reveals the images of the great military conquerors and despots, who have affficted mankind. In an elaborate tableau will be shown the captive in chains, sunk in despair, from whence Freedom lifts him up. In Scene II, "Rule Britannia" is followed by the appearance of the Sibyll, come to announce the representation of the first great step in the development of free government the post schools. Beaune has 6,000 -the signing of the Magna Charta by King John of England, at Runnymede, in 1215.

Scene III depictts the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776. "Yankee Doodle" and the Spirit of 1776 announce the birth of the daughter, Major Ross, her husband, United States as the next great step i nthe history of freedom. The Colonial dancers, trained by Mrs. Charlottte Whedon-Scott, who first enter, symbolize the life of the pre-Revolutionary America.

Next is shown the "Signing of the Declaration" while the Sibyll repeats the words of the great document. The Declaration of Independence thus made, is greeted by a jubilant chorus:

Scene V tells of the wonders of Joan of Arc and the great contribution of Lafayette to the cause of freedom. In all men's minds the Spirit of France during the French revolution in 1789 is clearly called up by the image of Joan of Arc, now shown with her sacred banner of the Annunciation. In this scene the Spirit of France enters, with the red, white and blue of the French republic. With

This tag day gives every Cornhusker a chance to prove his spirit. The sudden call for funds to send the team to the Penn Relays was met solely by the fraternities and sororities. This call must be answered by the whole campus.

Each fraternity and sorority has pledged to, through their Silver Serpent and Viking representative, to give 100 per cent, one dollar per member. The Silver Serpents will sell the tags on the campus while the Vikings will solicit the Lincoln business men and alumni. Buy that tag today and send a happy track team to Minnesota tomorrow!!!

DEAN BURNETT PLEASED WITH NEW WORK ABROAD

With A. E. F. University at Beaume.

Chancellor Samuel Avery received Heralds... Chas. Gillilan, Robt. Moodle the following letter from Dean Edgar A. Burnett of the Agricultural College who is now, stationed at the University at Beaune. Dean Burnett was given a leave of absence from Nebraska and sailed for France about February:

BEAUNE, France, A. P. O. 909, A. E. F., University, April 16 .- My Dear Chancellor: Since landing at St. tor. Nabare, France, about three weeks ago I have had several new experiences and have been traveling so much that I have neglected my friends at home.

I landed March 21 and went to Paris the same night, spending five days in getting the necessary papers to travel. I was assigned to the A. E. F. University at Beaune where I spent a few days before going out on the road. The school buildings are all hospital barracks with concrete floors and concrete and tile walls MISS DRAKE TO LEAVE about 24x100 feet long, laid out in wards with regular system. These bulidings are cut up for classrooms, offices, library, billets, etc., and while not elaborate make very good temporary quarters. Language-mostly French and English, history, math. science, agriculture, and chemistry make up the courses. Professor Fogg seems to have a very good college of journalism. He has just ordered a printing press from Paris and I think will print a newspaper.

The agricultural work was quite well organized when I arrived. It consists of college instruction to 600 men at Beaune and secondary work 49th Base Hospital was located. Sees Famous Battlefields

I had the privilege of making an inspection trip with President Riggs week before last, going by auto from Beaune to Chanmonth, Toul, St. Mehiel, Verdun, Luxembourg, Diekirsch, just north of Luxembourg, and back through Metz to Beaune, a distance of 600 miles. We saw some of the worst of the battlefields of St. Mehiel and Verdun but in coming N. E. tthrough Eitain did not go past

Rumors of Sneak Day Leads to Wild Race for Seniors

Premature rumors that the annual senior sneak day had been reinstated in place of the reception which Chancellor Avery had substituted, according to announcement, led to many exciting chases in quest of prominent seniors last night.

Fraternities and sororities began early in the evening to capture all senior members to prevent a possible outing on the regular Crete picnic

Seniors who escaped the wiles of underclassmen provided excitement for the evening. Katharyn Howey evading the clutches of vigilant juniors escaped from the Delta Gamma house and throughout the evening was the object of a pursuing party. Other upperclassmen were included and mid- Striggins. night rides produced an equal number Mrs. Striggins. of captured seniors, escaped seniors, Mr. DuBois. and cars out of gas.

Whether today is senior sneak day Anna Marie. or merely another clever ruse of the Mrs. Ratan. upperclassmen remains to be seen.

Bar vault, 4 feet, 1 point, 4 feet 6 inches, 2 points, 4 feet 9 inches, 3 points.

Many Features

With the suggested rules for conducting the meet rapidly and efficiently it should not take more than an hour to complete it, according to the committee. No spiked shoes will be allowed and other uniformities of equipment will be required. Many features which will add to the speed of competition have been suggested, in the dash as many as twenty men will be run at one time with a judge for each lane who determines where his runner finishes.

Dr. Clapp feels that the contest will create a great deal of interest and the event will become an important annual occurrence in many colleges. Dr. Clapp is a member of the advisory basketball rules committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and has been chosen on the regular wrestling committee which has been created this year and of which L. M. Evans of Indiana is the chairman and L. C. Schroeder of the Springfield Training School is the other member.
