Films will be shown any student who is interested Thursday evening, April 24th, at the Temple. They will deal with machine guns now used by the government.

Is the athletic spirit dead at N. U.? Coach Stewart answers the question

The Student Should Know--

The Black Masques is a senior honorary organization among the women students corresponding to the Innocents among the men. It is the oldest and most prominent senior girls' society in the university. It was founded in 1904, by 13 senior girls. Alice Towne Dewesse was the first president. Their aim is to form a club of the most active girls of the senior class to take a part in senior affairs. They also encourage a greater school spirit. The senior girls each spring choose thirteen junior girls for membership the next year. This list is subject to change by the faculty or by the present Black Masques.

Every year they conduct the Freshmen girls' convocation. The presidents of each of the various girls clubs, give speeches at this meeting. The Black Masques along with the Innocents have charge of Ivy Day. They also preside over the election of the May Queen.

The active Black Masques this year are: Sarah Helter, president; Genevieve Bechter, vice-president; Helen Minor, secretary-treasurer; Eliza Gambol, Ruth Welch, Katherine Newbranch, Helen Doty, Hannah McCorkindale, Elinor Bennet, Gwendolyn Drayton, Dorthy Pettis, Helen Kendall and Katherine Kohl.

CAMPAIGN FOR HUSKER YELL RENEWED

A life pass to all athletic events at the University of Nebraska has been offered to the person who submits the best acceptable Husker song or yell.

Nebraska is sadly deficient in good yells and songs. Kansas and other Missouri Valley schools are noted for theirs.

Nebraska has been for years the acknowledged leader in valley football and at present her track team is winning national laurels.

Student enthusiasm among Nebraska students is now at its highest. This was evidenced by the fact, that in a last-minute spurt, students raised 800 dollars to send the track team to the Pennsylvania relays.

A rousing new yell or song at this time would do much to increase and perpetuate this growing spirit.

The "N" club has asked for offerings within two weeks. Nebraska wants a new yell this year.
