

MEN WILL GATHER
AT VARSITY FEAST

Dr. L. D. Young Will Act as Toastmaster at Friday
Night's Celebration.

ALL TICKETS ARE SOLD

That the 1920 football banquet, to be held Friday evening at 6 o'clock in the dining room of the Lincoln Hotel, will be a huge success and overflowing with Cornhusker spirit, is certain from the sale of tickets. A hundred more tickets in addition to the three hundred fifty validated would have been required to satisfy the demand for them Wednesday.

The banquet will commence at 6 o'clock instead of 6:30 in order that those who wish to attend the sophomore hop or other university activities on that night may do so after the banquet and toast list have been finished. The innocents have charge of the banquet and the football team will be the guests of honor.

The annual football banquet has been handed down through the years until now it has become one of the leading university traditions. Two years ago the banquet resembled the annual Olympic meet more than it did a banquet but last year's success has placed the affair once more on its feet. This year the old Cornhusker spirit and life will be present but the one-time apparent rowdiness will be dampened by the formality of the regular banquet procedure. At the close of the banquet a regular toast list will be followed.

Dr. L. D. Young, as toastmaster, will take and give the puns always featuring a banquet. The following definite program will be carried out in the toast list:

"Kick-Off," Chancellor Avery.
"Return," Provost James T. Lee.
"Nebraska Hall," Coach Schulte.
"Forward Pass," Captain Paul Dobson.

"Line Smash," Captain-elect "Bill" Day.

"Touchdown, Hurrah, Nebraska," C. Petrus Peterson.

In addition to the banquet and the toasts a program has been arranged which will be given either between courses at the banquet or after the toasts. Gayles "Rag-a-Jazz Orchestra" and the university quartet will furnish music for the evening. An Orpheum act will be secured if possible.

"U-Rah, N-Rah, U-N-I;" and "U. U. Uah" will be in evidence during the whole evening. The first-year men will receive their first introduction to the real Nebraska spirit and the upperclassmen and alumni members present will have an example of the old pep which was apparent when they were at Nebraska.

CLOSE BALLOT
CAST ON TREATY

Eight Universities for Any Compromise, Nine for Ratification Without Amendments.

Colleges from East to West Take Big Vote on Intercollegiate Referendum.

Eight, of twenty middle western colleges, in the League of Nations and Treaty referendum, voted in favor of any compromise which would make possible immediate ratification, and nine were in favor of ratification without reservations or amendment, according to incomplete returns compiled today. Three favored ratification with the reservations proposed by Senator Lodge and one voted in favor of a separate peace.

Votes taken at nine colleges and universities on the Pacific coast showed a plurality in favor of ratification with reservations calculated to retain for the United States board control of its activities under the league of nations covenant.

The schools in the middle west that voted for a compromise were the Universities of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan, Denver university, St. Louis university, Washington university, St. Ignace college and Case school of Applied Science.

MEXICAN TANGLE WILL BE DISCUSSED AT FORUM

"The Mexican Situation," which has been the cause of so much trouble to the United States for the last few years, will be the subject of discussion at the Y. M. C. A. Forum meeting at the Temple this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Ray Cowan will lead the meeting which will have to do with the attitude America should take towards Mexico, the cause of the trouble and the question of American intervention. Recent events have brought the Mexican tangle to a head and the United States must take some action. What form of action to take is the question that America must answer.

Every man is invited to attend the meeting and take an active part in the discussion. The Bushnell Guild orchestra will furnish music.

ALL-STAR CAST TO GIVE "UNDER COVER"

A. E. F. Men and Talented Women Will Have "Leads" in Megrue's Play.

"Under Cover," which will be given Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings at the Temple Theater by the University Players Stock Company, promises to be one of the best campus productions of the year. The play written by the author of "It Pays to Advertise," given recently by the University Players, and has proven even more popular than that production. It is a story of the society life of the New York "500," smuggling, and the United States' customs.

Every effort has been made to present "Under Cover" in the most professional manner, and one scene alone costs $125 to produce. Reservations may be made at Ross P. Curtice's; the tickets costing 35c. The cast, which is made up of star players, is as follows:

Cyril Leslie Coombs—English boy who has been on the professional stage.

Floyd Johnson—the mysterious Stephen Denby.

Eleanore Fogg—Appropriately playing the "heavy" part.

Carlisle Jones—An ex-star of the Dramatic Club with Susie Scott and Elizabeth Erasmie.

Josephine Strode—Who would do anything rather than be old-fashioned.

Alice Howell and Alfred Reese—The "90 millions," couple who are still in love with each other.

Carl Peterson—In the part of a Cadillac.

Walter Herbert and "Swede" Dana—of the United States customs.

True Jack—Who gambles.

Irma Wolfe—The deaf and dumb "chicken."

Notre Dame University will play here on November 9. Center College has been assigned the important mid-season game on October 23 which the University of Illinois refused.

Girls Will Make Merry
While Boys Are Feasting

The Armory will take on a carnival air when the coeds join in the annual Girls' Cornhusker party, while the men attend the Cornhusker banquet. Plans are complete to make it the most festive girls' occasion of the season. Certainly it will rival all the Girls' Cornhusker parties of former years. Originality will be the rule in costumes this year. An added incentive is given to clever costuming, for judges will select the best costumed girl from each of the four classes.

The party will begin at 7:30. It is imperative to be on time in order not to miss any of the fun. After 9:30 there will be dancing. Silver Serpents have charge of selling refreshments during the evening. The exact nature of these refreshments is kept secret but it is promised that they will be a real treat.

