ANNUAL PARTY FOR STUDENTS AND OLD GRADS

The Final Party of the Home-Coming Celebration Gives Chance for Old Men to Meet New

The annual all-university party to be held in the Armory Saturday night will complete the home-coming festivities. This party has become an established tradition in the university and the one to be held Saturday night will probably be the largest one in the history of the school to date.

Every student should actively participate Saturday night, for it will not only mean a splendid time for every student who makes the effort, but in addition will be a wonderful demonstration of Nebraska spirit. If each does his share, the old grads and visitors, who in civilian life today are giving the university its splendid reputation and prestige, will take back an interest to their work that will result in a host of good loyal support for the school. It will show that Nebraska is alive and growing and that more and more university students are to become the dominating factor in the industrial world of today.

Every detail is complete for a most successful party and committee chairman are well satisfied with the spicid results accomplished. Good jazzy music has been arranged, appropriate decorations, a peppery program, and an abundance of refreshments are being planned.

SOPHOMORE COMMITTEE

Dorothy Wolfe, sophomore president has announced the committees for the Sophomore mixer to be held Saturday, November 22 at the Armory. The decoration committee is headed by Fay Clark as chairman. Ben Lake, Elisabeth Scribner, Hesper Bell, Sidney Stewart.

Refreshments—Harriet Ford, chairman; Jean Hudson, Mary Thomas, Herbert Gish, Alfred Isher.

Program and Music—Ruth McKee, chairman; Mildred Gallehon, Marie Prouty, John Fieke, Howard Hammond.

Reception—Donald Ibert, John Lawler, Esther Passoni, Beulah Mills, Eva Galaway.

EARLY NEBRASKAN GRADUATE RETURNS

Mr. W. H. Snell of the class of 1873 of the University of Nebraska from Tacoma, Washington, is in the city. He says that he has a copy of the first Hesperian, the first paper published by the university. He was the second editor of the Hesperian and the first president of the Pallasian society. If J. S. Dales and he attend the Cornhusker party the entire graduating class of 1872 will be present. He called at the alumni office this week and told of the University of Nebraska Alumni Association of western Washington which meets annually. This association includes alumni of Nebraska who live in Seattle, Tacoma, and Bellingham. Mr. Snell was at one time president of the organization and entertained them at his home.

DRAMATIC CLUB WILL ENTERTAIN FOR BESSIE LOVE

The University Dramatic club will entertain in honor of Miss Beattie Love, famous moving picture actress, who is visiting at the home of Governor McKelvie, Thursday evening in the Dramatic club rooms. Miss Love will talk informally of her work in motion pictures and will tell of her experiences.

Governor and Mrs. McKelvie are expected as guests of honor of the club at the meeting. Together with the leading members of the cast of "It Pays to Advertise" and Miss Alice Howell, the governor's party will be entertained at a six o'clock dinner at the home of Josephine Strode, coming from that immediately to the meeting of the Dramatic club.

A number of the new members of the club, recently chosen, will provide the entertainment in a series of cuttings from plays used in their try-outs. The club will meet in its rooms in the Temple building which have just been repaired and cleaned.

BAND MEMBERS

All members of the band are requested to report at the Temple at convocation hour to play for the football rally.

UNIVERSITY LEGION POST IS ORGANIZED

Two Hundred Students Effect Permanent Organization Wednesday Night

Officers Elected and Resolutions Prepared Against Aliens and I. W. W.

Two hundred university ex-service men organized the permanent chapter of the American Legion at a meeting in the Temple theater, Wednesday night, electing permanent officers and making first plans for club rooms, general management and finances.

Luther W. Cobbe, elected post commandant almost without opposition and Ralph W. Wilson was chosen chairman of the executive committee. Charles S. Reed is vice post commandant, John J. O'Brien, post adjutant, Benjamin Huntington, post treasurer and Roy Bedford, John Riddell, Orville H. Ralston and Ernest Schelbitz, members of the executive committee. All officers except Wilson are student members of the legion. Mr. Wilson representing the faculty. Retiring officers include Dean O. V. P. Stout, post commandant and Dean P. M. Buck, chairman of the executive committee.

Upon motion of Ralph Wilson, the meeting went on record as demanding the immediate deportation of all enemy aliens who were interned during the war. Other resolutions were offered but all were finally referred to a committee on resolutions which will report at the next meeting. Discussion was common over the trouble with the I. W. W. organization in Washington where participants of an Armistice day parade were killed by members of that organization, and resolutions concerning that incident will be offered for approval at the next meeting.

