

The Daily Nebraskan

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

EDITORIAL STAFF

Howard Murfin	Editor
Laurence E. Slater	Managing Editor
Marian Heaninger	Associate Editor
Carlisle Jones	News Editor
Forrest Estes	News Editor
Sadie Finch	Society Editor
Orvin B. Gaston	Sports Editor

BUSINESS STAFF

Roy Wythers	Business Manager
Earl Coryell	Circulation Manager
Fred Boeking	Assistant Business Manager

Offices: News, Basement, University Hall; Business, Basement, Administration Building.

Telephones: News and Editorial, B-2816; Business, B-2597. Night, all Departments, B-4204.

Published every day except Saturday and Sunday during the college year. Subscription, per semester $1.25.

Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second-class mail matter under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

For This Issue
FORREST ESTES
News Editor

ARMISTICE DAY

Next Tuesday, November 11, will mark the first anniversary of the signing of the armistice. It was a glorious day, a year ago, when we first received the news, a day we can never forget. Would it not be well for the University to pause for a moment and in some manner pay tribute to Nebraska's men who helped bring victory about?

SATURDAY'S PROSPECTS

With the possibility of six regulars being out of the Cornhusker lineup Saturday, prospects are far from bright for a victory over Missouri, but somehow Nebraska is confident that the team will acquit itself with honor. Injuries and hard luck have lowered Nebraska standards, while our opponents are conceded to have a stronger team than usual. But whether we win or whether we lose, it is certain that the Tigers will find themselves pitted against a game Cornhusker team that will fight every minute of the fray.

STAMPING OUT DISHONESTY

Another step in the direction of student self-government will have been taken by the University of Nebraska when the honor system or spirit has been put upon a workable basis. It is incumbent upon each member of the student community not to maintain a mere passive attitude, but rather to take an active part in stamping out dishonesty in its various forms.

The student body governs and criticizes its own conduct and each member of this student body must thoroughly understand that cheating in an examination, in addition to being a detestable act, injurious to the community, is a direct theft of knowledge by one man from the fellow-student at his elbow. Neither party to this joint responsibility ought to fail to live up to the obligations which he has assumed.

No community can assert the right for self-government until its numbers have proved both individually and collectively that they are competent and morally responsible. Honesty is an essential foundation structure for all organizations, and for none more than that composed of students, who should have the highest standards of all.

The system of the past, where each student has been forced to do honest work because his instructors stood over him as a kind of armed guard, and the "monitor system" prevailed in its most odious forms, will be swept away when the individual realizes that he has entered a self-respecting university and that different ideals are to govern his life.

STUDENTS AND WORLD LEAGUES

Regardless of the fate of the present League of Nations covenant, a lasting sentiment has been aroused favoring some similar project to strengthen the ties of brotherhood between nations. International fraternalism has a stronger foundation than ever before. New societies for the promotion of trade, scientific, humanitarian and many other interests throughout the world have been springing up since the close of the war. Objections have been raised only to the form of a league and not to the idea of a society of nations.

Closer international co-operation is approaching steadily, and should the generation now in power fail to establish a workable international organization, it will be the task of the incoming leaders of the world who are now studying that they may be fitted for the job ahead of them.—Ohio State Lantern.

DISCHARGED AND CHARGED

Each June when colleges and schools throughout the country are finishing their terms, the last week is usually taken up with dances and entertainments called "Finales."

Later exercises are held and diplomas given stating that the holders have completed certain courses. Such exercises bear the title of "Commencement."

Why should a ceremony which marks the conclusion of studies, which may never again be taken up, be called by a name signifying beginning, rather than completion as in the other features?

The reason is that the dances and entertainments are really the last which those who attend will take part in as students, while the completion of the school or college course marks the entrance into life, the commencement of responsibilities for which the educational course was but the preparation.

"Diplomas," called more formally Honorable Discharge Certificates, are being given to the largest graduating class in the history of the United States. They certify that the holder has been discharged from a duty well done, but they have a broader significance for a discharge ceremony partakes of a "commencement" as well as of "finales."

No one doubts but that America is now entering upon a period richer in promise than any that have passed. It rests with the men who have worn khaki or blue to insure that the full possibilities of that period are accomplished, for he has had an opportunity to see what America is capable of, to realize what power unified purpose can give, and to become convinced that for him there is no country comparable to his homeland.

Because, therefore he has gained something which can only be fully appreciated by one who has experienced the thrill of "Retreat" or "Colors," there exists an obligation to show others less fortunate how the prosperity and success of the nation and the individual can be advanced by the same spirit.—The Come-Back—Walter Reed Army Hospital.

Society

Friday, November 7
Bushnell Guild—House dance.
Sigma Nu—Informal, Lincoln Hotel.
Delta Tau Delta—House dance.

Saturday, November 8
Junior Law Hop—Lincoln Hotel.
Pi Beta Phi—House dance.
Alpha Sigma Phi—Fall party, Commercial Club.
Pi Phi Om—House dance.

PERSONALS

Frances Hayes, of St. Louis, Missouri, is a guest at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

Lorena Evans, '23, will leave tomorrow for her home in Columbus, where she will spend the week-end.

Rex Roper, '26, will entertain the active chapter of Kappa Sigma at a duck dinner Friday evening.

Julia Miller, '17, and Mabel Anderson, '17, are in Omaha attending the teachers' convention.