The price of admission is twenty-five cents. Tickets may be secured at the door.

The committees in charge of the affair have been making detailed plans for the evening. True Jack, president of the W. S. G. A. is in charge. She

BOULDER QUINTET
READY FOR FRIDAY
GAME WITH HUSKERS

Sports Editor of Boulder Publication Expects High Altitude Will Affect Nebraskans.

By Alan Nichols
(Sports Editor, Silver and Gold)
Boulder, Colo., Jan. 15.—Groomed by five weeks of hard work, encouraged by the initial victory over the old Grads 26 to 17, and stimulated by the knowledge of two stiff games ahead, Colorado's silver-jerseyed quintet went through its final workout in preparation for the first game with Nebraska's Huskers on the Armory floor Friday night. A crowd which will jam even the entrances is expected to pack the gymnasium to greet the Scarlet and Cream in its maiden appearance in the Rocky Mountain conference.

The tentative survey of material predicted before the season opened was found to be a fact and Coach Joe Mills was surrounded by a wealth of material. Five members of last season's Rocky Mountain champions were out in suits, supported by a strong group of last year's freshmen stars. So large was the squad that the Silver and Gold mentor found himself compelled not to call his letter men out until after Christmas and devote his entire time prior to the holidays in combing and sifting his new candidates.

For this reason Captain Schrepferman, Willard, Breckenridge, Brown, and Savage were not called upon until two weeks ago. It was then found that Savage, the veteran guard, was ineligible because of scholastic standing. Noggle has been working in his place and doing satisfactorily. The remainder of last year's team is intact.

In the first and only practice game of the season, the Varsity downed the old Grads 26 to 17. The veterans had three men on former conference championship teams, and gave the Silver and Gold a fast contest until the final ten minutes when the injection of substitutes on the spent Grads gave a substantial margin. The men plainly showed their lack of basket eyes. Willard, Colorado's speedy forward, failed to register a field basket; and throughout the evening shots were missed which will prove markers later in the season. Foul throwing was also poor, the Varsity making only one point in eight attempts.

But aside from the quintet which will probably start the contest, Mills has a strong group of substitutes. Williams, Schaik, and Bell of last year's squad are showing better this winter. Britzman, the Colorado Springs speedy guard, Keller, Smith, Vidal, Harris, Zanol, and Petersen all are men who may land berths on the Varsity before

CONFLICT OF DATES MAY DELAY UNIVERSITY NIGHT

There is a conflict in the dates for the auditorium March 6. The annual university night performance was scheduled for that night, and also games in the state high school basketball tournament. Both are interesting to university students, and the university night program may have to be postponed until later in March, when that evening will be a closed night for university functions.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU TO AID MEN WHO WANT WORK

The Y. M. C. A. employment bureau, under the direction of George Driver, secretary, is co-operating with the Commercial Club in securing employment for university men. The Commercial Club is sending out a circular letter to Lincoln business men, giving the number of university men available for employment.

The employment bureau has listed the applicants for work. For stenographic work several desired employment in the morning, five or six in the afternoon and ten or twelve on Saturday. Twelve men want miscellaneous work at all hours during the week days and fifty-eight want jobs on Saturdays. Twenty-one men are available to wait tables and wash dishes.

OLD-FASHIONED TALK
GIVEN AT VESPERS

Mrs. Brownell Spoke on Worth-whiles of Life to Members of Y. W. C. A. Tuesday.

Mrs. Herbert Brownell gave "An Old-Fashioned Talk," at vespers Tuesday. Her kindly personality at once created a sympathetic atmosphere.

The homely chat and still more, the personality of Mrs. Brownell appealed to the girls. Especial interest was attached to her because most of the girls are acquainted with her daughter, Mary Brownell, who is a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Mrs. Brownell is a member of the Y. W. C. A. advisory board.

In plain language, she emphasized the importance of the little things that make up the twenty-four hours of each day. "We have had our thought directed to doing things in a big way," she said, "and we must do that but we must see that we are fit to do things in a big way." She told the girls that every act, however small, has a part in the making of personality, and that no act can be undone.

Using the familiar illustration of the stone thrown into the pond, she said, "We cannot hope, until we have touched the one next to us, to influence the whole circle."

The closing thought was, "If your words and your thoughts and the meditations of your heart are acceptable in the sight of God, they will be acceptable in your sight, and you will never have any memories that you wish you might forget."

Madeline Hendricks led the devotional exercises.

MANY ALUMNI IN STATE CONVENTION

Constitutional Body to Draft Amendments Contains Many Former Nebraskans.

The growing importance of the place taken by the University of Nebraska in this commonwealth is clearly seen when one reviews the membership of the present constitutional convention. It seems that twenty-seven of these men have attended the university while eighteen are related to it or more who have had students in the institution at some time.

Considerable effort has been made to obtain an accurate list of these. Mistakes may, however, be present. If so, corrections will be welcomed by those who are compiling the list.

In checking up the members of the constitutional convention, the records in the registrar's office have been consulted with care on several occasions. A number of prominent alumni who have kept in touch with university history have assisted. So also has valuable help been given by members of the university faculty. The historical library staff aided. The Nebraska State Journal is compiling by personal correspondence accurate data on all members of the convention. The editor very kindly allowed the writer of this article to consult this data, also up to date. The Journal's compilations are not yet complete.

The following have attended as indicated:
Anderson, Walter J. summer of 1916.

Bigelow, Anson H. B. Sc. '37, the oldest alumnus in the convention. Relatives have also attended.

Buller, Benjamin, Franklin, LL. B. '97.