The question of securing a room for use as headquarters of the university post was raised by Dean Buck who declared that while the legion post was not and would not be a university organization, that the university would be glad to furnish such an office room and this will be investigated at once. Dues to the amount of fifty cents per member for the defraying of local expenses including the expenses of the delegates to the state convention, were approved.

ORPHEUM HAS UNUSUAL BILL

Carl Jorn, distinguished tenor formerly of the Metropolitan Opera House of New York and the Royal Opera of London, heads an excellent bill at the Orpheum this week. His voice was in splendid condition and he sang several operatic selections from Rigoletto as well as a number from Pagliacci. A beautiful vocal interpretation of "I Hear You Calling Me" was appreciated by the audience.

George Kelly assisted by a competent company including G. Davidson Clark, Doris Dagmar, Alice Parks, and Polly Redfern presented one of his own clever farces with a moral called, "The Flattering Word." Mr. Kelly was recently starred in "Finders Keepers" and "Woman Proposes." Julius Tannen brought down the house with a bombastic fifteen minutes of wit and continuous humor in his act, "Speaking the Human Mind."

Frank Burt and Myrtle Rosedale appear in a novel entertainment closely bordering on a one-act musical satire. The Ja-Da trio, composed of the "boys" who put "Ja-Da" in song, gave their own interpretation of that dance craze of last winter, which was composed by Mr. Carleton, a member of the trio.

With an opening scene depicting a farmhand and two maiden scarecrows in a deserted cornfield, John Regay, and The Lorraine Sisters offer a unique repertoire of silent dancing. The Belgium Trio, jugglers of human beings, toss persons on the stage as they were Indian Jubs or handballs, and conclude a program of unusual merit.

Cornhuskers Rally Today to Prepare for Kansas Invasion

Every Nebraskan is Expected at Temple Thursday Morning to Drown the "Rock Chalk, Jay Hawk" Yell From Three Hundred Kansas Throats

Eleven o'clock today is the time set for the final football rally preceding the big game with Kansas on Homecoming day. The Temple is the place, and every loyal Cornhusker will be there to lend his voice in arousing pep and enthusiasm enough to send the team into the game with assurance of victory.

Three hundred Kansas rooters will be at the game to cheer the Jayhawkers to their mightiest efforts and the "Rock chalk, Jay Hawk, K. U." chant will roll over the field in a mighty volume that will make the cold chills run up and down the backs of the Nebraskans.

FRESHMEN MAKE LAST EFFORTS

Try-Outs for Last Positions Thursday—Every One Must Help

With Olympics only two days away, the freshmen are making last preparations to ensure a decisive victory over the sophomores in their clash the morning of the Home-Coming game. Freshmen participants are not yet picked for the relay or the tug of war teams, and it is absolutely essential that support be given by every man and woman in the class.

The tug of war team, with only eight members chosen, is in need of four more huskies to make the team complete. Any man who is interested in this kind of work should report to Lowell Roberts, by telephone, at the Alpha Tau Omega house before 4:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon for directions. Any man with experience or weight should rally to the support of the class.

Final try-outs for any men interested in the relay are to take place Thursday afternoon at 5:00. A man who has ability along this line lacks class and university spirit if he does not report to the Armory at 5:30.

NATION TO OBSERVE A WEEK OF PRAYER

Sunday a Day of Intersession for Young Men of Two Nations

Over the entire nation the week of November 9 to 16 inclusive is to be a week devoted to prayer. The call for intersession on behalf of the young men and boys of the two great sister Anglo-Saxon nations, the United States and Canada, is issued with a profound sense of the supreme need at the present time.

In the years of the war the American and Canadian young men, by their patriotic response to the call of the country and civilization, by their discipline and heroism and by their devotion even unto death, won the undying gratitude of their countrymen and helped to establish the liberties of the world. It is fitting and proper therefore that the two nations pause to pay tribute to the boys who so willingly laid down their lives and also to intercede for those who still live and have the responsibilities of the future on their shoulders.

On the authority of the last International Convention of the Y. M. C. A. this week was chosen for all Christian people to join together in prayer. The churches over the land have made a splendid response to the call and are cooperating with the association in laying plans for the week.