Bess O'Rourke, and Bea Heberlee, who have been visiting at the Delta Gamma house, returned Wednesday to their home in Red Oak, Iowa.

Mildred Griggs, '23, is ill at the Lincoln sanitarium.

Helen Van Gilder of Hastings, is a guest of her sister, Davida, at the Alpha Xi Delta house.

Mr. W. A. Crandall, of Lexington, is visiting his sons, Leslie and Howard Crandall, at the Alpha Sigma Phi house.

Irma Wiltsee, '23, is recovering from an attack of infantile paralysis.

Matilda Frankel, '23, has been spending the past few days in Omaha.

Theresa Morrow, ex-'21, and Margaret Harris, both of Alliance, are guests at the Alpha Phi house.

Gretchen Welch, '23, left today for Omaha, where she will spend the week end.

The Redfield exhibition of paintings which is being shipped to the Art Association from New Orleans has been delayed in transit. Consequently the exhibition will not be open to the public until November 15.

WHY GO TO CHURCH?

A series of pulpitorials by Rev. John Andrew Holmes, pastor of the First Congregational church, tell why students,—and others,—should go to church. They will appear, one at a time, in the Daily Nebraskan every Friday.

A MAN WHEN HE IS DEAD

A man when he is dead will ask the pastor to hold a whole service just for him. Yet the same man while he is still alive will ignore several thousand perfectly good services that others would be glad to share with him.

STUDENT OPINION

To the Editor of The Daily Nebraskan—The statement was made yesterday that "We never have noticed any fatalities resulting from attending a mid-week dance." Maybe not, but a few persons' scholarship certainly shows the difference.

Another statement was: "It seems to us that a student truly interested in his work will see that it is done before he makes mid-week engagements, whether dances or otherwise." It is true, of course, we are all so perfect that we see that our work is done before accepting dates. Since when is it necessary to have a delinquent committee, and why is it so overworked?

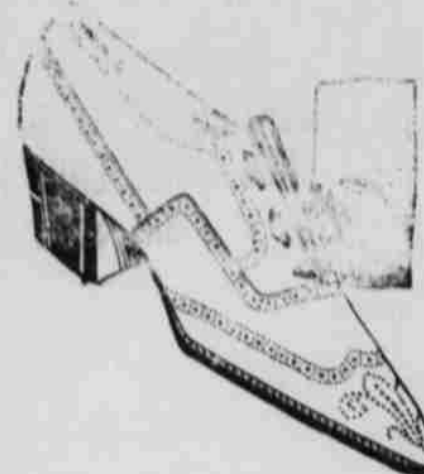

In my mind it is not a matter of a mid-week dance being different from movies or star-gazing, but the difference is that a dance has preference always. A student will accept a dance date when they would not accept a date to attend the movies.

This is an opportunity for the students to decide for themselves a campus problem. Are we going to think of the greatest good for the greatest number, or are we going to selfishly decide for dancing just because we personally are interested?

The dissatisfaction of the voters of the state was also mentioned. Why are they dissatisfied? Where do they get their information? Aren't you the son or daughter of some voter? It would seem to me he had had pretty accurate first-hand information.

We, of course, are strong, and no restriction in regard to our dates are needed, but I wonder about our neighbors sometimes, and wonder just whose example they are following.

If other schools have more stringent rules and don't live up to them, that is ---the young man's oxford

These are "THE THING" for the young man who cares for the newest note in dress. There is a snap and go to them that every young fellow appreciates.

--the Brogue

—with its heavy soles, and many ornamental perforations—with its smart wing tip, its dark tan collar—even the heavy Norwegian grain calf of which it is made—it the smart thing this year.

Oxfords, $15.00

Shoes, $12.00 and $14.00

Imported English Wool Hose

are the "nifty" hose for these smart brogues. There are several mixtures of heather, Ribbed.

Priced $1.75 pair

Miller & Paine

SNAPPY WEATHER

Means exchange from B. D. V's to warmer underwear.

We have foreseen conditions by long advance buying, which enables us to meet your requirements at the price you want to pay.

$1.50 and up

SHAPIRO'S Men's Shop

Formerly
Omaha Hat Factory
1234 O St.
Quality plus value equals satisfaction

CRESTS MONOGRAMS

Acacia
Alpha Tau Omega
Alpha Chi Omega
Beta Theta Pi
Delta Tau Delta
Delta Upsilon
Delta Chi
Delta Delta Delta
Phi Gamma Delta
Kappa Alpha Theta
Phi Delta Theta
Sigma Phi Epsilon
Sigma Chi
Kappa Sigma
Sigma Alpha Epsilon
Many Others

HALLETT

Uni Jeweler
Estb. 1871 1143 O

no reason why the University of Nebraska cannot set a standard.

It is true "no man is so foolish as to attend mid-week dances if he does not feel that he can afford to do so," but nevertheless it is true that you sort of have to impress the girl in order to "get by." To me the point of the whole matter is: Do you or do you not care for the best, most helpful and standard-raising things on the campus?
INTERESTED.

THEY SAY--

"Clothes do not make the man"

But don't try going without them.

Keep them in good shape by
The "ABLE" Process

B2304 "ABLE" 139 No. 14

CLEANERS AND DYERS
"As Good as Any"—"Better Than Many"

Take Advantage of Panor Great November
Business Building

SHOE DRIVE

FOR MEN FOR WOMEN

BARGAINS

PANOR'S

1307 O Sreet