STUDENT COUNCIL TAKES REINS

Student Governing Body Announces Rulings On Dances and Complimentary Tickets

Declares Cheating, Cribbing and Dishonesty is on the Increase at University

Condemning the alleged misuse of the complimentary ticket privilege for class and university organization dances and extravagance in the management of these parties, the student council adopted resolutions at its regular meeting Thursday evening intending to overcome this evil. Declaring that cribbing, cheating, and dishonesty has reached a deplorable state in the university, the council will an effort to stop the practice by appealing to the student body.

The maximum price for class or university parties was fixed at not over $1.50 exclusive of war tax and the number and people to whom complimentary tickets can be issued are determined. The resolutions, which constitute the first authoritative action taken by the council since its organization, follow:

"Be it resolved that, due to the alleged bad practices and unnecessary extravagance of the members of dance committees in the past, the student council of the University of Nebraska shall regulate the informal parties of the class and college organizations or the school to the following extent:

"1. The maximum price for admission per couple shall be one dollar and fifty cents not including the war tax.

"2. There shall be but one complimentary ticket issued to each member of a committee and the president of the organization, with a maximum of eight tickets. There shall be but one complimentary ticket issued by the student activities office to each chaperon and designated as such.

"3. Any question as to definition of terms or organizations to which this ruling applies, shall be referred to the student council for settlement.

Wants Student Opinion

"Be it resolved that the student council exert an effort to get an expression from the student body as to a resolution of the present deplorable conditions on the campus with regard to cribbing, cheating and dishonesty in general.

The council took these steps only after having obtained the consensus of opinion of students through consultation and articles contributed to the Daily Nebraskan.

HUSKERS PLAN TO DEFEAT OKLAHOMA

Gridiron Battle With Team From the South in Omaha Now Center of Interest

Nebraska Not Discouraged Over Defeat at Hands of Hoosiers Begin Practice for Sooners

Notre Dame came and conquered. The Hoosiers came with the expectation of conquering the Huskers by a much larger tally than fourteen points. The local warriors are far from being discouraged over their stiff opposition made against the Easterners last Saturday. To be defeated by a narrow margin of five points by one of the most powerful aggregations is not a disgrace or a humiliation.

The 97-yard sensational run down the field by Bergman was phenomenal. The trick proved a success but the Huskers strained every tendon to down the fleeing Dutchman. The campus dope which runs largely to alibi is that if the first thirty seconds of the fracas had not given access to such a play the final count might have resulted with Scarlet and Cream on top. The victorious Catholics are rapidly paying the way to their long anticipated trip to California's balmy clime. The success of last Saturday will undoubtedly enable Notre Dame to trample West Point which is recognized as Notre Dames second hardest contest.

Oklahoma Next

Coach Schulte and his battle-scarred heroes were on the field early in the afternoon eager to strengthen the various departments in the Husker machine. All eyes are turned to the southland—upon the Oklahoma Sooners who are slated to collide with Cornhuskers on Creighton field at Omaha. This will be the first

GENEVA CONFERENCE AT VESPERS TODAY

The Geneva conference is the subject of the program which will be presented at vespers in Art hall at five o'clock this afternoon. Janet Maitland will lead.

Seven delegates represented the University of Nebraska Y. W. C. A. at Lake Geneva last summer. These girls will speak.

Girls who have not been favored with a trip so delightful or so educational are looking forward to the program with interest. The girls who represented the University of Nebraska at Lake Geneva are expected likewise to represent the Geneva conference at Lincoln.

RADIUM EXPERT TELLS OF USES OF PRECIOUS ELEMENT

Mr. H. N. McCoy of Chicago spoke to the students of the chemistry department Monday afternoon on "Radium and Radio Activities." Mr. McCoy passed through Lincoln on his way home from the west and the faculty prevailed upon him to speak to the students. Classes were dismissed so that everyone could attend the lecture who had chemistry at that hour.

Mr. McCoy described the radium paint that is used to illuminate the figures on watches, clocks and compasses. He mentioned that the dials of various sorts of airplanes are illuminated by radium paint. He spoke of an interesting example of its value in the war. It seems that the Americans conceived the idea of sending out scouts across "no man's land" who painted the post of the barbed wire entanglements with the paint. They then trained machine guns on the spot. When night came the place shown brightly and whenever a German crossed in front of the place he was showered with machine-gun bullets. It took the enemy a good while to catch on to the trick.

The use of radium in the medical world was touched upon briefly by Mr. McCoy. He said that radium acts upon all tissue but, as in the case of cancer, it affects only the diseased tissue and has no effect upon the healthy tissue.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLANS TRYOUTS

Yearling Opportunity for Those Interested in Dramatics to Join Organization

The annual tryouts for the University Dramatic club will be held in the Temple Theater Thursday evening, October 30. Anyone in the university registered for 1. hours or more of work, is eligible for the try out and is urged to register for them with Miss Alice Howell in room 101 of the Temple building.

The dramatic club has been organized at the university for a great many years and keeps its membership at capacity by these yearly tryouts. The club has quarters on the third floor of the Temple building by rights extended to it for money raised when the building was planned. It has a complete and long established organization and is represented yearly on university night and on the university extension week program. The annual tryouts attract large numbers of students, from which the necessary number are selected from those showing the most promise. Three minutes are allowed to each person with five minutes for two people trying out together. It is desired that as many as possible try out in double parts, working with another contestant. Scenes from plays in which the person has taken part or in other plays which can be secured either from the dramatic department Dramatic club

SPECIAL STUDENT TRAIN TO OMAHA

Round Trip Tickets to Oklahoma Game Now On Sale at Student Activities Office

Omaha Plans Welcome to All University People Who Journey to the Game Saturday

All university students who expect to go to Omaha Saturday, October 25th, to attend the Nebraska-Oklahoma battle, are urged to buy their round-trip railroad tickets at the student activities office, beginning Tuesday afternoon, October 21. Every student should get his ticket immediately in order that the size of the special train may be accurately determined. The price of round trip tickets will be $3.56.