Rev. L. D. Young to Speak
Reverend L. D. Young will give an address at the public meeting for all university students on the first day of the week of prayer, Sunday November 16. The meeting will be held in the Temple theater at three o'clock. This meeting is being sponsored by the two university associations and is supported by the Lincoln churches.

HELLO DAYS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Everybody knows everybody else during Homecoming Friday and Saturday. No matter who you meet, give the greetings, "Hello!" Watch Friday's paper for particulars.

AMERICAN LEGION HOLDS CONVENTION

Takes Action to Deport Berger and Concludes Other Important Business

Minneapolis, Minn.—In the opening sessions of their national convention, the American legion demanded the deportation of Victor Berger the socialist, and the unseating of Representative Voight of Wisconsin. Voight cast the only vote in favor of Berger when the question of unseating Berger was before the house of representatives. Cleve chosen for the 1920 convention and Indianapolis for permanent headquarters of the legion.

GLOOM HANGS OVER SOPHOMORE CAMP

Second Year Men in Their Own Story, Send Out Appeal for All the Faithful to Rally Thursday Night

More Tryouts Arranged for Tonight and Unless They are Successful Freshman Will Win

After two unsuccessful attempts to hold sophomore Olympic tryouts, when only a handful of loyal second-year fighters appeared on the scene, gloom has pervaded the ranks of the sophomores. Through no lack of initiative or work on the part of the Sophomore Olympics Committee has this condition come to pass. It is merely the fact that so far second-year men have not shown enough spirit and interest to care whether or not they get "whipped" Saturday morning.

This is a deplorable status, and every member of the sophomore class should feel that it is his or her own duty to school and class organization to take an interest, if not an active part, in the games between the under-classes. Before, it has always been the case that many sophomore "dark" (Continued on Page Three)

DR. FRED M. FLING TO ADDRESS FORUM

Dr. Fred Morrow Fling, who has recently returned from the peace conference at Paris, will address the "Y" forum on Thursday afternoon at five o'clock in Faculty hall, Temple. This is to be the first meeting of this kind, where all men students will have an opportunity to ask questions and to take part in the discussion following the address. The "Y" Forum is under the auspices of the University Y. M. C. A. and aims to make it a popular meeting for all university men.

The recent meetings, at which J. Stitt Wilson spoke is the foundation for this new form of meetings at the university. It is a democratic movement and the leaders of the movement plan to have speakers each week that will compel the interest of every wide-awake man on the campus.

NEBRASKA ENGINEERS MEET

The Nebraska student chapter of the American association of Engineers met last evening in the Mechanical Engineering building. The meeting was addressed by two interesting speakers, Mr. Eyerley, of the Lincoln Gas and Electric company, and Mr. O. J. Fee, a Nebraska graduate, both gave enlightening and helpful addresses on the subject of business relations for engineers.

After this program, the association met in regular business session. It was decided to send Mr. Salter to Columbia, Missouri, December 5, to attend a conference of engineers from all the colleges and universities in the Missouri valley. The Missouri engineers have issued invitations to all the engineering students in valley schools to attend this important convention. Plans will be discussed for nationalizing the St. Patrick's day affair which is observed by students in engineering courses at Missouri and Ames.

HOME COMING BATTLE IS WITH ANCIENT RIVAL

Kansas is Coming On Special Train—Confident of Winning from Nebraska

Huskies Are in Fine Form and Should Give the Jayhawkers More Trouble Than They Expect

The 1919 Home-coming day will witness a struggle to the finish between the picked sons of Nebraska and the defenders of the Sunflower. A team skilled in every department of the game will represent the Jayhawkers state and the wearers of the Scarlet and the Cream must exert themselves to the limit and exhibit the vim and fire that has always been the predominant characteristic of Cornhusker eleven.

The Kansans believe, and not without reason, that Nebraska's eleven of this year is not up to the standard of bygone days and consequently are confident they will carry home the Huskers' bacon.

Schulte's men are on the job and are preparing diligently for the Jayhawkers invasion. That the Jayhawkers have profound belief in their ability to trounce the Nebraskans, is easily perceived in the following dispatch to the Nebraskan:

From Kansas
Lawrence, Kans., Nov. 12.—A strong eleven of first string Jayhawkers will meet the Nebraska Cornhuskers next Saturday in Lincoln, unless the unforeseen happens and some of Coach McCarty's Kansas men are injured in practice this week. Practically all the men are in good shape now with the exception of Kampert, a fighting tackle, who was forced out of the Oklahoma game with a twisted knee, and a strong team, with an eye on the Missouri Valley title, will be sent against the Northerners.