The special train for the metropolis will leave Lincoln at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, and will leave the Burlington station in Omaha at 12:30 a. m. Sunday. Nearly one thousand students will probably board the "Nebraska Special."

Football tickets for the double-header at Omaha are on sale now at Ticker and Shean's jewelry store. A section will be reserved for students, and this will enable university men and women to "yell" as well as they did last Saturday, when Nebraska field seemed too small to hold the sounding notes of the new chant.

A charge of $2.00 and $2.50 will be made for tickets to the reserved student section.

WORK ON THE 1920 CORNHUSKER HAS ALREADY BEGUN

Harold Gerhart, editor of the 1920 Cornhusker, states that work has already begun in earnest on the publication. The contract for the engraving has been signed, and material is being collected now in order that the book may make an early appearance on the campus. In a few days an announcement will be made regarding personal and organization pictures.

The Cornhusker, the year book of the university, will far eclipse all former editions, according to present predictions. The engravings will be especially fine, the different sections, dealing with departmental news, athletics, student activities, and organizations, will be more inclusive and interesting than ever before. The student life section promises to be replete with examples of thrilling adventure and comedy.

Son's Look

Father—"Well, now that you've seen my son, which side of the house do you think he more closely resembles?"

Genial Friend—"H'm—of course, his full beauty is not yet developed, but surely you should not suggest that he looks like the side of a house."

Fugitive Prisoner Hides in Sorority House Coal Bin

Cook Warns Girls of a Man Under House and Police are Called

An escaped prisoner hiding in the coal-bin is the thrill experienced by the occupants of the Alpha Phi house, 1237 R street, Sunday morning. Police officers, summoned by the girls, failed to find the fugitive on first examination. A more thorough search revealed the man crouched in a dark corner of the basement. The intruder proved to be an inmate of the city jail, placed there on a charge of vagrancy.

The cook declares she saw a man dart into the basement door about ten-thirty in the morning. She told the girls, who telephoned the police station. The officers soon appeared. A search failed to bring to light any intruder, but when a next door neighbor insisted she had seen a man enter the basement, the police made a second examination. This time the fugitive was found in a corner of the coal-bin. The erstwhile burglar was taken back to his berth in the jail.

Theodore Roosevelt

Campaign of Nation Wide Interest to Raise $5,000,000 for Memorial

All Will Be Given Chance to Give, No One Will Be Asked to Donate

The Black Masque's are today selling tags to raise the University's quota of the Roosevelt Memorial fund. The tags are selling for ten cents and upwards so that everyone may have a part in honoring the great American.

Three days after the death of Colonel Roosevelt, January 6, 1919, at a meeting held in Chicago, there was authorized the appointment of a Roosevelt Memorial committee which should take upon itself the task of securing a fitting national memorial to the former president. Colonel William Boyce Thompson was named as chairman and men and women, friends and close associates of Colonel Roosevelt, were subsequently selected to form the Roosevelt Permanent Memorial committee.

The campaign is to raise $5,000,000 to build a monument in Washington, D. C. and to preserve the Roosevelt home at Oyster Bay.

The campaign will be different from the typical "drive" in that no one will be urged to contribute against his or her will and no pressure whatever will be brought to bear to secure contributions, either large or small. An opportunity will be offered everyone to contribute to the fund, but the pressure of the recent "drives," when our country was in a state of war, will be absent. This should be a great national free-will gift which shall be burdensome to no one but in which everyone can easily have a share. In pursuance of this policy the goal of the campaign in each community should be numerical as well as financial. It will be the purpose of the campaign to secure millions of contributors for a minimum of $5,000,000. Millions of subscribers to this fund will, in itself, constitute a memorial more fitting than any which can be purchased with the money.

It is the unanimous opinion of the committee that the necessary funds for providing the memorial should be provided by a national free will gift and that every man, woman and child should be given an opportunity to voluntarily express these gratitude and remembrance of the great American who so nobly served his country and his people.

The earnest wish and purpose of those interested in this movement has been from its inception, to remove absolutely all thought of partisanship from the Memorial association. His memory is the common heritage of all Americans. Everyone has an equal right to do him honor and the Roosevelt Memorial association will be conducted in a manner to permit all to exercise that right without reservation or embarrassment.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE IN UNIVERSITY Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. wants every girl to know of the opportunities it offers to members, because the 100 per cent membership campaign begins at the close of vespers this evening.

Every member who wishes to work will be given something to do. The activities range all the way from campus life to the student movement in China.

The social service committee carries on a varied program which includes work in social service centers in Lincoln. The County Poor Farm will be its special field of activity. Girl Reserve and Campfire groups are organized under its direction. Co-operative work is to be carried on in co-operation with church, social and welfare organizations.

Bible study and church affiliation are provided for. The Bible study committee will announce classes later. The church affiliation committee helps the girl away from home to become acquainted in her own particular denomination while in Lincoln.

The Nebraska in China movement gives girls a chance to share in the promotion of world fellowship.

Y. W. C. A. parties, committees and gatherings of all kinds are based upon democratic principles and are the making of life-long friendships.

The vespers held every Tuesday at 5 o'clock inspire Christian thinking.