Practically all the work this week in preparation for the Nebraska game will be done in strengthening the offensive. The stonewall defense Kansas has developed will be considered good enough for the team that will go against the Cornhuskers. Two second string tackles, Church and Merxen, were in the game Saturday and still the defense did not weaken. Coach McCarty has not announced whether or not any new plays will be used. None were developed for Oklahoma, but it is possible a few new ones will be tried against Nebraska.

LINCOLN HIGH AND BEATRICE MAY FIGHT FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

This week will mark the turning point in the race for the high school championship of Nebraska. Lincoln high is conceded to be the strongest contender, but Beatrice is still in the running and Omaha Central will have a chance if she succeed in defeating the Red and Black Friday.

Beatrice won from the Omaha Central aggregation last Friday by a single field goal, the score being 3-0. Omaha had been touted as a probable title winner and her defeat at the hands of the Beatrice team came as a surprise to the dopesters. Omaha advances the alibi that a number of her regulars were missing from the lineup, but those who witnessed the game agree that the Beatrice team was a very formidable proposition. Bloodgood, Beatrice backfield star, is reputed to be one of the fastest gridiron artists who has appeared on any Nebraska field this season. All claims of Cambridge high school to the title were abandoned when the western school suffered a decisive defeat at the hands of York.

If Omaha can defeat the Lincoln team Friday, she may be still classed as a contender for state honors. However, all odds favor a Red and Black victory over the metropolitan lads. Beatrice plays the State Farm eleven and should have an easy game. The real class for the championship will no doubt take place at Beatrice on Turkey Day when the Gage county phenom encounter Lincoln High.

AMERICAN LEGION HOLDS CONVENTION

Takes Action to Deport Berger and Concludes Other Important Business

Minneapolis, Minn.—In the opening sessions of their national convention, the American legion demanded the deportation of Victor Berger the socialist, and the unseating of Representative Voight of Wisconsin. Voight cast the only vote in favor of Berger when the question of unseating Berger was before the house of representatives. Cleve chosen for the 1920 convention and Indianapolis for permanent headquarters of the legion.

An amendment to admit men who had served in the American or allied armies and afterwards become American citizens was defeated. The legion gave hearty endorsement of universal military training, with a small standing army and no compulsory military service. Certificates from the French government for the families of American soldiers killed in France were presented to the convention with the request that they be delivered to the families. The legion voted to do this as far as possible. The present legion button was approved. Headquarters flags with the legion emblem inscribed on a field of red, white and blue were selected. The legion voted to establish an executive committee with a representative from each state.

METHODIST WOMEN WILL ORGANIZE

Methodist university girls will meet either at 4:30 or 7:30 Friday evening, November 14, in the Faculty hall of the Temple for the purpose of organizing a Nebraska chapter of Kappa Phi. The purpose of this organization is to form a closer association among Methodist women in state schools; to make the work of the church more effective; to maintain a more serviceable organization to care for incoming freshmen each year, and to provide, in a college woman's way, religious training and a wholesome social life.

There are chapters of Kappa Phi at Kansas University, the State University of Iowa and the Iowa State College at Ames. Other chapters are in the process of organization. Mrs. Townsend, former sponsor of the Beta chapter of Iowa, will meet with the girls on Friday to formulate plans for the installation of a chapter for Nebraska. All Methodist girls are urged to attend one of the meetings and help to make good the motto, "Every University Woman of Today a Leader in the Church of Tomorrow."

FEE TO ADDRESS COMMERCIAL CLUB

O. J. eFe, '03, will speak before the members of the University Commercial club Thursday evening at 7:30 in Room 107, Social Science building. His message to the club members will be a feature of the regular meeting of the organization.

The Commercial club is very fortunate in securing Mr. Fee to give the first of a series of talks which will be presented to club members this year. He is a practical business man of Lincoln, and is now connected with the Evans Laundry. He will also speak at the Husker football rally Thursday morning in the armory.

The committee which has charge of the Commercial club meeting is looking forward to a large attendance accompanied by much enthusiasm, because the Commercial club this year is larger than at any time before.

Every man in the college of business administration is urged to attend. Every one present will receive some valuable ideas and broad hints from a man experienced in the business affairs of Lincoln.
